The Model City Agency is conducting a sanitation demonstration program in a portion of the Interim Assistance Area as part of the second year Interim Assistance Program being administered by the Agency, and we desire to let a contract for a dump truck with a driver and four laborers to participate in the program. Thirteen local contractors were requested to submit bids for the work, and Mr. Blair was the low bidder.

It is requested that the contract be awarded without advertising because of the importance of hiring local truckers who are familiar with the area and so that the Model City Agency may comply with the federal mandate to provide maximum opportunity for employing area residents in the Model City Program.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

RECREATION PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) to the Ecumenical Social Action Committee, Inc., (E.S.A.C.), 169 Amory Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program in Subarea I as part of the Parks and Recreation program of the Model Cities Area.

The Creative Urban Encounter Project (C.U.E.) to be offered by (E.S.A.C.) was conceived to supplement the standard school curriculum and to provide new ways of learning for the program participants. The program is designated for area youth ranging in age from the preschooler through junior high school. Additional recreation projects are needed for Subarea I because of the fact programs and facilities serving this age grouping are limited. The objective of the curriculum to be offered will be to achieve a total recreation program, including physical education, arts and crafts, creative projects, such as photography, psychodrama, and karate. The programs will be scheduled at the E.S.A.C. center and at facilities in the community.

To achieve a fair ethnic representation among participants, youngsters shall be recruited from four different school neighborhoods of Subarea I. Approximately three hundred (300) area children will be served under the (C.U.E.) project.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from August 1, 1971, through July 31, 1972.

It is therefore, requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC SERVICE
EXTENSION OF LEASE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request your written authority to exercise the option to extend the present lease for the Little City Hall in Roxbury, according to paragraph b, page 2, of said lease.

The premises are leased from Morin and Balerna Realty Trust of One Manor Drive, Hingham, Mass., and located at 11-29 Roxbury Street, Roxbury. The terms of the lease shall be from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, with an option to renew for each of the subsequent two years. The annual rent is eight thousand nine hundred and eighty-one dollars and twenty-five cents ($8,981.25).

Sincerely yours,
FREDERICK P. SALVUCCI,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT ARCHITECT'S DOCUMENTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On the nineteenth day of the current month, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request of your Honor, as I hereby do, written permission for the waiver of public advertising in the City Record in awarding to Ehrenzeller Associates, Engineers, of 45 Brookline Street, Abington, Mass., a contract for the purchase from Ehrenzeller Associates of working drawings and detailed specifications for additions and modifications to the heating system at the Hastings School in the West Roxbury district of the City of Boston at a cost not to exceed $4,600; and to authorize the Director to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The subject and drawings and specifications are immediately available and have been drawn in accord with all pertinent City of Boston requirements and regulations. Their acquisition by the method outlined will be expeditious and the school heating system involved needs the additions and modifications which their use and application will effect.

Under the circumstances it is considered that nothing is gained through the pursuance of our customary advertising procedures which involve the inevitable consumption of time, a factor which is all-important in this instance and one that cannot be disregarded. Thus the request to forego public advertising for competitive bids by advertisement in the City Record.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECT'S SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At its last regular meeting, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned, since the B.S.A. -P.F.D. liaison committee has reviewed the selection of Hill, Miller, Friedlaender, Hollander, Inc., as architects for the Charlestown High School, to request, in the name and on behalf of the Public Facilities Commission from the Mayor, written authority to dispense with inviting competitive bids by advertising therefor in the City Record in awarding to Hill, Miller, Friedlaender, Hollander, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, architects and planners, of 543 Green Street, Cambridge, Mass., a contract to prepare schematic designs, design development drawings, basic outline specifications and construction cost estimates for use in the construction of a high school in the Charlestown district of Boston, at a cost for such services not to exceed $162,220 (including the amount of $40,000 for supplementary services); and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

Subsequently, it is our design that a second contract would be awarded to the aforementioned architect, following the concurrence of the Commission and your Honor's approval, providing for preparation of the working drawings, detailed specifications, and supervision of construction. The fee for the projected Phase II contract would be taken from the A.I.A. 1967 recommended schedule of minimum "B" rates, as computed and based upon the construction cost estimates, less $122,220 of the amount authorized for expenditures under the presently proposed contract.

In consideration of the circumstances that the firm which the city now proposes to contract renders professional services it is felt that public advertising for proposals therefor would serve no discernible public purpose.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission has, since the B.S.A. -P.F.D. liaison committee has reviewed the selection of Carroll and Greenfield, a Massachusetts partnership, and Robert Charles Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, a joint venture as architect for the Margaret Fuller School replacement, authorized me to request of your Honor, in the name and on behalf of the Public Facilities Commission, written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record in awarding to architects Carroll and Greenfield, a Massachusetts partnership consisting of Paul J. Carroll and Sanford R. Greenfield, and Robert Charles Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, a joint venture, with offices at 729 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to prepare schematic designs, design development drawings, basic outline specifications, and construction cost estimates for use in construction of the Margaret Fuller School replacement in the Jamaica Plain district of the City of Boston, at a cost for such services of not to exceed $152,500 (including the amount of $40,000 for supplementary services); and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

Later on and contingent upon the Commission's prior assent and the approval of your Honor we would award a second contract to the above-named joint venturers providing for preparing the working drawings, detailed specifications, and the supervision of the actual construction. The fee for the anticipated second contract would be derived from the A.I.A. 1967 recommended schedule of minimum "B" rates, as computed and founded on the construction cost estimate, less $112,500 of the amount authorized for expenditure under the present proposed contract.

Since the services to be furnished here are in the professional category it is the opinion of the Board that public advertising for competitive bids therefor would not be of value to the City of Boston.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Recently, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request in its name and on its behalf, as I now do, of your Honor, executive consent for the omission of public advertising in the City Record in awarding a contract to Hankins and Anderson, a Virginia partnership, mechanical engineers, with a usual place of business at 1033 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., to (a) analyze and evaluate previous mechanical and electrical systems used in construction of BOSTCO Track I and II Schools; (b) to design and develop, based on the conclusions arrived at under (a), uniform mechanical and electrical systems for use in the Track III BOSTCO program and future schools considered appropriate by the Director for the use of the uniform system; and (c) as a supplementary service, to coordinate the efforts of the four Track III school architects to insure, to the greatest practicable extent, that the systems concept of the mechanical and electrical systems in the buildings is being consistently followed, inform the aforesaid architects and the city of the situation with respect to adherence to the systems concept from time to time, and to render assistance in maintaining consistently uniform systems, at a cost for all such services not to exceed $93,450, including the amount of $15,000 for the supplementary services; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

In view of the very technical and professional quality of the services and functions to be rendered under the proposed contract it is considered that the interest of the city would not be best served in this instance by a public solicitation for competitive bids for the subject services.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As authorized by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request of your Honor, for and on behalf of that Board, executive permission to dispense with a public solicitation for competitive bids in the City Record in awarding to Engineers Design Group, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, engineers, with a usual place of business at 133 Massachusetts Avenue, Lexington, Mass., a contract (a) to analyze and evaluate previous construction of BOSTCO Track I and II schools; (b) to design and develop, based on the conclusions arrived at under (a), uniform structural systems for use in the Track III BOSTCO program and future schools considered appropriate by the Director, for the use of the uniform system; and (c) as a supplementary service, to coordinate the efforts of the four Track III school architects to ensure, to the greatest practicable extent, that the systems concept of the structural systems in the buildings is being consistently followed, to inform the aforesaid architects and the city of the situation with respect to adherence to the systems concept from time to time, and to render assistance in maintaining consistently uniform systems, at a cost for such services not to exceed $45,000 (including the amount of $5,000 for supplementary services); and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

In view of the particularly technical and unique services to be carried out under the projected contract, it is the opinion of the awarding authority that public advertising for proposals by advertisement published in the City Record would not be in the public interest in the present case.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As of February 29, 1972, the Public Facilities Commission, pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of 1966, chapter 642, authorized the undersigned to request in its name and on its behalf, of the Mayor of Boston, as I hereby do, formal written permission to omit the customary public advertising in the City Record, in awarding to Scorzello Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, consulting engineers, of 179 Fifth Street, Cambridge, Mass., a contract for consulting engineering services in the preparation of a study report, plans, specifications, estimates of cost, and supervision of construction, all as will be required for alterations to portions of the heating system in the north and south lobbies of the New City Hall, Boston, Mass., at a cost for such services of 14.79 percent of the estimated cost of construction of $35,000, which is not to exceed $7,676.50, including the amount of $2,500 for supplementary services; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

For the information of your Honor, the aforespecified fee rate of 14.79 is based on the "A" rate schedule, plus 3 percent allowed for alterations as set forth in Directive No. 3 dated February 15, 1966, as issued by then Director of Administrative Services. Also, the aforementioned study report will consist of a study of the heating system, followed by the submission of a written report outlining the causes of the unsatisfactory heating conditions in the subject north and south lobbies and recommend the alterations which will be required to ameliorate those existing conditions.

Again, we propose contracting for the performance of professional services and therefore are of the view that it would not be of any avail to the city to publicly advertise for bids therefor in the City Record.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request, in the name and on behalf of the Public Facilities Commission, written authorization from your Honor to dispense with a formal invitation for proposals by publicly inviting bids through the medium of the City Record, in awarding a contract to Harold Eugene Proctor, a professional engineer, 26 Central Avenue, Danvers, Mass., to provide during the period from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, electrical engineering consultation and services, when ordered, for construction projects, at a cost not to exceed $10,000, the hourly rate being $12.50 per hour, and including, not to exceed $1,600 for certain directly related out-of-pocket expenses as specifically authorized by and under the terms of the proposed contract.

In view of our most satisfactory experience with the aforementioned engineer during the past two year period, we know that the foregoing services will continue to be of tremendous assistance to this department in the preparation and review of electrical plans and specifications. In the event that the volume of services actually required here begins to exceed the estimated quantity thereof, upon which the contract is to be based, I would, with the prior assent of the Commission, forthwith request your Honor's permission to amend the contract as appeared necessary at such time.

The subject services are of a highly special and technical character and for these reasons it is considered that a public solicitation for competitive bids for such services would not be in the public interest.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Recent action by the Public Facilities Commission authorizes me to request, in the name and on behalf of that Commission, of the Mayor of Boston, as I now do, formal executive authorization to dispense with conforming to those otherwise mandatory provisions of our City Charter requiring City Record advertising, in awarding to Wilson Rains and Associates, a Massachusetts partnership, with a usual place of business at 123 Mt. Auburn Street, Cambridge, Mass., a contract to provide, as ordered from time to time during the period January 1, 1972, to January 1, 1973, both dates inclusive, co-origination of the separate architectural designs for BOSTCO Track III schools, namely the Barnes Middle School, the Bunker Hill School, the Carter School, and the Washington Allston School, at a cost for such services not to exceed $30,000 (including the net cost, up to $5,000, of directly related out-of-pocket expenses authorized by and under the contract); and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

For the information of your Honor, it is expected that the same proportion of the proposed contract sum will be expended in connection with each one of the four above-named schools and further that Wilson Rains and Associates will be paid for its services at the hourly rates to be set forth in the projected contract.

Since we are to be involved here under the proposed contract with the rendition of professional services it does not appear that any public purpose would be served by a public invitation published in the City Record for competitive bids therefor and thus this written request to forego the same.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission in regular meeting assembled has authorized the undersigned to request of your Honor, in its name and on its behalf, formal written permission to dispense with the usual advertising procedures in awarding to SRS Consultants, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, of 143 Newbury Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to provide consulting services during the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, in connection with the planning and design of the proposed Occupational Resources Center for the School Department, including preparation of (a) design requirement, (b) educational specifications, and (c) equipment specifications as are needed for (1) architectural design and (2) approvals of the project by the Boston School Department and the State Department of Education, at a cost for such services, payable in accordance with the schedule of rates to be recited in the proposed contract, of not to exceed $50,000 (including certain out-of-pocket, directly related, expenses specifically authorized by and under the contract); and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The services to be furnished under the terms of the proposed contract require very special knowledge, skill, training, and experience and it is not therefore considered at all likely that the same would have been forthcoming had we pursued the normal public advertising procedures in this instance.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes from the Boys Club of Boston, Inc.

The premises to be included in the proposed lease are the swimming pool, one classroom, library, and gymnasium attached to the South Boston Boys Club, 230 West Sixth Street, South Boston, Mass. The term of the lease shall be from April 1, 1972, through June 30, 1972, from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M., for use of special class students of the Patrick F. Gavin School. The rent to be paid at the rate of $1,000 per month, not exceeding $3,000.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful here.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be included in the proposed lease is suite No. 4 at 1864 Centre Street, West Roxbury, Mass. The term of the lease shall be for twelve (12) months beginning April 1, 1972, and terminating March 31, 1973. The rental will be $2,640 payable in twelve equal monthly installments of $220. Heat, janitorial service, and parking are included. The lease provides for payment of a proportion of any excess in real estate taxes over the 1971 tax bill, payable as "additional rent."

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power by the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director, for School, Library, Police, and Fire Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be leased consist of approximately 12,650 square feet (an increase of 1,400 square feet more or less from the current lease) of vacant space on the basement floor of the premises at 24-26 Malvern Street, Allston, Mass. The lessor is Joseph A. and Marguerita T. DeMambro. The term of the lease will be twelve (12) months beginning April 1, 1972, and terminating March 31, 1973. Included in the lease is an option to extend the term of the lease for one period of twelve (12) months, terminating May 31, 1974, upon written notice to the lessor.

Rental of this space for the term of the lease is to be $27,184.44, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments of $2,265.62.

This space will be used for the storage of furnishings, including furniture, carpeting, heavy duty custodial and/or maintenance equipment. These items in the main represent items delivered on contract for buildings being constructed or remodelled, and where the buildings in question are not ready to receive them. The building itself is in excellent physical condition, is sprinklered, has an alarm system, and the required freight elevators and loading dock.

Since the warehouse in question is both adequate and convenient, it is not felt that public advertising would serve any useful purpose in this instance.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be leased are Rooms 520, 521, and 522, consisting of 785 square feet at 120 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., for use by the area assistant superintendent and staff of the School Department. The term of this lease is from April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973. The rental for this term is $3,960, payable in twelve monthly installments of $330. This is a per square foot rental of $5, which compares favorably with buildings in the area.

Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is herewith requested of your Honor to award a contract, without advertising, to the Westinghouse Manufacturing Company to provide engineering personnel as necessary to locate the cause or source of defects or problems that may develop on the overhead crane controls at the South Bay Incinerator for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

It will be the responsibility of the contractor to locate the cause or source of any electrical trouble that may develop and to recommend the steps to be taken by the city to correct the situation and furthermore, it will be the function of the contractor to supervise the installation of new parts in the system in a particular case. The parts and actual installation will be performed by others. The contractor will, however, make adjustments to the installation in order that the new parts and materials installed will perform at peak proficiency.

The contractor will perform this work at such times as he may be called upon by the proper authorities. The contractor will be paid at the prevailing rate for such services, which is $22 per hour straight time and $44 per hour overtime, and in addition a travel allowance for each service call of $0.10 per mile. The overall cost of these services shall not exceed $3,500.

It may not be inappropriate for me to add that since all the crane electrical controls were in fact manufactured by the Westinghouse Manufacturing Company, and thus its personnel are more familiar with the same than others, it would seem that public advertising for these services would achieve no practical purpose.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner.

REMOVAL OF GARBAGE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Our existing contracts for the removal of garbage at Victory Road, Dorchester, and at Gardner Street, West Roxbury, due to expire March 31, 1972, both contain an option clause, if the city so elects, for a renewal for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

The present contractors, Kristoff Brothers, at Victory Road, and Kennedy Brothers, at Gardner Street, both have provided excellent service under their contracts, and have proven reliable, which is a major factor in considering the award of garbage disposal contracts. I have investigated other means of disposing of the garbage, and find that the current contract is the best arrangement that can be made for the coming twelve months period.

Therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and enter into a contract with Kristoff Brothers of Sterling Junction, Mass., for the removal of garbage at Victory Road, Dorchester, for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, for the sum of $1,300 per month, the total cost not to exceed $15,600; and to dispense with public advertising and enter into a contract with Kennedy Brothers, Lincoln, Mass., for the removal of garbage at Gardner Street, West Roxbury, for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, for the sum of $1,300 per month, the total cost not to exceed $15,600.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

GUIDE, INFORMATION, AND PROGRAM SERVICE

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with writing proposals by public advertising in the City Record in awarding a contract to the Boston Foundation, Inc., 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass., for the supply of a guide service, information service, and program service in the City Hall. A guide service will consist of three to five guides Monday through Friday and up to two guides for Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays during the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973. The Foundation will be paid at the average rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per week for each guide employed Monday through Friday and at the average rate of three dollars ($3) per hour for service on other days. The total cost to the city will not exceed twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000).

Further, under this same contract, we would like to request nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for special exhibits, events, and other related services in City Hall itself and on the plaza. This would include such items as:

Exhibitions

1. Christmas (six weeks of celebrations, exhibits, decorations, $1,500.
2. Other holiday exhibits throughout the year, $1,500.
3. Displays for special occasions, including flags for UN Day, photography exhibit for Boston's 150th Anniversary, etc., $1,500.
4. Expenses related to above such as security, graphics, public relations, custodial, and hangings, $2,000.

Events

1. Luncheon and evening concerts for city workers and general public, $1,000.
2. Expenses related to seminars and meetings held in City Hall: overtime guards, overtime custodians, rental of tables and chairs, graphics, and public relations, $2,000.

The total cost to the city under this contract will not exceed thirty-eight thousand five hundred dollars ($38,500). Because of the special and professional services to be rendered, I believe that public advertising for bids would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner,
Real Property Department.

REGISTRY DIVISION

BINDING RECORDS

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with publicly advertising in the City Record and to award a contract, not to exceed $6,000, to the Data Process Binding Corporation, 836 Broadway, New York City, New York, to bind the original records of births, marriages, and deaths and the five-year indexes of same as required by General Laws, chapter 46, section 2, for the period of April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

This firm has done excellent work in binding the records of this division for the past six years at a substantial saving to the city and since the work is done on the premises, the records are available to service the public at the established fees which, of course, means added revenue.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM J. KANE,
City Registrar.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record and to award a contract to Westwood Investigative Associates for supplying to the Traffic and Parking Department investigative services for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

The contract provides for services, as required, on a work order basis and is proposed for a maximum expenditure of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

Due to the highly confidential and professional nature of the services to be rendered, it is my finding that public advertising for bids could serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner.

THE CITY SEAL

As it appeared prior to 1827

The City Seal was adopted by "An Ordinance to Establish the City Seal," passed January 2, 1823, which provides "That the design hereto annexed, as sketched by John R. Penniman, giving a view of the City, be the device of the City Seal; that the motto be as follows, to wit: 'Sicut patribus sit Deus nobis'; and that the inscription be as follows:—'Bostonia condita, A.D. 1630. Civitatis regimine donata, A.D. 1822.'" The motto is taken from 1 Kings, viii, 57: "God be with us as He was with our fathers."

The seal as it first appeared is shown above.

The seal as it was afterwards changed, and has ever since continued to be used, was first shown on page 221 of the volume of laws and ordinances, commonly known as the "First Revision," published in 1827, and is established as the City Seal at the present time by Revised Ordinances of 1914, Chapter 1, Section 5, which provides that "The seal of the City shall be circular in form; shall bear a view of the City; the motto 'SICUT PATRIBUS SIT DEUS NOBIS,' and the inscription, 'BOSTONIA CONDITA, A.D. 1630. CIVITATIS REGIMINE DONATA A.D. 1822.'"

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

State House is on Beacon Street, at the head of Park Street. The facade of the original building, designed by Bulfinch and erected in 1795, remains unchanged. Within are statues, historical paintings, battle flags, and war relics. Open Monday through Friday, except holidays, 9 to 5, free. When in session the legislature meets Monday through Thursday; chambers are open. Guide service is provided by the Secretary of the Commonwealth Archives Division, assisted by the Doric Dames. This service is available from 10 to 2.

Across the street is the Shaw Monument by Augustus Saint-Gaudens. This famous bronze statue of Col. Robert Gould Shaw memorializes the 54th Massachusetts regiment of the Civil War.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Installation of Wood Beam Guard Rail in West Boundary Road in West Roxbury and Hyde Park.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for installation of wood beam guard rail in West Boundary Road in West Roxbury and Hyde Park.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, less the amount of $2,000, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Installation of Wood Beam Guard Rail in West Boundary Road in West Roxbury and Hyde Park," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1972, with a certified check for EIGHT HUNDRED TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS ($825), payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 805 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY

500 ARBORWAY, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02130.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids for M.B.T.A. Contract No. ED-855(R) will be received by the Contract Administrator at the office of the Director of Planning and Construction, 500 Arborway, Boston, Massachusetts 02130, until two o'clock (2 P.M.) (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) on October 12, 1972, immediately after which in a designated room, the proposals will be opened and read publicly.

The above-numbered contract is more fully described as follows: CONVERSION OF COAL-FIRED BOILERS TO GAS-FIRED OPERATION, LOTUS PLACE HEATING PLANT, 3592 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts. The work under this contract consists of the removal of the existing cast-iron grates and firebrick refractory firebox lining and the installation of new conversion burners, piping, controls, refractory lining, and appurtenances necessary for the conversion of two (2) Robb-Mumford, coal-fired, horizontal return tubular boilers, with each boiler having a capacity of 22,350 square feet of steam per hour, to a safe and efficient gas-fired operation in the Lotus Place Heating Plant located at 3592 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass. Work includes furnishing of all materials, labor, and necessary equipment to satisfactorily perform the work as described in the contract documents.

Prequalification of contractors in accordance with the Authority's "Procedures Governing Classification and Rating of Prospective Bidders" will not be applicable to this contract.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the Contract Administrator at the address above from 8:30 A.M. to 4 P.M., Monday through Friday. A charge of $2 will be made for plans, specifications, and other contract documents, which charge will not be refunded.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit in the amount of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) in the form of cash or a certified check or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority. A bid bond will not be accepted.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Authorization for the bidders to view the site of the work on Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's property shall be obtained from Mr. V. P. Tsarides, Supervisor of Civil and Design Engineering, telephone number 722-5441.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond for the full amount of the contract and also a labor and materials payment bond in the sum of fifty percent of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

The right is reserved to waive any informality in or to reject any or all proposals. An award will not be made to a contractor who is not fully qualified and equipped to undertake and complete the work.

The contractor shall be required to pay minimum wages in accordance with the schedules listed in the special provisions, which wage rates have been predetermined.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY,

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

INVITATION FOR BIDS FOR INSTALLATION OF POLYCARBONATE PROTECTIVE SHIELDS AND LAMP REPLACEMENTS ON FLOODLIGHTS AT VARIOUS GAME COURTS IN THE CITY OF BOSTON.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, invites sealed proposals for installation of polycarbonate protective shields and lamp replacements on floodlights at various game courts in the City of Boston.

Proposals will be received until 2 P.M. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time), Tuesday, October 10, 1972, at the office of the Commissioner, Room 802, City Hall, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Proposals shall be submitted in duplicate on forms obtained at the office of the Commissioner, Parks and Recreation Department, Room 802, City Hall, Boston, Mass. Each copy of the proposal shall be properly filled out, signed, and enclosed in a sealed envelope, plainly marked with the name of the bidder and the description of the work bid upon. One copy shall be filed at the office of the Commissioner, designated above, and the other copy shall be filed at the office of the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass. Both copies shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the proposals.

A bid deposit in the form of a certified check on a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $500, shall be submitted with the copy of the proposal filed with the Commissioner. The bid deposit shall be in a separate envelope, plainly marked. Bid bonds will not be accepted.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual date of the opening thereof. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Commissioner on and after 9 A.M. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time), Monday, September 25, 1972.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner and in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, as well as certain public liability and property damage insurance, will be required of the successful general contractor.

The Commissioner reserves the right to waive any informality and to reject any and all bids if it be in the public interest so to do.

In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Friday, September 29, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

Hub Conducts Alcohol Safety Action Project

Approximately 30,000 highway deaths and at least 800,000 crashes each year can be attributed to the excessive use of alcohol. Problem drinkers (although a minority of the population) are responsible for the deaths of 500 men, women, and children across the nation every week.

A new program to reduce this carnage is now in operation in Boston. It's called the Alcohol Safety Action Project—ASAP, or "as soon as possible"—because something must be done about drinking drivers at once.

Boston is one of thirty-five areas conducting three-year ASAP projects financed by the United States Department of Transportation. The aim of the project is to deal with problem drinker-drivers who are involved in an inordinately high percentage of fatal auto crashes.

Alcoholism Clinics

Initially there will be two hospital-based alcoholism clinics in Boston (Boston City Hospital and the Massachusetts General) which will provide diagnosis and evaluation service to assist the courts in differentiating the problem drinking driver from the social drinking driver. The clinics will also seek to motivate the confirmed problem drinker to voluntarily seek assistance.

A driver assistance program to transport individuals who are too intoxicated to drive home will be established on a limited and experimental basis. A hotline service will be set up to allow the drinking driver to request driver assistance or receive counseling for his alcohol problem.

Alcohol Patrols

The Boston Police Department will establish a special "Alcohol Patrol" which will operate between the hours of 6:30 P.M. and 3 A.M. The officers who will participate will be given training in the identification and apprehension of drunken drivers. In addition, the MDC Police will establish a special weekend "Alcohol Patrol" on the high-speed roads within city limits under their jurisdiction.

Special Prosecutors

To increase the rate of conviction of driving under the influence of liquor cases, two Special Assistant District Attorneys will be appointed to prosecute all arrests made by the special "Alcohol Patrol." This is the first time that drunken-driving cases will be prosecuted in the District Courts by qualified lawyers.

Also for the first time, full-time probation officers will be deployed in the Boston court system to conduct presentence investigations of all convicted offenders, make recommendations to the court, and provide postsentence supervision for these offenders.

The Registry of Motor Vehicles will develop a case-finding system to identify drunken drivers. Procedures will be developed to assist the Registrar in making the decision to reissue licenses to individuals with revocations for drunken driving. Appropriate information will be developed for the Driver Training Manual.

COMMISSIONER CURTIS DECRIES PROJECT DELAY

Parks and Recreation Commissioner Joseph E. Curtis has ordered a contractor, building three enclosed, heated swimming pools in Boston, to complete the project within thirty days or lose the job.

The contractor is now running one year late on completion of the pools. Also, Mr. Curtis said, the pools have been delayed by failure of the contractor to properly manage and administer his work forces and his failure to supply a sufficient amount of skilled labor to meet the requirements of the specifications.

The contractor was low bidder on a $2.1 million contract that originally called for completing the pools in the fall of 1971. The contract had been extended to June 1, 1972. The pools are partially built and, in the opinion of Mr. Curtis and his staff, could be completed within thirty days if approached on a high-priority basis.

"These pools are part of the city's expanded aquatic program to allow Boston citizens the enjoyments of a year-round swimming program," Mr. Curtis said. "The protracted delay is inexcusable and is a disservice to the taxpayers. Either the contractor will finish the job within thirty days or the city will go to court to get someone else to do it. No more delays will be tolerated. Bostonians, young and old, have been deprived for too long of the vital service."

The pools are being built at Paris Street Playground in East Boston, at Mason School site in Roxbury, and at the Draper Playground in West Roxbury.

FOLIAGE EDUCATION

A nature tour of autumn's brilliant hues is planned for family and contributing members of Boston's Museum of Science.

The Museum has scheduled a leisurely autumn walk Saturday, October 14, in three or four different natural settings, giving Museum members a chance to learn the fine points of New England's famous fall foliage.

Museum Director of Education Rodney Mansfield and Education Associate Stephen Maskel will accompany the group, offering informal talks along the way, pointing out items of interest, and answering questions.

The Museum members will visit Arnold Arboretum in Jamaica Plain, an apple orchard in the Nashoba Valley, and Walden Pond.

Topics to be discussed include identification of trees by the color of their leaves, the causes of characteristic fall colors, how deciduous trees change to survive the bleak winter months, and orcharding.

The group will leave the Museum by bus at 9:30 A.M., October 14, and return at 2 P.M. The fee is $10 per person, including bus fare and box lunch.

Reservations, on a first come, first served basis, must be made through the Education Course Registrar by September 29. The outing is limited to forty family and contributing members of the Museum and their children over ten years of age.

CHRISTMAS MAILING DATES

Christmas packages sent via surface mail to members of the armed forces stationed in Vietnam must be deposited in the mails no later than October 27, according to an announcement by George K. Walker, Postmaster, Boston Postal District.

This deadline also applies to servicemen stationed in other Far East countries: Thailand, Taiwan, Philippines, Okinawa, New Zealand, Korea, Japan, Indonesia, Burma, Australia, and Antarctica.

All other international mail destined for civilians for above Far East countries must be mailed as follows:

Surface parcels—deadline, October 14.

Surface greeting cards—deadline, October 25.

Postmaster Walker emphasized the need for strong packages and cushion material within the package. A duplicate copy of the addressee and the mailer should be placed inside the package. The military address must be complete in every detail including the zip code, which is an integral part of the military address.

For sending packages beyond these deadlines to military personnel, consult your local post office for information on SAM and PAL services.

NEW HARVARD APPOINTMENTS

Dean Don K. Price of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University announced the appointments of eight Fellows at the Institute of Politics in the Kennedy School. The eight include a governor, a lieutenant governor, two congressional candidates, two journalists, a public interest lobbyist, and a senatorial staff member. In addition, Dean Price announced the appointment of a Research Fellow.

The Fellows are Luigi Barzini, Italian journalist, editor, Member of Parliament, and author; Yvonne Brathwaite Burke, since 1966 Assemblywoman in the California State Legislature; Gloria Emerson, journalist with the New York Times; Barbara Jordan, Texas State Senator from District 11 (Houston); James Barton King, Massachusetts official in state and local government; Frank Licht, Governor of Rhode Island since 1969; Paul Simon, Lieutenant Governor of Illinois; and Fred Michael Wertheimer, Director of Legislative Activities for Common Cause. Barry Edward Carter, an analyst on the staff of the National Security Council was also appointed.

STOUTHEARTED MARCHERS

Approximately 3,000 persons, old and young alike, raised an estimated $60,000 in the third annual March Against Drug Abuse, on Sunday September 24. The marchers left from City Hall at 9 A.M., walked to Brookline, and returned. The march covered a distance of about eighteen miles.

Sponsors for each marcher donated money for each mile completed. The money goes to several self-help drug action programs in Greater Boston, most of them needing funds. City Council President Gabriel Piemonte started the ceremonies by reading a statement from Mayor White, designating "March Against Drug Abuse Day."

IMPORTANT NEW LAWS RELATED TO MOTOR VEHICLES

Effective September 19, 1972 — Speed

Chapter 463 of the Acts of 1972 amends section 17 of chapter 90 (Laws, Rules and Regulations Relating to Motor Vehicles) by adding the following sentence:

No person shall operate any vehicle or combination of vehicles or combination of vehicles and trailers having a gross weight of more than 10,000 pounds on a limited access state highway or any other divided highway at a rate of speed in excess of five miles per hour below the limits posted in accordance with the provisions of section 18.

Effective September 21, 1972 — Implied Consent

Chapter 488 of the Acts of 1972 lowers the prima facie level of presumption of operating under the influence of intoxicating liquor from fifteen one-hundredths to ten one-hundredths of the percentage, by weight, of alcohol in the defendant's blood.

It also provides that if the person arrested refuses to submit to a chemical test or analysis of his breath in the event that he is arrested for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor, after having been informed that his license or permit to operate motor vehicles or right to operate motor vehicles in the Commonwealth shall be suspended for a period of ninety days for such refusal, no such test or analysis shall be made, but the police officer before whom such refusal was made shall immediately prepare a written report of such refusal. The written report of refusal shall be endorsed by a third person who shall have witnessed such refusal.

Effective October 6, 1972 — Noise Pollution

Chapter 598 of the Acts of 1972 amends chapter 90 by adding 16A after section 16:

No person shall cause, suffer, allow, or permit the unnecessary operation of the engine of a motor vehicle while said vehicle is stopped for a foreseeable period of time in excess of five minutes.

This section shall not apply to (a) vehicles being serviced, provided that operation of the engine is essential to the proper repair thereof, or (b) vehicles engaged in the delivery or acceptance of goods, wares, or merchandise for which engine assisted power is necessary and substitute alternate means cannot be made available, or (c) vehicles engaged in an operation for which the engine power is necessary for an associate power need other than movement and substitute alternate power means cannot be made available provided that such operation does not cause or contribute to a condition of air pollution. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, nor more than five hundred dollars for each succeeding offense.

Chapter 767 replaces section 25 of chapter 255 of the General Laws by the following:

Persons maintaining public garages for the storage and care of motor vehicles brought to their premises or placed in their care by or with the consent of the owners thereof and persons engaged in performing work upon or in connection with the inspection, reconditioning, and repairing of motor vehicles shall have a lien upon such motor vehicles for proper charges due them for the storage, work, and care of the same.

If the owner of such motor vehicles obtains possession of the same by fraud, trick, or by check, draft, or order upon any depository or bank which is not honored, the lien on said motor vehicle shall not be deemed to have been discharged and the lien holder may thereafter continue to enforce said lien until the proper charges due him have been paid.

MORE PROTECTION FOR PARKERS

It is unlikely that the attendant will tell you but you now have a comeback if your car is damaged in a parking garage or lot.

An act approved by the State Legislature and now effective states that certain disclaimers of liability appearing on "signs, tickets, or receipts issued by parking facility owners or operators shall not constitute a legal defense in civil actions." This means signs disclaiming responsibility for damage would mean nothing in a court case.

The first court case should be interesting.

NEW POST OFFICE APPOINTMENT

Postmaster General E. T. Klassen, on September 18, named Thomas W. Chadwick, a veteran postal official and former South Carolina newsman, to be Consumer Advocate of the United States Postal Service.

Mr. Chadwick has been instrumental in the organization and production of each of six National Postal Forums—annual meetings designed to foster an exchange of ideas and views between Postal Service management and mail customers—and was director of the last five.

He succeeds Mr. David Ordway, who was recently appointed Assistant Postmaster General (Product Development).

"With his experience in dealing with the needs of mail customers, especially through our annual forum, Tom Chadwick is well suited for his new role as 'ombudsman' for mail users," Mr. Klassen said.

"The only thing we in the Postal Service have to sell is service. Tom Chadwick will be an important link with the unrepresented mail user, seeing that we respond to the public's needs."

Mr. Chadwick was born November 28, 1923, in Charleston, South Carolina, and attended the University of South Carolina at Columbia. He was a reporter and columnist for The State, a newspaper at Columbia, South Carolina, and has ten previous years government service as a press secretary.

Since entering postal service, Mr. Chadwick has received awards for meritorious service, superior accomplishment, and distinguished service.

He is married to the former Betty Joyner of Moncks Corner, South Carolina. They have three children: Alice, 17; Thomas, Jr., 8; and Carlton, 6.

SOUTH BOSTON SITE FOR MBTA MAINTENANCE CENTER

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held recently by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) for the South Bay Maintenance Center for rapid transit cars and buses.

The ceremony marked the start of construction on the first of several buildings in the $28,680,000 center for which the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, United States Department of Transportation, has awarded a $19,-120,000 capital facilities grant to the Authority.

The center will occupy about thirty-four acres of former railroad yards at West Fourth Street and Dorchester Avenue, South Boston. It will consist of a rapid transit complex for the maintenance and repair of the entire Red Line fleet of cars and a 200-bus garage.

The rapid transit complex will be built by the James Farina Corporation of Newton under a $7,-831,317 contract. The new facilities will replace the sixty-year-old Bennett-Eliot Yards in Cambridge, site of the planned John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

The rapid transit complex will consist of a 142,250 square-foot, one-story repair shop with a three-story structure within the shop for crew quarters and a parts storage facility; a one-story motor vehicles storage building; a two and one-half story operations building; and a one-story electric substation with full basement.

Future contracts for the center will be for the 200-bus garage, traction power, signal system, trackwork within the rapid transit complex, and a two-track surface connector between the complex and the Red Line in the vicinity of Columbia Station and the South Shore line's interchange. The bus garage will replace the obsolete Albany Street Garage in Boston's South End.

PHOTOS WORTH VIEWING

Through the efforts of Mr. Joseph Osborne, photography coordinator for Summerthing, youngsters from Boston's neighborhoods are presenting an exhibit of their photographs in City Hall from October 3 through October 27. The photos give a unique view of the city and its neighborhoods through the eyes of children — sometimes sad, sometimes joyful — but always exciting. All are welcome to view this exhibition, Monday through Friday from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

MBTA SETTLES LABOR CONTRACT

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) has authorized the execution of a memorandum of understanding (labor agreement) with Local Union No. 3, International Brotherhood of Firemen, Oilers, Powerhouse Employees, Operators, and Maintenance Men of Boston and Vicinity, AFL-CIO, for the period January 1, 1972, through December 31, 1972.

The new contract, which is within federal wage-price freeze guidelines, covers wages and working conditions of a fifty-nine-man unit consisting of twelve seasonal employees who man the Authority's heating plants during the winter months and forty-seven year-round employees who man the Authority's power generating facilities at the South Boston and Lincoln power stations.

The new contract is expected to result in an additional 1972 operating cost of $40,285 which is available in existing contingency funds in the current operating budget.

CHILDREN'S PICTURES AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

A new display at Boston's Museum of Science combines science, art, and the creativity of youngsters in and around Boston

Now on exhibition are twenty-four representative samples from 108 entries to the Museum's summertime coloring contest, including winners in three age groups: 6-8, 9-12, 13-16.

A line drawing of Museum exhibits and demonstrations used in a Shawmut Bank advertisement served as the basis for the youngsters' work. Each of the three winners received a $10 voucher for use in the Museum gift shop.

The winners were Bruce Ployer, 15, of Cambridge; Tamar Habershain, 12, of Belmont; and Craig Kelly, 8, of Malden.

All twenty-four samples are interesting for their creative use of colors and for the wealth of imaginative detail the youngsters put into the pictures.

Located in the Museum's Friend Gallery, the pictures will be displayed for an indefinite period of time.

UNITED FUND DRIVE STARTS

The United Fund's "Torch of Hope" was lighted at noon, Saturday, September 23, to mark the start of this year's United Fund drive which aims at raising $15 million to help those who cannot help themselves.

The four-story-high torch is located at the edge of Boston Common at the corner of Boylston and Charles Streets. It will burn twenty-four hours a day until the end of the drive, November 15.

Atty. Paul F. Hellmuth, United Fund's campaign chairman, said 60,000 persons will give of their time and talent to make the drive a success. United Fund gives financial aid to 209 agencies which help more than one million persons a year.

HALF-FARE CARDS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

The Mayor's Office of Public Service, in conjunction with the MBTA and the Commission on Elderly Affairs, will issue half-fare cards to senior citizens through the Little City Halls, October 10 through 18, inclusive.

Three MBTA representatives will be at each Little City Hall or a nearby location for three hours only during the one-week period to issue cards.

The half-fare cards enable senior citizens to use MBTA subway and surface transportation for ten cents.

Persons must provide proof that they are sixty-five years of age or older. A Medicare or Medicaid card, driver's license, or birth certificate are adequate identification. Persons must provide fifty cents to obtain the half-fare card.

Questions should be directed to the neighborhood Little City Hall.

AN EXCELLENT RESOLUTION

In an effort to stop the "slaughter on the highways" caused by speeding automobiles, City Councillor John E. Kerrigan offered what we believe is one of the greatest and most timely resolutions ever, to the Boston City Council at one of its recent meetings:

"Whereas, It has been clearly demonstrated by the figures compiled by the safety councils of our country that as a causative in automobile accidents or fatalities excessive speed is the predominant factor; and

"Whereas, Even though the phrase "Speed Kills" is constantly being dinned into the ears of the motoring public, operators of motor vehicles continue to operate automobiles throughout the streets and highways of the city at speed levels far greater than are consistent with the safety of our citizens; and

"Whereas, This appalling carnage must be checked by some measure that possibly might be considered Draconian; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That any operator of a motor vehicle arrested and convicted of speeding in any section of Boston that is zoned for residential purposes be punished by having his license to operate a motor vehicle suspended for a period to be determined by the Registry of Motor Vehicles (speeding to be construed as anything in excess of thirty-five miles an hour on any public way in any residential area); and be it further

"Resolved, That copies of this resolution be furnished to the Honorable Francis W. Sargent, Governor of the Commonwealth, the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, the Registrar of Motor Vehicles of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Richard E. McLaughlin, the Commission on Public Safety, the American Automobile Association, and the American Automobile Legal Association."

CARE TO SEND A CARD?

We would like to inform the legion of friends of Luigi Vena, of West Roxbury, one of the greatest tenors and voice teachers that this country has ever produced, that he is presently in the Faulkner Hospital, Centre Street, Jamaica Plain. One of the saddest moments in his lifetime, he recollects, occurred when he sang at the Funeral Mass of his personal friend, our late President, John F. Kennedy. May we suggest that you cheer Mr. Vena up by sending him a "get-well" card. We know he will appreciate it.

Bunker Hill Monument

Bunker Hill Monument, Monument Square, Charlestown, is on Breed's Hill, the center of the Battle of Bunker Hill on June 17, 1775. The granite obelisk is 221 feet high. Open daily, 9 to 4; top of monument closes 30 minutes earlier than lower doors. Admission 10 cents, to top of monument, by 294-step spiral staircase; no elevator.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

September 15.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Instructions for the State Primary, Tuesday, September 19, 1972.

SIR:

With reference to the State Primary on Tuesday, September 19, 1972, district commanders are hereby directed to comply with the following instructions:

The polls will be open from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M.

Details To Be Provided by District 1

The commanding officer of District 1 shall detail one (1) lieutenant to report at the office of the Election Commissioners, City Hall, at 5 A.M., Tuesday, September 19, 1972, to supervise the details for trucks which are to be used for the delivery of ballot boxes, etc.

The commanding officer, District 1, shall assign one (1) sergeant to report to the office of the Election Commissioners at 8 P.M., Tuesday, September 19, 1972, to remain on duty until such time as all returns are in.

The commanding officer, District 1, shall also detail three (3) patrolmen for duty at the office of the Election Commissioners at 5 P.M., Monday, September 18, 1972, said detail to continue until all ballots cast at the election have been returned.

The commanding officer, District 1, shall detail one (1) patrolman from 4 P.M., Monday, September 18, 1972, to keep the parking area surrounding City Hall, Congress Street side, clear for parking of the trucks and for ballot boxes, etc. Also at 4 P.M., Tuesday, September 19, 1972, at the same location to keep the approaches clear for motor vehicles returning from the polling places with ballot boxes, etc. It s essential that the area be kept clear throughout the night.

Radio Cars

Having in mind that there are 251 precincts to cover it may be necessary to reduce the number of radio cars in the several districts. Should it become necessary to reduce the number of radio cars, commanding officers shall furnish the Communication Control Room the number of cars in service.

Court Cases

Commanding officers shall instruct all officers not to request postponement of court cases on Tuesday, September 19, 1972, but shall instruct all officers to report back to their respective districts immediately after their cases have been completed.

Commanding officers of all districts and units are hereby directed to arrange details on State Primary Day, so that all officers under their command will be granted sufficient time off in order that they may visit their home polling place for the purpose of voting.

Cards with the ward and precinct number and the location of the voting booths will be forwarded to the districts concerned upon receipt of the same at this office from the Board of Election Commissioners. These cards are to be given to the employee of the Election Department by the police officer detailed for duty by the polling place.

Personnel Order No. 3676

The following details are hereby ordered to take effect Wednesday, September 20, 1972, for duty until further orders:

Lieut. Paul J. Weare, from District 13 (nights) to Staff Inspection and Internal Affairs Division (nights).

Sergt. John F. Geagan, from Bureau of Field Operations (Pool, District 11) (nights) to Staff Inspection and Internal Affairs Division (nights).

September 19.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Release Time for Boston State College Students.

Two Copies — One for Posting

SIR:

After review of the arbitrator's decision on the matter of release time for police officers enrolled in the special Baccalaureate Program at Boston State College the City of Boston Office of Labor Relations has determined that under Article XVI, section 4, of the agreement with the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association release time should be provided to those officers presently enrolled in this program who are in their sophomore, junior, and senior years.

Accordingly, during the period school is in session the above-mentioned officers will be assigned to duty on the 6:30 P.M. shift on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday nights with a release time at 12:15 A.M. on each of these nights. These officers will be off duty on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday.

This Boston State College program was initially instituted to encourage police officers to obtain a college degree and it has been most successful. Many other officers, however, recognizing the advantages of a higher education, are now attending college without any release time consideration. The education incentive clause in the new collective bargaining agreement will encourage even more officers to seek college training. Because of the numbers involved now and expected in the future the release time consideration cannot be continued and will be phased out as the above-mentioned sophomores, juniors, and seniors complete their college training.

Personnel Order No. 3677

The resignation of Police Cadet Richard W. Cookson, Bureau of Community Affairs, detailed to Communications Control Division, having been presented, it is hereby accepted to take effect on Sunday, September 24, 1972, at close of business.

September 20.

Personnel Order No. 3678

Officers presently detailed to the Communications Control Division in accordance with personnel order dated September 8, 1972, will return to their respective divisions or districts on Monday, September 25, 1972.

Commencing Monday, September 25, 1972, the following-named officers will be detailed to report to the commanding officer, Communications Control Division, for a period of two weeks of orientation and training to familiarize them with the new Communication Center:

Sergt. Leo J. Morgan, District 2 (nights).

Patrolman Lawrence M. Applegate, Traffic Division (days).

Patrolman Raymond T. Jackman, District 1 (nights).

Patrolman John J. Brown, District 2 (nights).

Patrolman Frank B. Kamell, District 3 (nights).

Patrolman John V. Daly, Jr., District 4 (nights).

Patrolman Edward S. Rudnicki, District 5 (days).

Patrolman Robert W. Lynn, District 6 (nights).

Patrolman William C. Costigan, District 7 (days).

Patrolman Edward W. Szalno, District 11 (nights).

Patrolman James D. Fee, District 13 (nights).

Patrolman Gerald L. Vanderwood, District 14 (days).

Patrolman John W. Provance III, District 15 (nights).

Officers so detailed will be available for all paid details and overtime opportunities at their own districts and units.

September 21.

Personnel Order No. 3679

The following-named persons were appointed in this department and assigned as follows, effective on Wednesday, September 20, 1972:

Ellen A. O'Brien, telephone operator, Communications Control Division.

Barry J. MacIntosh, motor equipment repairman, Central Services Division (Automotive Maintenance Section).

II. A.D.T. DATA

Notice has been received from the American District Telegraph Company that the following A.D.T. signals have been discontinued:

Signal 3594, 7-15 Franklin Street.

Signal 3591, 384-388 Washington Street.

III. COMMENDATION

Fire Fighter Joseph F. Davies of Engine Company 40 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 6174, on September 16, 1972, while he was off duty.

IV. FIRE PREVENTION SIGNS

Company commanders shall check the condition of their Fire Prevention Week signs, and if repairs are needed, they shall notify Superintendent Kearney of the Maintenance Division.

State House is on Beacon Street, at the head of Park Street. The facade of the original building, designed by Bulfinch and erected in 1795, remains unchanged. Within are statues, historical paintings, battle flags, and war relics. Open Monday through Friday, except holidays, 9 to 5, free. When in session the legislature meets Monday through Thursday; chambers are open. Guide service is provided by the Secretary of the Commonwealth Archives Division, assisted by the Doric Dames. This service is available from 10 to 2.

Across the street is the Shaw Monument by Augustus Saint-Gaudens. This famous bronze statue of Col. Robert Gould Shaw memorializes the 54th Massachusetts regiment of the Civil War.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Collecting Division

RENTAL OF EQUIPMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with the usual form of advertising and to award a contract effective April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973 inclusive.

The equipment listed below will be rented from the Univac Division, Sperry Rand Corporation, Wellesley Office Park, Wellesley, Mass.

Nine Model 1710-04 verify interpreting key punch machines at $158 per month for each machine at an annual cost of $17,064.

Two Model 1720-00 electronic sorters at $145 for each machine at an annual cost of $3,480. One Type 0603-04 card punch with F O 871-00 selective stacker at $239 per month at an annual cost of $2,868.

One Type 3030-00 No. 9200 processor with 300 lines per minute print speed, 132 print positions, 8 lines per inch print spacing, storage 8K, card reader and 90 column read at $1,277 per month at an annual cost of $15,324.

The contract will contain an article giving the City of Boston the right to terminate this contract or any part thereof at any time after giving the contractor a thirty-day written notice.

There is no competition in the awarding of this contract as this corporation is the only supplier of this equipment. Remington Rand equipment has been in use in the Collecting Division since the year 1938 and has been found satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

EDMUND W. HOLMES,
Collector-Treasurer.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

TRAINING, CONSULTING, AND TESTING

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I herewith request permission to expend not more than $1,600 to Northeastern University for the Youth Activities Commission, Youth Tutoring Youth Program in connection with the Safe Streets Vocational Projects serving Delinquent and Youthful offenders (3-33-33-729).

These funds will be expended for the purpose of training, consulting, and testing. The testing fees will cover pre-tests and post-tests on the tutors as well as on the tutees; the consulting fees will cover the services of Dr. Melvin Howards and Ms. Pat. Walsh; the training fees cover the cost of twenty-five hours of preservice training for the tutors, plus a six-month in-service training component and supervision.

The above services will be performed during the period March 1, 1972, through August 30, 1972.

Respectfully,

PAUL V. MCCAFFREY,
Executive Director.

SUFFOLK COUNTY

Boston Juvenile Court

RENTAL OF COPIER

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record and to award a contract to Xerox Corporation for the rental of a "2400 COPIER" for the Boston Juvenile Court office for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a base cost of $400 per month, plus 1.5 cents per copy for each copy over 20,000. The total cost shall not exceed $5,000.

In view of the nature of the service to be engaged, it is my view that public advertising would give no useful purpose.

Sincerely yours,

FRANCIS G. POITRAST, Presiding Justice.

District Attorney's Office

ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

The District Attorney's office has received a federally funded grant from the Governor's Committee on Law Enforcement and Justice Administration and the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Committee for the purpose of buying certain specialized electronic equipment and to conduct a training program in the use of electronic surveillance and counter-surveillance.

The monies for the purchase of this equipment have been deposited in the City Treasury on December 31, 1971.

In order to expedite the training program, it is necessary for us to purchase certain items of equipment that will exceed the amount of two thousand dollars. We have consulted with the Attorney General's office, who have also received a similar grant. We have solicited prices from companies who specialize in the manufacture of surveillance and counter-surveillance equipment.

The nature of this equipment and its value to law enforcement agencies would be defeated if the items required were to be the subject of public bidding. Therefore, to assure adequate and effective performance from this equipment, I respectfully request that the matter of public bidding be waived in this case and that I be allowed to purchase the following item that is priced in excess of two thousand dollars:

One counter-intelligence receiver system, designated as A 2 from the F. G. Mason Engineering Company, in the amount of $3,994.

Because of the aforementioned confidential nature of this electronic surveillance project, it is my contention that no advantage will accrue to the city by public advertisement.

Very truly yours,

GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney, Suffolk County.

PARKING VIOLATION TAG FORMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 22, 1972, bids for furnishing parking violation tag forms were publicly opened and read. The bids were as follows:

Data Marketing Company, $25.40 per thousand.

Control Data Corporation, $28.50 per thousand.

Arnold Graphic Industries, Inc., $25.89 per thousand.

The low bidder failed to comply with the specifications by not submitting, with his bid, the name of the manufacturer who would produce the tags. The day after the bids were opened he did bring in a letter from Diversified Business Systems indicating that they would manufacture the tags for him.

Therefore, I respectfully request your written permission to reject all of the aforesaid bids and to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record and to award the contract to Arnold Graphic Industries, Inc., at a price of $25.89 which I believe is both fair and reasonable. It is my belief that it is in the best interests of the county and city to so award the contract and that inviting proposals would serve no useful purpose. The total amount of this contract will not exceed $20,712.

Yours very truly,

DANIEL J. LYNCH,
Clerk of the Court.

CITY OF BOSTON

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING AND INSTALLING TRAFFIC SIGNS AND POSTS AT VARIOUS LOCATIONS IN THE CITY OF BOSTON.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States for furnishing and installing traffic signs and posts at various locations in the City of Boston.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Furnishing and Installing Traffic Signs and Posts at Various Locations in the City of Boston," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before 12 noon on Tuesday, October 10, 1972, with a certified check for three percent (3%) of total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner of Traffic and Parking.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR BIDS FOR REPAIRS, PROJECT No. 2268.

The City of Boston, acting by its Building Commissioner, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for the repairs to the following building:

75 Phillips Street, Ward 5.

Technical specifications may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

General bids will be received up until 11 A.M., Thursday, October 12, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. Two copies of the general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid shall be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended. This schedule will be available to the successful bidder.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Site Preparation Contract No. 4 in the Fenway Urban Renewal Area No. Mass., R-115, located in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, until 12 o'clock noon (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) on October 13, 1972, at Room 921 ninth floor, City Hall, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass., Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work will consist of construction to the degree of completeness shown on the plans of widening and relocation of the northerly side of Huntington Avenue from 100 feet easterly of Massachusetts Avenue to Belvidere Street and of the southerly side of Belvidere Street from Huntington Avenue to Dalton Street, including excavation, backfill, bituminous paving, granite edgestone, concrete sidewalks, street light conduits and bases, new trees, traffic lane markings, all in accordance with the plans and specifications.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of each proposal for Site Preparation Contract No. 4.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders prior to awarding the contract.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR REPAIRS TO CHARLES DREW INTERIM FAMILY LIFE CENTER.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for repairs to Charles Drew Interim Family Life Center.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, October 26, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $3,500. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, October 18, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Miscellaneous Metals	$200
Lathing and Plastering	175
Painting	350
Heating	250
Plumbing	350
Electrical	1,500

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Wednesday, October 4, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

PROPOSALS FOR EMERGENCY REPAIRS TO TRAFFIC SIGNAL BASES, MAST ARM BASES, AND THE INSTALLATION OF HANDHOLES AND LOOP WIRE AT VARIOUS LOCATIONS IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for emergency repairs to traffic signal bases, mast arm bases, and the installation of handholes and loop wire at various locations in the City of Boston.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Emergency Repairs to Traffic Signal Bases, Mast Arm Bases, and the Installation of Handholes and Loop Wire at Various Locations in the City of Boston," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before 12 noon on Friday, October 6, 1972, with a certified check for three percent (3%) of total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING AND INSTALLING VARIOUS TWO-INCH TRAFFIC POSTS THROUGHOUT THE CITY OF BOSTON, MASS.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for furnishing and installing various two-inch traffic posts throughout the City of Boston, Mass.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Furnishing and Installing Various Two-Inch Traffic Posts Throughout the City of Boston, Mass.," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before Friday, October 13, 1972, at 12 noon, with a certified check for three percent (3%) of total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner of Traffic and Parking.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1972

No. 41

Mayor Names New Police Commissioner

Robert J. di Grazia, Mayor Kevin White's newly named Police Commissioner, is a veteran law enforcement officer whose thirteen-year career has brought him from deputy sheriff on a small police department in California to the head of Boston's 2,800-member uniformed force.

Mr. di Grazia, forty-four, currently superintendent of the St. Louis (Missouri) County Police Department, was selected from a list of twenty-five men who are regarded as among the best police administrators in the nation. Mayor White began the nationwide search in May, following the expiration of the term of Commissioner Edmund L. McNamara.

In announcing the new commissioner's appointment, Mayor White said, "Boston is fortunate to have found a man of strict rectitude, mental toughness, creativity, and dedication. He is willing to use new techniques so that he can better perform the old-fashioned job of fighting crime."

"I believe Superintendent di Grazia is an exceptional choice also because he balances a fervent professional zeal with a warm feeling for his men. I know that all dedicated police officers who wish to better protect their community while also enhancing the professionalism of their vocation will appreciate the new commissioner's unique talents and will give him their unstinting cooperation."

Mr. di Grazia, who has headed the 600-member St. Louis Department for the past three years, was endorsed for the position by Kansas City Police Chief Clarence Kelly; by James Vorenberg, director of the Institute of Criminal Justice at Harvard; New York City Police Commissioner Patrick Murphy; Charles H. Rogovin, former president of the Police Foundation in Washington and a former Massachusetts assistant attorney general; and Attorney Frank Remington, a University of Wisconsin professor who is regarded as an authority on criminal justice.

The Boston Police Department has a uniformed force of 2,817, plus 339 civilian personnel, 200 school traffic supervisors, 100 cadets, and 10 student interns.

A strong proponent of police and community involvement, Mr. di Grazia is responsible for many innovations in St. Louis, among them:

A program of career development that encourages officers to serve in as many branches of the department as possible for a better understanding of the various functions of the department and the community it serves.

A program in St. Louis that stresses education in addition to length of service and training in determining qualified candidates for promotional examinations; in 1975, a two-year college degree will be required for advancement beyond patrolman.

A "Ride-Along" program that allows citizens to accompany police in cruisers for four hours of a tour of duty. More than 4,000 citizens have participated in the program, which is aimed at giving the public a greater understanding of police problems.

A federally funded helicopter patrol, consisting of three helicopters and sixteen men.

Psychiatric as well as physical examinations for all department applicants and candidates for promotion.

Assignment of juvenile officers full time to high schools to work with selected students before they reach the problem stage.

Establishment of a Police Advisory Committee, comprised of patrolmen elected to meet with the superintendent once a month to discuss problems of mutual concern.

A native of San Francisco, he began his law enforcement career in 1959 as a deputy sheriff in the Marin County (California) Sheriff's Office. With the creation of the Novato (California) Police Department in 1960, he became a patrolman. A year later he was promoted to sergeant, and in 1963 was named acting chief of the department. He was appointed Chief of Police in January, 1964, a position he held until 1969, when he took over as head of the St. Louis County Police Department.

He has an associate's degree from City College of San Francisco, and, in working toward a bachelor's degree, has attended Sonoma State College in California, Michigan State University, and the University of San Francisco. He plans to resume his studies in Boston.

He and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of two sons, Robert, sixteen, and Michael, fifteen, and two daughters, Lisa, ten, and Gina, six. A godson, Joseph Salvemini, seventeen, also lives with the family.

The St. Louis County Police Department protects a 350-square-mile area, including 96 incorporated areas containing more than 1.5 million inhabitants — not including the City of St. Louis, which has its own force.

The department is responsible for investigating all violations of state law in communities without their own police department and provides supportive services to all departments in the county, such as in-service training, central records system, police laboratory, identification bureau, crime investigation, and bomb and arson squad.

BRA ANNOUNCES PROMOTIONAL PROGRAM

A continued decline in the rate of vacancy for office space in Boston and support for an ambitious effort to lure new office users to the city was announced on September 27 by Robert T. Kenney, director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

Mr. Kenney, speaking before the Building Owners and Management Association of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board, said that the office vacancy rate, which had reached 8.8 percent last October, declined 1.3 percent over the past year, to a level of 7.5 percent as will be reported in the Ryan, Elliot office survey report to be issued in October.

He cited the continued decline in the vacancy rate to support his long-range forecasts that the current lull in the office space market would end soon and that demand for office space would outstrip supply in Boston during the 1970s.

"A whole new market for Boston office space has not been tapped yet," said Mr. Kenney, referring to the numerous firms that could be induced to relocate part of their offices in Boston through a strong promotional effort on the part of public and private interests.

"Throughout the country, Boston is known as one of the few 'livable' cities in America," he said, "and the reservoir of talent in our work force should prove another attraction to any number of firms now contemplating a move from other cities, such as New York."

Therefore, he announced, the BRA will offer staff assistance, along with financial support, to launch a joint program with the business community in an effort to attract new firms—particularly the corporate headquarters of large businesses—to locate in Boston.

"We think the private sector could and should take the lead in this promotional program," he said, "but we want to underscore their effort by adding our full-fledged support and state that we will, if they don't."

In making his long-range forecast concerning the office market in Boston, Mr. Kenney pointed to the continued shift in the city's employment structure to high-grade service activities. These are the types of jobs which require more office space, he said.

He also said the changing technology of office work required almost double the amount of office space per worker.

"Given the increase in office employment projected for the next decade and this need for more space per worker, we think the city can absorb the 15 million or so square feet of new office space planned over the next eight years," he added.

He chided members of the business community who had expressed doubts concerning the future of office space in Boston. He cited a series of quotes from leading business figures in the past who had made the same dire predictions, and he said, "Those people who doubt the future of office construction in Boston in 1972 will be as wrong as those who said the city had reached a saturation point in office space in the early 1960s."

He said the Boston economy's dramatic shift in structure of employment would continue over the next decade and that the high-grade service activity jobs which make up 56 percent of employment in Boston now would increase to about 60.6 percent in 1980.

Boston, he noted, was about 17 percent ahead of the national trend in the shift towards service activity jobs.

Office employment in the city, which increased by about 35,000 in the past decade, will double that amount in the next eight years, he said. About 305,000 people will be employed in offices in 1980 in Boston.

He also predicted the city's population would probably increase in the next decade for the first time since 1950. He said the population would probably grow by about 35,000 persons by 1980.

Among other economic forecasts made by the BRA head were:

From 50,000 to 60,000 housing units would be built in Boston in the next decade, with about 28,000 units already under way or planned.

Tourism in the city will increase from the present 4.5 million visitors annually to at least 10 million visitors a year during the Bicentennial observance.

Continued expenditure by the City of Boston on public facilities and other public improvements will amount to about $100 million per year over the next four years.

Hotel construction now planned in Boston will increase the city's supply of rooms from 7,000 at present to approximately 11,000 in 1980.

All the projections, said Mr. Kenney, are based on the Park Plaza project eventually taking place, along with the BRA's ambitious urban renewal plan for the South Station area.

He expressed optimism on both counts and predicted that the Park Plaza problem would undoubtedly be resolved.

CREDIT UNION NOMINATIONS

Nomination papers may be had at the Credit Union Office, Room 242, City Hall, beginning Monday, October 2, 1972, at 9 A.M.

Last date for filing, Monday, October 16, 1972, at 3 P.M.

Nominees must obtain a minimum of twenty Credit Union members' signatures on their nomination blanks.

No Credit Union member may sign more than seven nomination papers.

Nominees must be employees and members of the Credit Union for more than three months prior to date of Annual Election.

Nomination papers will be accepted for a three-year term.

There will be no nominations from the floor.

The date of the annual election and meeting will be Tuesday, November 21, 1972.

PAUL PARKS HONORED

Paul Parks, administrator of the Boston Model City Program, has been elected to membership in the National Academy of Public Administration. Mr. Parks was notified of the decision in a letter from John D. Millett, chairman of the Academy.

Mr. Millett described the Academy as an active rather than an honorary organization, whose purpose is "to be a trusted source of advice and counsel to governments and public officials on problems of public administration."

Mr. Parks, an engineer by training, is a graduate of Purdue University. A longtime resident of Boston, he has been active in public affairs for many years.

Among his current commitments he lists membership on the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, the National Board of Directors of Americans for Democratic Action, and the Board of Directors of the Boston Branch of the NAACP.

He is also president of the Committee for Educational Development (CCED), and first vice president of the Metropolitan Council for Educational Opportunity (METCO).

He left his engineering career to enter the field of public administration in 1968 when Mayor Kevin White appointed him to head the Model City Program in Boston.

Under his direction the program has developed twenty-five experimental projects designed to produce new solutions to urban problems in the areas of physical and economic development, education and training, and community services. Funded by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and administered by the City of Boston, the program serves about 60,000 residents of Roxbury, Dorchester, and Jamaica Plain.

As a member of the Academy, Mr. Parks will be called upon to participate in its activities, which include research, study and analysis, review, deliberation, and, where appropriate, publication.

MUNICIPAL CLERKS PRESENT ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT

The annual dinner-dance of the Municipal Clerks' Association will be held at Moseley's on the Charles, 50 Bridge Street, Dedham, on Tuesday evening, October 17, 1972, at 7 P.M.

As on previous occasions, the affair is being held for the members, each of whom may bring a female guest. The dinner, which will consist of delicious tenderloin of beef, will be served with all the fixings promptly at 7 P.M., during and after which there will be entertainment by a special program of talent hired exclusively for this event. Later there will be dancing and refreshments.

As is the custom at this affair, tickets will be issued to members individually, or for a member and female guest. The burden of the cost, including tips for the meals, will be borne by the Association, with the assessment of tickets set at $4.50 for a member, or $7.50 for a member and female guest. Because arrangements must be made in advance, no tickets can be sold at Moseley's. Tickets will be sold to members (and members only) up to and including Friday, October 13, 1972.

In the light of the successes of previous years, the committee anticipates another enjoyable evening for the members and their wives or sweethearts.

Anyone interested in attending this event should contact William J. Coughlin, at the Auditing Department, Room M-4, John T. Gorman, Room 709, City Hall, or your department representative immediately.

EEA STOPS HIRING

Hiring under EEA has stopped for the following reasons:

1. The Department of Labor has frozen all hiring until Congress passes new legislation and the President signs the bill.

2. Hiring is at the maximum level, and attrition will be converted to money for training as required by the Department of Labor.

Some hiring is possible in about three months.

Because of the tightness of the EEA budget and the Mayor's effort to minimize overtime generally, all EEA overtime authorization had to be approved in advance at the EEA office beginning October 1.

Remember that the amount of overtime for each individual is restricted by the requirement that monthly salary plus monthly overtime cannot exceed $1,000. Monthly salary is computed by taking the weekly salary and multiplying by 4.3.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Boston's recently expanded Museum of Science announces several new presentations this year in its Massachusetts School Visits Program.

A brochure just sent to 3,000 public, private, and parochial schools throughout the Commonwealth describes programs geared to varying age levels in several different fields of science.

Beginning its twentieth year this fall, the Massachusetts School Visits Program is cosponsored by the State Department of Education and the Metropolitan District Commission. Presentations are made by the museum's Education Department and its Hayden Planetarium.

Heading the list of new programs is "Wings and Things," an absorbing exploration of flight. Through ingenious, museum-built devices, the show introduces student audiences to the scientific principles involved. A fast-paced demonstration covers the properties of moving air, pressure differences, lift and drag, jet engines, and the well-known Bernoulli effect. An operating Hovercraft, gift of Dobson Air Products, California, climaxes the program. The Cahners Theatre, one of the new facilities in the West Wing, is the scene of the presentation, planned for Grades 5 through 12.

A second new program for older children (Grades 7 through 10) is a study of the natural history of the Charles River. Conditions at its source in Hopkinton are contrasted with those at its outflow into Boston Harbor near the museum. Color slides, microscopic TV projection, and other illustrations emphasize human effects on the river.

For younger children (Grades 4 through 8) there is "Pond Life," a look at the dynamics of New England pond life through TV projection of microscopic images.

For still younger children (kindergarten through Grade 4) "World of Science" offers either a discussion of animals or, this year for the first time, a close investigation of an exhibit. The latter, for third- and fourth-graders, will take place in a particular exhibit area — often in the new West Wing — where the children will be encouraged to manipulate exhibit components and experiment with materials. In the animal presentation the children see and touch live animals from the museum's collection. Such topics as classification, animals in winter, pets, and protection of wildlife are offered by various staff members.

Some programs are repeated from last year's list. For Grades 5 through 12 "Both Ends of the Rainbow" is a changing light show with live commentary on the electromagnetic spectrum. For Grades 6 through 9 "The Chemistry Program" provides dramatic demonstrations of substances changed by chemical reactions. For Grades 9 through 12 "Parasites and Man" uses both living specimens and prepared materials to comment on the relationship between mankind and several common parasites.

The Planetarium programs are also geared to different age levels. In addition to the regular public programs, the Planetarium offers five lecture-demonstrations that range from an effort to spark a child's awareness of common celestial events to a discussion of the way astronomical discoveries are made and information pursued.

Last year most of the 146,655 Massachusetts schoolchildren who visited the museum participated in one or more of the programs.

COMMISSION URGES WOMEN'S ADVANCEMENT IN GOVERNMENT

Boston's Commission on the Status of Women, established by Mayor Kevin White, has called for a number of actions on behalf of women in government.

Geraldine Pleshaw, a special assistant to the Mayor, said that, "The commission is presently determining ways in which it can encourage women to seek out positions of responsibility, especially within the Civil Service."

She added that the commission hopes to serve as a "clearing house" on information for women employees of government, concentrating on employment problems.

The commission urged that:

Governor Francis Sargent seriously consider the appointment of more women to judgeships in Massachusetts.

City union officials give recognition to women employees by nominating them for election to official positions.

City unions accept an amendment to the contract allowing women to use accrued leave for maternity purposes.

More women in city government be appointed to administrative positions when vacancies occur.

MBTA INITIATES "TOPS" PROGRAM

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority General Manager Joseph C. Kelly announced on September 20 the implementation of a new incentive safety program for MBTA operators to reduce the incidence of traffic and passenger accidents on its streetcar, bus, and trackless trolley lines.

"This new approach to accident reduction, which we are calling the TOPS Program (T Operators Promote Safety), will act as an adjunct to our ongoing accident prevention program, of which we're very proud and which includes accident analysis, defensive driver training, physical examination and reinstruction of operating personnel," Mr. Kelly said.

"We expect great things from TOPS, which establishes a friendly contest between the operators of our surface vehicles, with six groups of men, grouped by rating station, in constant competition to reduce the number of traffic and passenger accidents per revenue miles of operation," the general manager continued.

"Experience in other cities with similar incentive safety programs, notably Chicago and Cleveland, leads us to believe that we may see as much as an 8 percent reduction in accidents on an annual basis."

Six surface rating stations are competing to reduce the number of traffic and passenger accidents per revenue miles of operation compared with accident frequency standards based on the rating station's performance over the past three years. This competition started on October 1.

Each month the station which improves its accident record by the greatest percentage over its established standard will, by random selection, award dinner gift certificates with a monetary value of $10 good at any Red Coach Grill restaurant to twenty operators who have not been involved in an accident during the preceding twelve months.

The TOPS Program involves some 2,360 operators at the following rating stations: Arborway, Bartlett, Bennett, Fellsway, Reservoir, and the combined rating stations of Lynn, Quincy, and Tewksbury. These stations operated more than 34,000,000 revenue miles in 1971 and serve the MBTA district with some 1,219 buses, 335 streetcars, and 55 trackless trolleys.

After a six-month trial period the TOPS Program will be evaluated and a decision made on extending the trial period or making TOPS a permanent part of the Authority's program to provide safe transportation for its 500,000 daily riders.

COLUMBUS DAY

Christopher Columbus, Genoese (1451-1506), as a schoolboy in Genoa, Italy, studied mathematics and astronomy and became an expert at map making and charts. As he advanced in age, he became an experienced sailor and decided that the east could best be reached by sailing west, for he, with other learned geographers, knew that the earth was a globe. He determined to sail west to prove his point. Financed by his friends, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, he set sail on August 3, 1492, to discover the new world. The three vessels he used on his venture were the Santa Maria, Pinta, and Nina.

At 2 A.M. on the morning of October 12, 1492, he discovered land and named it San Salvador (Bahamas). Cruising in the West Indies, he also discovered the islands of Hispaniola (Haiti) and Cuba. He returned to Spain triumphantly, and the following year returned to the West Indies and discovered many more islands. He made another visit again in 1498, and coasted along the shores of North America.

From this expedition he was returned in chains, accused of cruelty and misgovernment. Cleared of these charges later, he made a fourth voyage to the new world in 1502, skirting the shores of Honduras, in Central America.

Sick and discouraged, deserted by his friends, he died in 1506, a victim of poverty and neglect. Both Havana, Cuba, and Santo Domingo claim that the great discoverer's remains are interred in their soil.

PLANT GIVEAWAY

A Plant Recycle-a-Thon was held Wednesday, October 4, on City Hall Plaza. The city gave away 500 plants — begonias, geraniums, coleus, and santolina — which had been dug up for the winter from the city's park garden beds.

They were for the taking — first come first served. City Superintendent of Horticulture Jim Kelleher and his assistant Mike Connor were on hand to answer questions on care and feeding of the plants.

The chance to recycle a plant and to give your home a green touch was provided by the Parks and Recreation Department as part of a gift to the people of Boston in honor of the city's 150th birthday, being celebrated this year.

Bunker Hill Monument

Bunker Hill Monument, Monument Square, Charlestown, is on Breed's Hill, the center of the Battle of Bunker Hill on June 17, 1775. The granite obelisk is 221 feet high. Open daily, 9 to 4; top of monument closes 30 minutes earlier than lower doors. Admission 10 cents, to top of monument, by 294-step spiral staircase; no elevator.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Board of Trustees in charge of the Library Department of the City of Boston respectfully requests that you approve the signing of a lease, without public advertising, with the Woodside Realty Corporation for the rental of the premises located at 18 Barnes Avenue, East Boston. These premises have served as quarters for the Orient Heights Branch Library since 1929. The lease will be for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973. The rental will be $5,200, plus "additional rent" of $860.

For the purpose of this lease the "additional rent" referred to is defined as that sum of money by which the real estate taxes on the premises assessed for the year 1972 exceeds the 1949 real estate tax. It is further agreed that until such time as the real estate tax rate for the year 1972 is finally determined, the sum of $860 shall represent the "additional rent." Further, if the 1972 real estate tax as finally determined should be less than the 1949 real estate tax, no "additional rent" shall be payable and the lessor covenants and agrees to pay the lessee the difference.

Inasmuch as it is not possible in this instance to obtain competitive bids by public advertising, and since the total rental will exceed $2,000, there is respectfully requested permission of your Honor to enter into this lease without publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES IN CHARGE OF THE LIBRARY DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,

By PHILIP J. McNIFF,
Director.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING,
11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR FURNISHING AND INSTALLING GLASS AT BOSTON TRADE
HIGH SCHOOL, 550 PARKER STREET, ROXBURY,
MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for furnishing and installing glass at Boston Trade High School, 550 Parker Street, Roxbury, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Daylight Saving Time), Monday, October 23, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $300. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Daylight Saving Time), Monday, October 16, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Glazing$200
No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority at the above office address before twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, October 19, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Elevator Work$200

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Thursday, October 12, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING,
11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR FURNISHING AND INSTALLING WINDOW SHADES AND METAL ROLLERS IN VARIOUS SCHOOLS IN AREA 6, BOSTON, MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for furnishing and installing window shades and metal rollers in various schools in Area 6, Boston, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Daylight Saving Time), Wednesday, October 25, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $500. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time thereafter.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids, if it be in the public interest so to do.

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids for proposals for MBTA Contract No. SM-504 will be received by the Contract Administrator at the office of the Director of Planning and Construction, 500 Arborway, Boston, Massachusetts 02130, until 2 P.M. (Eastern Standard Time) on November 7, 1972, immediately after which, in a designated room, the proposals will be opened and read publicly.

The above-numbered contract is more fully described as follows: WOOD ISLAND PARK STATION (BLUE LINE) EAST BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

(a) The work under this contract consists of the furnishing of all labor, materials, supplies, equipment, services, and supervision necessary to remove and relocate existing steel columns, remove existing concrete curb and fence, remove and replace concrete slabs and all other work as shown on the contract drawing at the upper bus level and lower rapid transit area. Also included is the removal and repaving of the bus ramp and alterations to the existing drainage facilities and other pertinent work as shown on the contract drawings. All is located at the Authority's Wood Island Park Station in East Boston, Massachusetts.

- (b) Work to be done by the Authority
1. Shutting off utilities in existing toilet prior to demolition.
 2. Removal of existing signs that interfere with construction.
 3. Removal of circular "T" sign on existing pedestrian walkway.

This contract is subject to a financial assistance contract between the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority and the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation.

Prequalification of contractors in accordance with the Authority's "Procedures Governing Classification and Rating of Prospective Bidders" will not be applicable to this contract.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the Contract Administrator, at the address above, from 8:30 A.M. to 4 P.M., Monday through Friday. A charge of $10 will be made for plans, specifications, and other contract documents, excluding the Authority's General Requirements and Covenants (1972 Edition of Division I). Copies of Division I are available in a separate volume from the Contract Administrator at a separate charge of $5 per copy. Neither charge is refundable.

Authorization for the bidders to view the site of the work on Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's property shall be obtained from Mr. V. Peter Tsarides, Supervisor of Civil and Design Engineering (Tel. 722-5441).

A prebid conference will be held on October 26, 1972, at 10 A.M. (Eastern Daylight Time) in the Engineering and Maintenance Department Conference Room, 21 Arlington Avenue, Charlestown, Massachusetts. It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications to be discussed at that time should be submitted in writing no later than October 20, 1972, to the Director of Planning and Construction.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work, and particularly to the bid conditions outlining affirmative action requirements in connection with equal employment opportunity, which must be submitted as part of the bid.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), in the form of cash or a certified check or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority. A bid bond will not be accepted.

The right is reserved to waive any informality in or to reject any or all proposals. A proposal which includes for any item a bid that is abnormally low or high may be rejected as unbalanced.

An award will not be made to any contractor whose name appears on the United States Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors for federally financed and assisted construction.

It is a condition of this contract, and shall be made a condition of each subcontract entered into pursuant to this contract, that the contractor and any subcontractor shall not require any laborer or mechanic employed in performance of the contract to work in surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary, hazardous, or dangerous to his health or safety, as determined under construction safety and health standards (Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1518—published in the Federal Register on April 17, 1971) promulgated by the United States Secretary of Labor, in accordance with Section 107 of the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act (83 Stat. 96).

The contractor shall be required to pay minimum wages in accordance with the schedules listed in the special provisions, which wage rates have been predetermined.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a performance bond for the full amount of the contract, as well as a labor and material payment bond in the sum of 50 percent of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

NO. 42

Mayor Opens New Detoxification Center

Mayor Kevin White on October 5 officially opened the Boston Detoxification Unit, the city's first comprehensive alcohol detoxification center, at the Franklin Square House in the South End.

"We recognize the need for a noncriminal response mechanism to the problem of public drunkenness," Mayor White said. "I feel that this center will prove to be a successful operation in fighting this social malady.

"The detoxification unit will perform a double service," he added. "It will help society and the individual alcoholic by providing him with professional help while saving taxpayers' money by significantly lowering arrests, court cases, and incarcerations resulting from public drunkenness."

The detoxification unit will be a comprehensive, community-based program for chronic public drunkenness offenders. A three-man civilian team will patrol, offering persons who are drunk in public the opportunity to enter the program voluntarily. The unit will work closely with police to give offenders every opportunity to use the detoxification unit.

Once a person enters the unit he is evaluated by nursing and paramedical personnel. If further medical care is required, he will be transported to a hospital for care by a physician.

Those admitted are encouraged to stay for a five-day period. During that period they are treated for alcohol withdrawal under the supervision of a physician with 24-hour-a-day supervision.

Patients will be assessed by a team of counsellors and plans for after-care treatment will be arranged. Referrals are made to alcohol rehabilitation agencies.

Comprehensive research data will be maintained to insure maximum success in the detoxification operation.

The Franklin Square House Center initially will contain thirty beds. It will be expanded to seventy beds early next year which will allow for a capacity of 5,000 admissions a year.

The cost of the program to the city per patient is $23 a day. Comparable care in a private hospital would cost approximately $100 a day. The average cost for the arrest and subsequent court appearance for public drunkenness is $40 and Boston spends over $1 million a year on law enforcement related to drunkenness.

The city has opened the new detoxification center following a successful one-year pilot program with twelve beds at the Pine Street Inn, in the South End, funded by the federal government. This pilot program had 1,327 admissions and court appearances by the chronic inebriate were reduced by 50 percent.

The program will initially be limited to Police District 4 (South End), where there were 7,000 arrests for public drunkenness last year. With the availability of seventy beds, the program will be expanded to District 1 (downtown).

Last year public drunkenness accounted for 60 percent of all arrests in Boston, and 60 percent of those arrests were made in Districts 1 and 4.

DR. EDWARD H. HOMMEL HONORED

At ceremonies conducted at New Madison Square Garden in New York City, Dr. Edward H. Hommel, Boston Fire Department Medical Examiner, was awarded a fellowship to the American Academy of Family Physicians.

The prominent South Boston physician commenced his practice forty years ago in that section of the city. Doctor Hommel has served with various departments of the City of Boston for thirty years and has been medical examiner of the Boston Fire Department for the past eighteen years.

During World War II he was appointed battalion surgeon of the Thirty-Third Infantry Division and retired disabled.

A present member of the medical staff at the Carney Hospital, he is also a member of the American Medical Association, the Massachusetts Medical Society, the Massachusetts Society of Examining Physicians, the Association of Military Surgeons, and a former member physician of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Boxing Commission.

HARVARD PRESENTS UNUSUAL EDUCATIONAL COURSE

Politicians, community leaders, consumers, health planners, medical and dental professionals, and teachers are participating in a new and unusual educational course being offered by the Harvard School of Dental Medicine through its Department of Ecological Dentistry.

Through the course, future dental health professionals at the Harvard School of Dental Medicine are being given insights into the latest in dental care with an appreciation of the social context of health and disease. After hearing testimony and discussion from panelists who are experts in pertinent areas, students will be asked to devise a comprehensive program of dental care delivery in the United States.

The course was developed by two clinical fellows, Dr. Joseph Boffa and Dr. Norma Kaplis, under the direction of Donald B. Giddon, D.M.D., Ph.D., professor of ecological dentistry and Anthony Jong, D.D.S., M.P.H., assistant professor of ecological dentistry.

In twelve weekly panel discussions the problems involved in dental care delivery are being examined from all points of view. Of special interest is a session on "Politics and Health Care" which will include prominent Massachusetts political figures such as Lawrence DiCara, a member of the Boston City Council with a special interest in health care legislation; Michael Dukakis, a member of the Massachusetts legislature for eight years and a leader in governmental reform of housing, auto insurance and transportation, now moderator of "The Advocates," a national public affairs television program based in Boston; and David Nelson, assistant attorney general and chief of the Consumer Protection Division, as well as former chairman of the Health Planning Council of Greater Boston. This session will concentrate on the politician's view of the health care system, especially as it relates to dentistry, as well as views on the health care crisis, the Congressional financing of a health care plan, the politics involved in getting a health measure passed, the influence of powerful lobbies, and other questions.

Another session devoted to "The Effect of the Health Care System on the Consumer" will have as panel members representatives from high-, low-, and middle-income groups as well as various ethnic groups. They will discuss dental health care questions from the consumer's and the community's standpoint.

Students will hear the professionals' side of the problem in a session called "The Effect of the Health Care System on the Professional." Discussants will include professionals in private practice, third-party payment group practice, neighborhood health centers as well as dental school professors and administrators. They will consider such questions as what the health care goals should be in the United States, what advantages and disadvantages their particular types of practice offer, and what kind of treatment each practitioner performs most and how much it costs the patient.

Other sessions will deal with "The Interaction of the Society, Consumer, and the Provider" (October 13), the "Role of Dental Education and Health Education in the Overall Health System" (October 20), and "Planning and Health Care" (October 27).

NEW TRAFFIC AIDS

New traffic lines, signs, and signals to make your driving easier and safer are on the way.

In conformance with federal standards, you'll be seeing more yellow lines on state highways. The use of these more visible lines, to be the standard by December, 1972, will make it easier for you to know when you can or cannot pass a car.

These line marker rules may be useful to you:

Yellow lines separate traffic moving in opposite directions. They also mark the left boundary at particularly hazardous sites.

White lines separate traffic flow in the same direction.

Red markings mean you do not enter or use roadways.

Broken lines are permissive; solid lines are restrictive.

The wider the line, the more emphasis it has.

Double lines restrict you the most. You can't cross them.

In December, 1974, the new symbol road signs described in the recent AAA Newsletter will become a national standard.

Two years later, in December, 1976, new traffic signals will become the national standard. To help make sure traffic lights can be seen by drivers on wide roadways, the lights will be moved from the side of the road and hung overhead on booms toward the middle of the roadway.

At the same time, red and yellow arrows will come into use to supplement the now familiar green arrows.

DIRECTIVE NO. 9 PREPARATION FOR 1973 BUDGET

To All Department Heads.

Each department head is being charged with the very serious responsibility of finding ways to live within his 1972 budget in 1973.

This means absorbing the scheduled or predictable increases in wages and in costs of goods and services.

This can be done only by reducing the number of people on your payroll. There is no other way.

You are asked to begin now to do this:

1. By eliminating excess or non-productive personnel.
2. By not filling positions which become vacant.

Please, therefore, do not hire any new people when vacancies occur and reexamine the need for all temporary people whose appointments expire.

Also, promotions may not be made without prior approval from the Supervisor of Personnel. We intend before a position is filled by promotion to make sure that it is justified by the duties involved.

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

HARVARD APPOINTMENT

Irving M. London, M.D., of Cambridge, Mass., Director of the Harvard-Massachusetts Institute of Technology Program in Health Sciences and Technology, has been appointed professor of medicine in Harvard University and MIT.

The dual appointment, the first of its kind between the two institutions, is announced by Robert H. Ebert, M.D., Dean of the Harvard Medical School and Walter A. Rosenblith, MIT Provost.

Dr. London is also professor of biology at MIT, visiting professor of medicine at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York, and physician at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

Volunteer assignments at the Museum of Science this year are keeping pace with the expansion of the Museum itself.

In describing the need for additional workers, Gwen Ferrini, volunteer coordinator, emphasizes the educational functions volunteers will perform.

Several new activities are available, Mrs. Ferrini said.

Inquiry guides, prepared to answer questions about a particular exhibit, will lead interested visitors into a discussion of the purpose and scientific principles involved. Other guides, called Highlighters, will take families and organized groups on a Museum tour to point out features that might otherwise be missed.

Volunteers will help the staff do research for programs, courses, and demonstrations. Those with technical backgrounds will provide assistance at backstage operations, including laboratory work.

Continuing this fall is the four-year-old Project Eye-Opener, an enrichment program for young children from disadvantaged areas. Volunteers guide small groups of these children through the Museum to give them an opportunity to hold live animals and become acquainted with some of the Museum exhibits.

Also continuing are assignments in the Museum Shop which depends on volunteers to sell, arrange stock, and prepare displays. The shop, with sales going toward the Museum's budget, offers science hobby equipment, books, games, and handmade articles from many parts of the world.

Because the Museum has many specialized needs as well, Mrs. Ferrini suggests that all prospective volunteers arrange for an interview at her office. The number is 742-1410, ext. 258.

DIRECTIVE NO. 8 PERSONNEL PROCEDURES

To All Department Heads.

Please take steps immediately to make sure that working hours are being strictly observed in all units of your department.

In the case of the regular office workday, make sure that sign-in and sign-out procedures are being followed and that everyone begins work at 9 A.M. and remains until 5 P.M.

Detailed instructions aimed at uniformity of procedures and record keeping will be sent to you in the near future, but please begin at once to review the current practices in your department and make sure that everyone is arriving on time and staying until official closing time.

It is most important that procedures be the same in every department.

If you have any questions, please call.

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,

SPECIAL PHOTO DISPLAY

In a current exhibition at Boston City Hall, children and young adults in their most impressionable stage of life reveal their candid impressions of Boston and its neighborhoods through photographs taken in recent Summerthing workshops. The finest of the youngsters' interpretations of our city — sometimes sad, sometimes joyful, and always exciting — are on view weekdays from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. now through October 27 in the Registry Area of Boston City Hall and the public is cordially invited.

MAY WE SUGGEST?

If you see a motorist broken down or stranded along the highway, use your own good judgement about stopping. But make sure you report his predicament to the next police officer, service station, or toll booth.

Don't think that someone else will report it. The someone else is you.

 VFW Post 1018, 500 Morton Street, Dorchester, between the hours of 8:30 A.M. and 2 P.M., on Friday, October 6, 1972.

Commanding officers of all divisions, districts, and units will bring this matter to the attention of all officers and civilians under their command and impress upon those between the ages of nineteen and fifty-nine the importance of their cooperation in the continuation of this blood program. Members of the department who donate their blood will be granted one half day of additional relief at a later date.

Reports containing the names of volunteers and their schedules of duty on Friday, October 6, 1972, will be forwarded to the Bureau of Administration, Correspondence Section, by morning mail Tuesday, October 3, 1972. Commanding officers will schedule their day officers in such a manner as to have proper coverage of their divisions, districts, or units at all times.

It is hoped that all members of this department will earnestly support this blood program and help to assure its continuation.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

MAYOR'S SAFE STREETS ACT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As director of the staff of your Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to Technical Development Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation, in an amount not to exceed $33,011 for the period March 1, 1972, through August 31, 1972.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $100,000 under section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P. L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by an order of the City Council on December 7, 1970. Under the terms of the contract, Technical Development Corporation will be obligated to establish a high school equivalency program at Suffolk County House of Correction. The program will develop inmates' reading, writing, vocabulary, mathematical and interpretive skills sufficient for the inmates to pass the General Educational Development test (G.E.D.). The program will also develop and improve inmates' postrelease academic and vocational opportunities. The funds are requested to permit Technical Development Corporation to employ and train staff and engage services in the rendering of its obligations under the proposed contract.

Technical Development Corporation is a non-profit Massachusetts organization chartered in 1968 to conduct training and research in vocational rehabilitation, and to help develop coordinated effort among those in the field. Its emphasis is on community, industrial, and university participation in the rehabilitative process. Through representation on official and private boards and as contractor to the Department of Correction, it is contributing to the integration of private and public programs for correctional reform and rehabilitation in Massachusetts.

Because of the unique service required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE, JR.,
Executive Director.

YOUTH TUTORING YOUTH PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As director of the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to the East Boston Area Planning Council, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $3,850 for the period January 14, 1972, through September 1, 1972.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $32,500 under section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P. L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by an order of the City Council on October 4, 1971. Under the terms of the contract, East Boston Area Planning Action Council, Inc., will be obligated to establish a youth tutoring youth program in East Boston that will deal with delinquent and high-risk delinquent youth, offering them innovative employment. Youths hired under this program will be referred from Youth Activities Commission area youth workers, the courts, and juvenile police officers. Employment will involve tutoring other youth from their own community. Funds are requested to permit East Boston APAC to employ and train staff and engage services in the rendering of its obligations under the proposed contract.

Because of the unique service required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising should be dispensed with.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE, JR.,
Executive Director.

MODEL CITY ADMINISTRATION

STORAGE

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I refer to my letters to you of December 30, 1970, and May 5, 1971, wherein I requested and pursuant to which you granted authority to dispense with advertising in connection with the award of a contract and an amendment thereto to Herbert C. Swett, of Newton, Mass., for storage of furnishings, equipment, and supplies to be used in connection with various Model City programs, particularly the Model City Child Care Program.

The time of performance provided in the amendment has expired, and while equipment has from time to time been removed, a considerable quantity must remain in storage for an additional period of time. As mentioned in my previous letters, Mr. Swett's building at 53 Roxbury Street where the equipment is stored is within one block of the Model City office at 2401 Washington Street, and therefore conveniently accessible.

Therefore, I hereby request authority to dispense with advertising in connection with the award of a contract in an amount not to exceed $3,300 to said Herbert C. Swett for storage of such furnishings, equipment, and supplies. The contract will take effect as of October 1, 1971, and terminate April 30, 1972.

As I stated in my letters concerning the previous contract, and amendment, the reasons for not inviting bids by advertisement are the necessity of securing space near the Model City offices and the particular suitability of the space at 53 Roxbury Street.

Should there be any questions, or should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

PLANNING SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your permission to award a contract for planning services in an amount not to exceed $30,000 to Cities, Inc., 102 Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge, Mass. The period of performance under the contract is from January, 1972, through June 30, 1972.

The contract is for the preparation of a land use and development plan of the area which includes the portions of the proposed Southwest Corridor, running roughly from Forest Hills to the South End Urban Renewal Project, and a part of the proposed Inner Belt, running through Roxbury. The plan, to be prepared by Cities, Inc., shall include a written demonstration of the economic market feasibility and the community desirability of proposed public, residential, commercial and industrial uses for the study area. The plan shall specify development solutions and shall identify project costs and funding sources. The plan shall represent conclusions drawn from a final analysis by Cities, Inc., of a series of intermediate reports on community opinions, development choices, economic development potential, funding sources, legal constraints, and physical development which Cities, Inc., will also be responsible for preparing. In the preparation and presentation of the plan the consultant shall undertake to give local community groups a proposed land use plan that they can support as against plans for highway use of the Southwest Corridor and to give local development groups sufficient technical information to enable them to put together an adequate development team and carry on negotiations with the state for the acquisition of property in the study area.

The Model City Agency invited written requests for proposals to perform the desired work from fifteen consultant firms. Three proposals were received for all or a part of the work. The proposal of Cities, Inc., was the most complete. Cities, Inc., has been selected on the basis of the work program set forth in its proposal, its familiarity with the area to be studied, its ability to work closely with community groups, and on its capacity to begin work immediately to meet essential time deadlines.

For the foregoing reasons it is requested that notice of said contract by advertising in the City Record be waived.

Sincerely,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

XEROX COPYING MACHINE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written authorization to dispense with writing a proposal of advertisement in the Boston City Record and to award to the Xerox Corporation a contract for the supply and maintenance of our Xerox copying machine during the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $7,000 which I believe is fair and reasonable.

In view of the quality of the machines and service to be provided, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD C. DWYER,
Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT TREE SPRAYING

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of Lowden, Inc., with offices at 16 Franklin Street,

Needham Heights, Mass., for the spraying of elm trees on Commonwealth Avenue Mall. The spraying will include all the American and English elms on Commonwealth Avenue between the Public Garden and the Charlesgate East Bridge. The Lowden proposal involves two hydraulic spray applications, the first being 2 percent methoxychlor solution to be applied to the sixth of May to protect the trees from infection of Dutch elm disease by the European elm beetle. This first spray is to be followed by a second application between June 11, 1972, and July 1, 1972, for the control of scale infestation as well as protection from mite and elm leaf beetle damage. If these problems, such as scale injury, are allowed to persist, they would greatly weaken the elm trees over a period of years to the extent that the trees will be more susceptible to the Dutch elm disease. The total cost of the spray program will not exceed $12,700.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract. As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of services of a special nature and as all trees sprayed by Lowden, Inc., over a three-year period will be guaranteed by Lowden beginning July, 1972, a public solicitation for bids would, in my opinion, serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to Parks and Recreation Budget 1-11-41 (816).

The Back Bay Federation has engaged Lowden, Inc., to conduct the dormant spray application to all trees on the Commonwealth Avenue Mall in 1969 and 1970. We believe that the spray program has been a success in the control of the elm bark beetle and the spread of the Dutch elm disease on the avenue. The continuation of the spray program in 1972 by the City of Boston will result in an insured guarantee of the trees health.

This contract will not be awarded until after April 6, 1972.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT CONSULTANT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Boston Police Department received a grant of $350,000 from 1970 Action Funds from the Safe Streets Act the purpose of which was to carry on work in its records, communication, information, resource allocation, and command and control systems. Recently the department received a follow-on grant of $590,000 to continue development work in these areas.

Included in these grants is the provision for engaging consultant services in highly specialized technical areas in which the department does not have sufficient in-house talents. During the last year, with your authorization, I entered into a contract with Concord Research Corporation to provide consultant services in areas related to the development of a computerized police geographic base file for the improvement of our statistical system. Concord Research Corporation performed in an excellent and most professional manner, and work which they performed is already producing benefits to our department.

Because of its previous experience, the background of its personnel, its excellent performance, and the knowledge gained on our previous contract, Concord Research Corporation is uniquely and singularly qualified to provide additional consultant services to the Police Department in continuing our project to improve our statistical system.

As Concord Research Corporation is exceptionally qualified to provide the consultant services necessitated in this project, I believe that it would be in the best interest of the City of Boston and its Police Department to dispense with the usual advertising and bidding and to enter into a contract with Concord Research Corporation of Burlington, Mass., in the amount of $49,843, to provide the required consultant services, funds for which will come entirely from the above federal grants.

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authorization so to do.

Respectfully,

EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT HEATING AND ELECTRICAL WORK

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A fire on December 22, 1971, destroyed the building housing a civil defense facility at 51 River Street, Mattapan, and, since the building presents a hazardous condition, it will subsequently be demolished.

It has now been decided to relocate the civil defense shelter, supplies, emergency equipment, and maintenance personnel temporarily at an existing building owned by the City of Boston at 247 East Berkeley Street. However, the building at Berkeley Street does not have heating, water, and functional toilet facilities, and as a result there was an urgent request from the Civil Defense Director for the expeditious provision of these necessary facilities, the need for which is so imperative during prevailing weather conditions. As it was an emergency resulting directly from a fire which caused the destruction of the structure in Mattapan; we forwarded a letter to and received written approval on January 19, 1972, from the designated agent of the Commissioner of Labor and Industries to prosecute this work under emergency status, which required receiving bid prices from at least three contractors.

We prepared the necessary specifications and drawing and attached them to a proposal form and furnished them to three reputable contractors who submitted bids for the subject work as follows:

P. F. Russo Company, 58 Austin Street, Hyde Park, $3,850.

(Scott-Prescott Corporation, 21 Intervale Street, Quincy, $4,000.

P. J. Janis Plumbing and Heating Company, 10 Brookley Road, Jamaica Plain, $4,150.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested, in recognition of the fact that an emergency situation exists, to authorize the dispensing with public advertising for bids and to award a contract, without advertising, to the P. F. Russo Company, 58 Austin Street, Hyde Park, Mass., for an amount not to exceed $3,850.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECTURAL SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As recently authorized by the Public Facilities Commission, I request of your Honor, in the name and on behalf of that Board, since the Boston Society of Architects-Public Facilities Department Liaison Committee has concurred in the proposed selection of Whitney-Atwood-Norcross Associates, Inc., formal written permission to dispense with a public solicitation for competitive bids by advertising therefor in the City Record, in awarding a contract to Whitney-Atwood-Norcross Associates, Inc., Architects, 256 Boylston Street, Boston, to prepare schematic designs, design development drawings, basic outline specifications, and construction cost estimates for use in the construction of a pumping station and a fire station in the downtown district of the City of Boston, at a cost for such services not to exceed $23,620 (including supplementary services costing not in excess of $1,500), and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

At a subsequent date it is expected that a second contract would be awarded to the aforementioned architectural firm, contingent upon the commission's assent thereto and your Honor's formal written approval, to prepare the working drawings and detailed specifications for the project. The fee for the projected second contract will be derived from the A. I. A. 1967 recommended schedule of minimum "B" rates, based upon the then estimated cost of construction, less $22,120 of the amount to be expended under the contract now proposed.

Since the subject services are in the professional category and since the architect would be paid pursuant to the schedule of recommended minimum basic percentage fees set by the Massachusetts Chapter-The American Institute of Architects, it is not apparent that public advertising would be of advantage to the city

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

LEASE RENEWAL

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On December 12, 1966, the then Mayor of Boston approved a lease between the City of Boston and the Trustees of the Bradley Real Estate Trust for premises at 11 Beacon Street, for use by the School Building Department.

This original lease expired November 30, 1969, but was extended for a two-year period ending November 30, 1971. All conditions including the base rental remained the same.

We now request permission to enter into a second extension of this lease without public advertising for the period December 1, 1971, through March 31, 1972. The monthly rental will remain the same, i.e. $4,539, for a total of $18,156. It is our further intention to, at a later date, request authority for renewal of this lease for a twelve-month term effective April 1, 1972; using this date in compliance with Auditing Department procedures.

Since this office space is both adequate and convenient, it would appear that public advertising would serve no useful purposes here.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR ERECTING AND COMPLETING A NEW OUTPATIENT BUILDING, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for erecting and completing a new outpatient building, Boston City Hospital.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 20, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $50,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority at the above office address before twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, November 30, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Architectural Precast Concrete.....	$27,500
Masonry	1,500
Miscellaneous Metals.....	8,200
Roofing and Flashing.....	9,000
Waterproofing, Dampproofing, and Caulking	1,300
Furring, Lathing, and Plastering	27,500
Glass and Glazing.....	14,500
Metal Windows.....	12,500
Painting	4,500
Tile	3,750
Resilient Flooring.....	4,000
Acoustical Tile.....	12,500
Elevator	27,500
Heating, Ventilating, and Air Conditioning	50,000
Plumbing	50,000
Electrical	50,000

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Tuesday, October 24, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $100 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

CITY OF BOSTON,

ROBERT J. VEY,

Director, Public Facilities Department.

General bids will be received up until 11 A.M., Thursday, October 26, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. Two copies of the general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid will be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended. This schedule will be available to the successful bidder.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR SECURITY SCREENS, DETENTION AREAS, SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE.

The City of Boston, acting by its Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for security screens, detention areas, Suffolk County Court House.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, November 2, 1972, at the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done, and accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $600. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the bids.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Thursday, October 19, 1972, at the above office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition.

NO. 43

Mayor Seeks Investigation of Vendome Collapse

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 12, turned over to Suffolk County District Attorney Garrett Byrne copies of two consultant reports and asked for an investigation into the possibility of criminal negligence in connection with the collapse of the old Hotel Vendome, which killed nine Boston fire fighters on June 17.

The two reports, ordered by the Mayor last June, agree on the cause of the collapse and were prepared by Walter J. Hickey Associates for the Fire Department and Charles T. Main Company for the Building Department.

"After reading both reports, I believe that the preparation of technical plans for remodeling the Vendome and the technical supervision of the work while it was carried out were definitely inadequate," Mayor White said.

Mayor White also took the following steps:

He requested State Fire Marshal Joseph Schneider to hold public hearings on the Vendome case, with a special view toward recommending improved procedures to be followed by engineers, architects, and contractors so as to avert another tragedy.

He said he will appoint a prominent private citizen to be his coordinator in reviewing the consultant reports, attending the public hearings, and then making final public recommendations to him. After reading all the testimony, the Mayor's coordinator (a) could make his own recommendations for insuring the structural safety of buildings; (b) could work out such recommendations after consulting professional societies and state boards of registration; or (c) could appoint a panel of professional experts to draft the recommendations.

The coordinator also would review a new ordinance filed by the Mayor that requires periodic inspections of ongoing construction projects by architects and engineers and, with the help of experts, then determine if new, tougher requirements are needed.

The Mayor also has asked Corporation Counsel Herbert P. Gleason to determine if legal action can be brought by the city to recover damages. The city's costs thus far have included disability pensions to survivors, loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars of Fire Department equipment, and costs of consultants' studies.

"I have taken these steps for a simple reason," Mayor White said. "Although I speak as a layman, it is clear to me after reviewing these reports that this horrible loss of life could have, and should have, been prevented.

"It is evident that the intricate, technical process of reviewing plans and then carefully supervising work procedures was inadequate in this case, that such sophisticated, detailed, and complex judgments can be made only by registered, professional architects or engineers, and that we are going to have to look to these professional societies to tighten their own procedures," he said.

He also noted that since the Vendome disaster he has filed a proposal in the City Council requiring a registered architect or engineer to certify that the construction complies with the Boston building code and that the structure is considered safe and ready for occupancy.

Furthermore, the Mayor noted, the proposal also requires that an engineer or architect determine the structural safety of all multiple occupancy buildings at least once a year, whether work is being done on them or not. This proposal, submitted by Mayor White on August 21, is still waiting Council approval.

It will be the coordinator's task to determine if these requirements are thorough enough to safeguard the structural safety of buildings or whether still additional steps are required.

The Vendome collapse was primarily due to the weakening of a bearing or supporting wall in the basement. This wall was involved in major alterations that took place in the early 1890's and, in the opinion of both consultants, was in an unsafe condition since that time, even though no incidents occurred. So, for about eighty years before the fire last June, the bearing wall supported five floors in the southeast portion of the Vendome, and thus was placed under greater than normal stress.

Vendome Collapse . . .

A second major factor in the collapse was the installation of a heating duct in this basement wall. This work required opening a hole in the wall so that the duct (30 inches by 20 inches) could pass through. This hole further weakened the wall.

"This hole should not have been inserted at this location," Mayor White said. "The wall was weakened by age and by alterations made over an eighty-year period. The fire on June 17 and the stresses it imposed upon this wall was the final straw that caused this wall to crumble, and so cost nine lives.

"I believe that a competent, experienced, registered, structural engineer should have reviewed the plans for the installation of the heating system, but, presumably, this was not done.

"If we are to avert such a tragedy again, we must insist, under the new law, that a registered engineer or architect inspect all of the plans affecting the project and then carefully monitor or inspect the work at least once a week. If the Council passes the latest ordinance, we shall have taken a major step toward guarding against human error. I regret that such a law was not in existence when the permit was issued to remodel the Vendome."

Mayor White emphasized that only registered engineers or architects are qualified to draw the hundreds of detailed drawings required in a major remodeling project such as the Vendome. Only registered professionals are qualified to review and change these plans and to anticipate flaws.

"A major construction project or rehabilitation project requires hundreds of technical drawings affecting design, structural realignments, wiring, heating and ventilation systems, testing of concrete, and numerous other types of technical decisions," the Mayor said. "No government agency can be expected to possess all of this expertise. Indeed, no one professional firm, by itself, possesses all of this knowledge and so, all firms must subcontract with other specialized professionals.

"Our job now is to punish those who may be guilty of negligence in the Vendome case, and so I have referred the matter to the District Attorney. But, of even greater concern to me is the need to prevent a recurrence, and for that we must look for guidance to the architectural and engineering professions themselves. Boston has thousands of old buildings that will be rehabilitated in future years, many with outstanding historic and aesthetic values. We have an obligation not only to preserve these buildings but to preserve the lives of people living and working in them. We cannot and will not settle for less," Mayor White concluded.

BCH HOLDS ELECTION

Boston City Hospital will hold an election for community representatives to its Outpatient Department Reorganization Committee on Thursday, October 26.

Any registered Outpatient Department patient is eligible to vote. The election will be held from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. in the Outpatient Department lobby on Harrison Avenue. Three representatives will be chosen and two alternates.

The reorganization is an attempt to provide primary health care and backup services at the Outpatient Department on a more personalized level and with more intensive follow-up care.

SOUTH BOSTON BRANCH LIBRARY CELEBRATES CENTENNIAL

"More than ever, do we today want intelligent, thoughtful citizens And therefore do we need to put before every person the free invitation to know more, to think more, to uplift and develop the nobler faculties of the soul."

Still appropriate today, these words were first spoken by the Rev. George C. Thayer at the dedication of the second branch Library established in the United States in May of 1872. Now celebrating its centennial, the South Boston Branch of the Boston Public Library was originally opened in the second-floor rooms of the Savings Bank building (also called the Masonic building) on West Broadway at the corner of E Street.

Of the first collection of 4,360 volumes, 1,470 had been donated by the Mattapan Literary Association, an organization of South Boston young men established in 1848 "for the mutual improvement of its members in literary accomplishments, as Declamation, Composition and Debate." In the words of Mr. William W. Greenough, President of the Board of Trustees at the time, "This well-selected collection . . . of a miscellaneous character; forming an excellent foundation on which to build."

In 1948, due to the sale of the building and the close proximity of the City Point Branch Library in the Municipal building, it was proposed to close the South Boston Branch. However, protests by residents caused a reconsideration, and in June 1950, the library was moved to smaller quarters on the street floor of a store at 386-388 West Broadway, where it continued until partially destroyed by fire on May 20, 1957.

Fortunately, construction was already under way of the present modern building on the site of the old Lincoln school at 646 East Broadway. Plans called for the consolidation of the City Point and South Boston branch libraries. On October 31, 1957 — just fifteen years ago — with appropriate exercises and with great public enthusiasm, the new building for the South Boston Branch Library was dedicated. For the first time the South Boston Branch Library was located in a building designed to be a library.

Speaking at the dedication exercises in 1872, the Honorable Benjamin Dean, esteemed local resident and congressman, quoted freely from letters about the library building written by Joshua Bates, a self-made man and benefactor of the Boston Public Library. "The architecture should be such that the student, on entering it, will be impressed and elevated, and feel a pride that such a place is free to him." Again: "Only see that the building is such that when filled with books, every Bostonian will feel proud of; besides to make it successful, it must be worth seeing."

Joshua Bates would find the present South Boston Branch Library both "successful" and "worth seeing."

A look back to another part of the dedication exercises in 1872 reveals a prophetic verse which was included in the singing of the "Dedication Hymn" written to music composed for the occasion by Julius Eichberg. It reads:

"Labor we not in vain,
Dowering what's here enshrined,
If the people's heart and brain Responsive seek and find,—"

Since the people of South Boston have always been responsive to their library, it takes the occasion of the Centennial to salute the people of the community who have achieved in so many fields then and now.

A special program commemorating its centennial was held at the South Boston Branch Library on Thursday evening, October 19. The public was invited to attend this observance, free of charge.

MBTA ANNOUNCES PUBLIC SERVICE PROGRAM

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority General Manager Joseph C. Kelly recently announced the advent of a cooperative advertising program that will be offered to the business community.

"If the MBTA is to fully inform the public of its present transit services, as well as plans for future expansion and modernization," Mr. Kelly began, "then it is essential that we greatly expand our transportation information program throughout Massachusetts.

"The successful implementation of this program will provide the business community with a means for furnishing a vital public service to the general public, as well as allowing the MBTA to increase its informational program.

"During the next several months," Mr. Kelly went on, "the MBTA will be soliciting the cooperative support of this region's businessmen. This support will be in the form of advertising, transportation items, maps, and educational materials.

"We sincerely believe that a sustained cooperative public information program will meet with the same success as other mutual undertakings of the business community," he concluded.

The overall cooperative advertising program will be supervised by Brian Cudahy, Director of Community Affairs, and will be administered by Joseph Casper of the Community Affairs Department.

Those interested in obtaining more information regarding participation in this cooperative advertising and public service effort may contact the MBTA at 722-5795.

BOSTON CIVIL DEFENSE TO HOST NATIONAL CONFERENCE

From Sunday, October 29 to Friday, November 3, at the Statler Hilton Hotel the City of Boston Civil Defense Department will host the Twenty-first Annual Conference of the United States Civil Defense Council.

The event will bring together community Civil Defense officials from the fifty states.

Chief Walter J. Cameron, conference chairman, stated "That the convention program is primarily directed to the briefing of national, state, local, and industrial Civil Defense officials in the latest emergency preparedness techniques to insure that community operation plans are current to mitigate the effects of natural or man-made disasters on life and property."

On Monday, October 30, the Honorable John E. Davis, director of the Defense Civil Preparedness Agency, will address the conferees to open the business of the conference. Later in the session Dr. Carroll P. Hungate will present the Pfizer awards to the persons selected by their colleagues in the medical profession who have performed meritorious service in disaster preparedness. This year, Dr. Donald P. Dressier, M.D., of Cambridge, Mass., will be a recipient of this award. On Thursday, Victor McDavitt, general defense coordinator for the New England Telephone Company will address the conferees on the protection of communication facilities. Most state and local Civil Defense directors from Massachusetts are expected to attend.

POSTAL SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

All post offices will cooperate in the annual alien address reporting program next January, the United States Postal Service said on October 11.

The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 requires aliens resident in the United States on January 1 to report their addresses to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

As in past years, all post offices will participate in the program to the extent of distributing address reporting cards (Form I-53) to aliens and forwarding the cards after completion to Immigration and Naturalization Service offices.

The form — a manila punch card similar to the one used for 1972 alien reporting — will be available for distribution at post offices on the first business day of January, 1973. Completed forms must be turned in before the end of January.

The cards are being supplied to post offices during November by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, but the forms cannot be handed out to the public until January.

AND THERE WAS LIGHT

Installation of globe street lights on Washington Street in the retail core began recently, according to Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Director Robert T. Kenney.

The $72,000 contract, covering most of Washington Street between Court and Bedford/West Streets, is part of the overall upgrading of Washington Street announced by Mr. Kenney and Mayor Kevin H. White earlier this year. The globe lights are like those in Government Center.

"This is an important first step in making Washington Street a more attractive pedestrian area that will attract shoppers and strengthen the downtown," Mr. Kenney said. "It is an indication of the city's confidence in the future of Boston's retail district and its commitment to that future."

Also included in the contract is the completion of the realignment of School Street between the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank's new addition and School Street Plaza which the bank has constructed at Washington Street.

In addition, new traffic signals will be installed at the Bedford, Temple, and Milk Street intersections of Washington Street.

Part of the lighting and street work is included in the School-Franklin urban renewal project. The remainder comes under the jurisdiction of the city's Public Works Department, which is administering the entire contract. The BRA has overseen the plans for the upgrading.

Also soon to be under way on Washington Street is the removal of a brick wall adjacent to the Old South Meeting House, preparatory to the realignment of Milk Street to join School Street. The wall, of fairly recent construction, has no architectural or historic significance. The work will be done under separate contract with the BRA.

Completion of the first phase of relighting is scheduled for late November. Relighting of the remainder of Washington Street from Court to Stuart Street is anticipated next year.

VACCINATION TIME FOR ADULTS

All persons with chronic heart and lung disease, as well as other serious disorders, should contact their physicians or local boards of health for immunization against influenza, urges Dr. Gustave A. Laurenzi, President of the Massachusetts Thoracic Society, Medical Section of the Massachusetts TB and Respiratory Disease League. The Society's Council also recommends that vaccination be strongly considered for all patients over the age of forty-five.

The immunization consists of two injections which would hopefully be completed by the end of November. Dr. Laurenzi said, "Dr. Nicholas J. Fiumara, Director of Communicable Diseases, State Department of Public Health, has advised that an influenza epidemic may strike this area by mid-December.

"Evidence has shown," continued Dr. Laurenzi, "that protection is quite good with this vaccination, and its efficacy might remove a serious threat of pulmonary infection in patients who already have borderline heart-lung function.

"Obvious precautions should be taken in persons who are allergic to eggs or egg products, and patients who already have acute respiratory illness should not be immunized at that time," he warned.

Information about influenza shots may be obtained by contacting the Society's office at 385 Elliot Street, Newton Upper Falls (969-1090).

AN URGENT APPEAL

A great tragedy befell several families in a four-alarm fire on G Street, South Boston, on Wednesday, October 11, resulting in the deaths of four children, and loss by the affected families of their entire worldly possessions. A special fund has been established and we entreat you to help these unfortunate families by sending your contribution to G Street Fire Fund, South Boston Savings Bank, 460 West Broadway, South Boston.

BRA RESTORES QUINCY MARKET AREA

Construction has begun on the exterior restoration of the buildings along North and South Market Streets, adjacent to the Quincy Market building.

The restoration project, part of the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Waterfront Urban Renewal Project, will consist, in its initial stages, of stripping facades from seven buildings and removing ten roofs so that the original roof line of the forty-three buildings can be restored.

BRA Director Robert T. Kenney termed the restoration project the city's first step in preparing for Boston 200, the bicentennial observance planned for Boston in 1975.

"The market area will be the focal point for Boston 200," said Mr. Kenney. "It is certainly appropriate that Boston's Government Center, symbolic of the new spirit in Boston, is adjacent to this area where the first meetings were held to chart American independence.

"We see this project as a perfect example of the city renewing itself as it preserves its rich heritage."

The project is being financed by a $2.2 million grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The BRA has not chosen a developer for the entire project, but has plans for designating a developer once the exteriors are restored. It is anticipated the project will be completed within 1973.

Architects for the project are Stahl Bennett, Inc., and contractor is Falzarano Construction, Reading, Mass. Structural engineers are Le Messurier Associates of Cambridge.

VETERANS DAY

One minute before eleven o'clock in the morning of November 11, 1918, the long battlefront in France shook with the roar of cannon. One minute later, a complete silence. Then the shouts of soldiers and a cry of joy that reechoed throughout the world. The armistice with Germany, signed at 5 A.M. that morning, had gone into effect. So ended the fighting in the First World War, which had cost more lives than any previous war in history. Ever since, the allies have commemorated November 11 as Armistice Day (now known as Veterans Day and celebrated this year on October 23). An armistice differs from a truce in that it extends to the whole or a considerable part of the armies of two or more countries, and precedes or looks toward negotiations for peace. Advances, retreats, or the redistribution of troops in the fighting line are forbidden during an armistice, but supplies and reinforcements may be brought up. It was this kind of armistice that was concluded between the central powers on the one side and Russia on the other, December 15, 1917. The armistices which were concluded between the victorious allies on one side and defeated Bulgaria (September 29), Turkey (October 31), Austria-Hungary (November 3), and Germany (November 11, 1918) were of a different sort. They contained such severe terms that, instead of maintaining the existing military situation (status quo), they were deliberately framed so as to make it impossible for the central powers to resume the war. They amounted, therefore, to surrender on the part of Germany and her allies and forecast the peace terms to be imposed on the defeated states. It is customary in the United States at 11 A.M., on November 11, to stand for one minute in silent tribute to our fallen World War heroes, who have so nobly sacrificed their lives for the cause of peace.

YOUTH WORKERS EXTEND INVITATION

The Metropolitan Youth Workers Association will hold its regularly scheduled monthly meeting on Thursday, October 26, at the South Boston Boys' Club. The meeting is open to anyone who is interested. The featured speaker will be Mr. Fred Davis, executive vice president of the Boys' Clubs of Boston. The topic of discussion will be "Failure of Traditional Youth Work Approaches." Among the agencies attending will be the Mayor's Youth Activities Commission. Mr. David G. Morse, deputy director of the Youth Activities Commission and newly elected president of the Metropolitan Youth Workers Association will preside at the meeting. The meeting is scheduled for 1 P.M. For further information regarding the meeting contact the Youth Activities Commission, 400 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, 261-3200.

JOHN J. LABANARA ANNIVERSARY MASS

A Memorial Mass in memory of John J. Labanara will be celebrated on Saturday, October 28, at Sacred Heart Church, Mt. Auburn Street, Watertown, Mass., at 10 A.M.

John was employed in the Building Department as a senior legal aide, and was also an aide to Mayor White prior to his sudden and untimely death on October 20, 1971. It would be a fine tribute to the memory of this young man to attend this Mass. All are invited to the services.

NOTICE OF HEARINGS

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts Executive Office of Transportation and Construction and the Department of Public Works have given notice of a series of public hearings to afford all concerned citizens the opportunity to officially react to the alternative transportation proposals for Route I-95 developed by the Boston Transportation Planning Review (BTPR). This insures that the thoughts and opinions of the general public will be considered by the Governor as well as by other public officials in the formation of a final decision.

Among the options being considered are: alternative corridor locations for I-95 South (the Southwest Expressway) from its present terminus in Canton to the Central Artery and the Southeast Expressway in Boston; a new surface arterial street plan from Jackson Square or Forest Hills to the Central Artery; an additional harbor crossing; or a "no-build" alternative (allowing full concentration on developing public transportation alternatives to meet the needs of all segments of our urban and suburban populations).

All interested parties are invited to attend the public hearings and to register their views through oral and/or written testimony and exhibits. The time and locations of the hearings are as follows:

Southwest, Monday, October 30, at 2:30-6 P.M. and 7-11 P.M., at Hennigan Community School, multipurpose room, 200 Heath Street, Boston.

Southwest, Tuesday, October 31, at 2-5 P.M. and 7-11 P.M., at Hyde Park Municipal Building, 1179 River Street, Hyde Park.

Third Harbor Crossing, Wednesday, November 1, at 2:30-5 P.M. and 7-11 P.M., at Assumption Church Hall, 404 Summer Street, Jaffrey Point, East Boston.

Third Harbor Crossing, Thursday, November 2, at 2:30-6 P.M. and 7-11 P.M., at Cardinal Cushing Hall, 50 West Broadway, South Boston.

The corridor public hearings are pursuant to Title 23, United States Code, section 28, Federal Highway Administration Policy and Procedure Memorandum 20-8, and section 5, chapter 81, of the General Laws of Massachusetts, Ter. Ed., as amended.

Members shall report to Band Manager Robert Cook on Martin Luther King Boulevard at corner of Laurel Street, Roxbury, at 1345 hours. Band members scheduled to work the day tour of duty on October 1 will be excused from duty.

October 3.

General Order No. 47

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 8 to October 15, 1972, inclusive. Mayor Kevin H. White has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week.

"The success of a fire prevention program is predicated on the activities of an experienced fire department and the cooperative assistance received from members of the community. We are fortunate in Boston that these necessary elements exist, and thus fire safety has steadily progressed. The nature of fire and fire causes is such that negligence can lead to disaster. Hence, everlasting vigilance must be maintained. The Fire Department must provide initiative to the public at all times for their greater safety from fire.

"I have noted the progress made by the Boston Fire Department in the field of research. The efforts expended in this area have been extensive and rewarding.

As Mayor of this city I am pleased to congratulate the Fire Department for their accomplishments in this respect. The results indicate that research such as this is a most important factor in future fire safety. This, added to the continuous fire prevention work and the efficient operations of an excellent fire-fighting force, contributes to make Boston a safer city."

The Boston Fire Department will again emphasize Fire Prevention Week with a series of activities as follows:

Fire stations shall be open to the public between the hours of 1200 and 2000 for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning the Fire Department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer, who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the station and to answer questions regarding the department, or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from all fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years, and it is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday to Saturday. Signs shall be checked daily by the officer in charge of quarters to assure that they are firmly affixed to the building in a proper manner.

District fire chiefs are directed to take an active interest in fire prevention programs by making arrangements with the various plants and industrial enterprises within the district to hold fire drills during the week; by grading these drills as "Good," "Fair," or "Poor," and by making a report of same to the Fire Prevention Division, indicating the name of the enterprise, the date of the drill, and the grade. Same should be forwarded promptly. Each concern should be requested to acknowledge participation in Fire Prevention Week activities via written correspondence. These drills should be conducted by a company officer after arrangements are made. At plants where there are special or company fire brigades particular attention should be given to assignments and/or response procedures. It is requested that the name of the company officer conducting the drill be furnished. It is anticipated that not less than three drills be conducted in each district.

All public and private schools within each district shall be visited by a district chief or duly delegated company officer. School fire drills shall be held during Fire Prevention Week in all schools, both public and private. Permission should be obtained for the presentation of a five-minute talk on the subject of fire prevention. Such address should not be read from a printed manuscript. Every effort should be made to speak effectively and emphatically.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

The School Department in cooperation with the Fire Department is going to distribute "Home Inspection Blanks." Distribution of these blanks shall be by company officers within whose subdistricts the schools are located, and they shall be distributed during Fire Prevention Week. The teachers shall collect the completed blanks from the pupils, and in turn the company officers will collect them from the various schools and return these blanks to the Fire Prevention Division with a summary of schools and total numbers collected on or before November 1. Posters for bulletin boards, two for each school, will be distributed.

An essay contest is being conducted in all parochial and public schools in the city for the sixth grade of grammar schools. Topic is "What I as a Sixth Grader Can Do to Help My Fire Department." The essay is to be 150 words or less. All officers and members are requested to show an interest in this essay contest and to answer questions concerning it to any student who may request information relative to fire prevention in order to complete his essay.

The district fire chief should compile a list of fraternal, social, civic, and professional organizations within the district and advertise to them the willingness of the Fire Department to provide company officers for the purpose of lecturing on fire prevention at any time. District fire chiefs should make a concerted effort to bring the activities of the department before these organizations and arrange for lectures to be given. The name of any organization so participating should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. Specifically, if the organization can be urged to forward on its own stationery a notation of the event, it would be to the greater advantage of the Fire Department.

Fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them in their coming to and going from daily work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulation, and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public expects uniformed members of the Fire Department to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in this subject, since they are public employees engaged in this field. Fire fighters, therefore, during Fire Prevention Week should have this subject uppermost in their minds, and they should not pass by a fire hazard at any time without making a note of it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the Fire Department is a fire prevention inspector.

the Governor's proclamation on fire prevention and fire prevention posters, will post these items in a suitable location at the front of each fire station where they will be visible to the public. They will remain posted until October 16, 1973.

For the purpose of clarification, the following specific assignments are made so that reporting units will have a definite individual to be directed to in the formation of the parade divisions. These lieutenants will also lead their respective divisions.

Division One, Lieutenant Williams.
Division Two, Lieutenant McGilvery.
Division Three, Lieutenant McBrine.
Division Four, Lieutenant Griffin.
Division Five, Lieutenant Sangster.

General Order No. 49

October 6.

I. RETIREMENT

The following retirement, in accordance with the provisions of section 5, chapter 32, G. L. as amended, which will become effective at 0800 hours, October 11, 1972, is hereby announced:

Fire Fighter Joseph M. Santoro, Engine Company 30.

Fire Fighter Santoro was appointed to the department June 2, 1948, and he leaves the department with the best wishes of his associates.

II. FIRE ALARM BOX INSTALLED

The following fire alarm box has been installed, and company commanders shall add it to circuit card No. 8:

12-2391, Resthaven Nursing Home, 120 Fisher Avenue.

III. COMMENDATION

On September 29, 1972, at 1655 hours, Engine Company 56 and Ladder Company 21 received a still alarm, Incident No. 28339, for the report of a drowning at Constitution Beach. Engine 56 and Ladder 21 responded and upon arrival were told that a girl had fallen overboard from an outboard motor boat. The following-named members — Fire Fighter Mirabella, Engine 56; Fire Fighter Keane, Engine 56; Fire Fighter on Probation Murray, Engine 56; Fire Fighter Barnes, Ladder 21; Fire Fighter Favello, Ladder 21 — waded into the water fully clothed looking for the drowned person. They dove into the water looking for the body to no avail. These men were in the water for a period of about twenty minutes, exposing themselves to cold air, cold water, and personal discomfort.

The Fire Commissioner and Chief of Department are pleased to commend the above-named men for their unselfish devotion to duty, exemplifying the true spirit of the Boston Fire Department.

IV. MEMORIAL MASS

The Society of St. Florian is sponsoring a Memorial Mass in behalf of all who have lost their lives in the line of duty this year. It will be on Channel 7 at 0915 hours, Sunday, October 8, 1972. Be sure to watch it!

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

PROPOSALS FOR REMOVING EXISTING SPLICES IN SIGNAL SYSTEM CONTROL CABLES AND FURNISHING AND INSTALLING SPLICES IN TRAFFIC SIGNAL SYSTEM CONTROL CABLES
IN VARIOUS SECTIONS OF THE CITY.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States for removing existing spllices in signal system control cables and furnishing and installing spllices in traffic signal system control cables in various sections of the city.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Removing Existing Spllices in Signal System Control Cables and Furnishing and Installing Spllices in Traffic Signal System Control Cables in Various Sections of the City," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before 12 noon on Friday, November 3, 1972, with a certified check for three percent of the total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR SITE WORK, THREE LOCATIONS.

The City of Boston, acting by its Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for site work, three locations.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, November 9, 1972, at the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done, and accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $2,350. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the bids.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Friday, October 27, 1972, at the above office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition.

BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Demolition and Site Clearance Contract No. 10 for the demolition of buildings and structures and site clearance in Downtown Waterfront-Faneuil Hall, Project No. Mass. R-77, located in the Downtown North District, City of Boston, Massachusetts, until 12 o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time) on November 3, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 919, Boston, Mass., Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

This work will consist of demolition and site clearance of one- to three-story structures (approximately 1,526,560 cubic feet, excluding basement cube) as listed in "Special Conditions, Section 402.3," the disposal of all demolished materials, the removal of all materials, constructing new chain link fencing, and the general cleaning up of the sites, all in accordance with the plans and specifications.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority at Room 920, Boston City Hall, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in an amount not less than ten percent (10%) of each proposal for demolition and site clearance (but need not exceed $50,000).

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the total cost of demolition, as set forth in Section 4.0 of the "Bid for Demolition and Site Clearance" will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding the contract.

Summerthing Sums Up Fifth Successful Season

A mammoth all-day birthday celebration on Boston Common, special programs for senior citizens, and a series of innovative educational traveling workshops were three of the many highlights in the fifth season of Summerthing, according to Katharine D. Kane, director of the festival since it was initiated by Mayor Kevin H. White in 1968.

Over 5,000 people came to the July birthday party — prepared in cooperation with and televised live on WGBH-TV — where they shared a giant birthday cake and enjoyed appearances by Summerthing performing groups and by WGBH's famous cook, Julia Child, and garden expert Thalassa Cruso. Mrs. Kane said that the event was so enthusiastically received that it may become an annual event.

In response to increasing requests, Summerthing for the first time this year offered daylong packages of activities and entertainment to neighborhood senior citizen groups. Nearly all of the city's neighborhoods took the festival up on the offer, with seniors meeting once a week for eight weeks in individual neighborhoods to become involved in a wide range of events such as workshops in candle-making, crocheting, macrame, excursions to museums, folk music, sensitivity training, lecture demonstrations, and even discussions on what to do about tired feet. Many of these programs may continue during the winter.

To its hundreds of permanently based neighborhood workshops Summerthing introduced traveling counterparts — with bilingual staffs — and these included Total Theatre Experience, Curiosity Caravan, Tribal Rhythms, and Ethnic Omni-form Music. Total Theatre, conducted by a group of Emerson College students who received course credits for the program, spent two weeks in each neighborhood, taking residents through all phases of a theater production from script writing to acting, directing, lighting, costumes, makeup, set design, and actual performance. A fifth traveling workshop, the Cardboard Carpenter, got a late start and so will continue during the fall and winter at Boys' Clubs in Charlestown, South Boston, and Roxbury, helping youngsters design and build items while at the same time they absorb the fundamentals of geometrics and symmetries.

Summerthing's fifth season brought over 1,500 performances, including popular and classical music, movies, dances, theater, puppetry, and band concerts, to over 800,000 people, while over 15,000 children, teenagers, and adults enrolled in one or more of Summerthing's 500 neighborhood workshops.

In 1972 the festival showcased the talents of more theater companies than in any previous year. Among the groups were the Boston Repertory Theatre, Stage I Drama Workshop, the Proposition, the Pocket Mime Circus, Afro-American Total Theatre, the University of Rhode Island Circus Wagon Theatre, the Piccolo Puppet Theatre, the Worcester Children's Theatre, Theatre West, and Players Theatre of New England.

Music came to festival-goers in many forms — the Boston Symphony's Esplanade Orchestra, the dance music of Larry Cooper and His Orchestra, the rousing gospel sounds of the Ronald Ingraham Concert Choir, the blues, pop, and rock of over 100 local music groups, and an assortment of music styles provided by the bands of the Boston Musicians Association Local 9-535. The BMA, through the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industries, gave Summerthing a record-breaking contribution of over $12,000 in services this year.

In cooperation with Falstaff Brewing Corporation, Sunset Series on the Common presented at no cost to city taxpayers its second season of twenty benefit popular music concerts on Boston Common. Profits from the series totalled $103,000 and were turned over to Summerthing to enable it to carry out its festival programs.

Summing up Summerthing's fifth season, Mrs. Kane said that through the festival city residents have come to realize how much the arts contribute to the quality of urban life and are now more than ever actively voicing their requests for neighborhood programs on a year-round basis. "If these requests can be matched by active financial support from all segments of the community," concluded the Summerthing director, "Boston may soon become one of the few cities in the United States with continuous city-sponsored cultural and educational programs for its residents."

"T" SOUTH SHORE EXTENSION

The six-mile South Shore Extension of the Red Line from Boston to Quincy — one year old on September 1 — is carrying more than 23,000 weekday revenue passengers, according to Joseph C. Kelly, General Manager of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority.

Reviewing the first year of operations, Mr. Kelly said that on its first day in revenue service — Thursday, September 2, 1971 — the line carried 15,834 revenue passengers. Within a few weeks patronage quickly built up to 20,000 — the figure projected for the line after twelve months of operation. On its first birthday on September 1, a Friday, it carried 21,345 revenue passengers.

For the month of September, he said, the line averaged 23,000 weekday revenue passengers, a jump that apparently coincided with the end of summer vacations.

The biggest travel day has been Wednesdays. For the past several weeks figures show that nearly 24,000 revenue passengers were carried on each Wednesday. As of October 4 the 24,000 figure was exceeded on two Wednesdays — 24,464 on September 27 and 24,428 on October 4.

"The continuing and increasing popularity of the South Shore Extension," Mr. Kelly said, "makes it imperative that the MBTA's plans to continue the line southerly to Braintree and beyond are carried out. Only then will the rail transportation needs of the fast-growing South Shore communities be met."

STEEL SCULPTURE EXHIBIT

An exhibit of five large Cor-ten steel sculptures by Worcester artist Robert Cronin opened on the Copley Square Plaza on Saturday, October 28, with a plaque presentation to the sculptor. The exhibit will remain on the Plaza through April 28, according to Barbara Morris, outdoor visual arts coordinator for the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs.

The sculpture project is among ten winning designs in Summerthing's Other Walls-Other Spaces 1972 competition which attracted forty-three entries from Boston, New England, and New York.

Each of the sculptures weighs approximately 1,000 pounds and is bolted and welded to form bold curvilinear planes. Mrs. Morris noted that the pieces are being exhibited in an outdoor setting to allow them to age naturally during the winter months.

Mr. Cronin, thirty-six, is currently teaching at the Museum School of the Worcester Art Museum. He received a B.F.A. from the Rhode Island School of Design, an M.F.A. from Cornell University, and graduate fellowships from Cornell and from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. He has also taught at Michigan State University, Bennington College, and Brown University.

In the Boston area, his works have been exhibited at the Parker 470 Gallery, the Institute of Contemporary Art, Simmons College, and Obelisk Gallery.

ANOTHER HARVARD "FIRST"

The Harvard Medical School has named its first woman to an associate deanship.

Robert H. Ebert, M.D., Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, announces the appointment of Mary C. Howell, M.D., Ph.D., of Newtonville, as Associate Dean for Student Affairs.

The forty-year-old physician is an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at Harvard and serves as Chief of the Behavior Unit in the Children's Service of the Massachusetts General Hospital. She is responsible for a program seeking to integrate the psychosocial with the biophysical aspects of child care into a workable and effective biosocial complex. The clinical service of this unit provides evaluation and therapeutic recommendations for families in trouble.

Dr. Howell is also a member of the faculty in the Harvard Graduate School of Education for the Program in Clinical Psychology and Public Practice, where she is involved in teaching and research in the area of families, child-rearing, and the patterns of work and marriage of adults.

Dean of Students Frederick C. Lane, M.D., said that as Associate Dean Dr. Howell will be involved in career planning with students. "She will work with others in the medical area to strengthen the role of women in medical education, health maintenance, and the delivery of health care."

In 1968 she moved to the Boston area to become supervisor of the Infant Day Care Training Center, Division of Family Health Services, Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

Dr. Howell has also been involved in the development of several "free clinics" providing health care for disadvantaged groups.

OPEN HOUSE IN NEW SCHOOL

Mayor Kevin White and School Superintendent William Leary hosted a daylong open house on Thursday, October 19, at the new Hennigan Community School in Jamaica Plain. Members of the Boston School Committee and Boston City Council also attended.

Two surprise professional athletes from one of Boston's teams were also on hand to exhibit their talents and talk to fans.

Entertainment, refreshments, a swimming show, and a chance to see the new school were part of the day's festive activities.

Evening celebrations began at 7 P.M. and included appearances by the two surprise athletes, a swimming show in the new pool, greetings from Mayor White and Mr. Leary, and an open house throughout the school. Principal Joseph J. Prendergast, teachers, and members of the Public Facilities Department were on hand to answer questions.

"The Hennigan is one of seven new schools that we have opened this year," Mayor White said. "These schools are designed to offer the best educational opportunities to our children. And they will also be of great use to community residents."

"The Hennigan Community School will provide a center for community learning, civic participation, and athletic recreation. We look to the community to work with us in maximizing the potential of this wonderful building."

In the afternoon, beginning at 1:15 P.M., the Parks and Recreation Fun Wagon visited the school to entertain youngsters and a clown distributed refreshments. Mayor White visited students in their classrooms and talked to local elderly clubs at the Hennigan.

Special features of the new Hennigan Community School include:

A modern gymnasium, a swimming pool, a fully equipped library, a multipurpose room with separate entrances, two combined cafeteria-auditoriums (cafeteriums), music practice rooms, and an aquarium.

The school is divided into three houses for age groups 4-6, 7-8, and 9-10 year olds. Common teaching areas eliminate corridors and utilize available space. Each house is on a different level of land, and has a central, sunlit area. The two upper houses have access to terrace space on the roof. There are science labs, reading rooms, and special classrooms in each house.

The library and materials center are centrally located. The school is air-conditioned, carpeted, and has a closed-circuit television facility.

Special landscaping, sculptures, and ceramics help de-institutionalize the school.

REGISTRY ANNOUNCEMENT

"Four specially built, fully equipped vans have been purchased for Registry of Motor Vehicles use in accident investigations and rescue activities in the Commonwealth," Registrar of Motor Vehicles David J. Lucey announced on October 17.

The acquisition of these vehicles was made possible through a federal grant to the Commonwealth to fill a need in expanding a highway safety program. Francis X. Colleton, Director of the Highway Safety Bureau, said that this is the beginning of a state-wide mobile accident investigations fleet of such vans which he believes will further serve to reduce traffic crashes and fatalities on our highways.

The white vans with blue lettering are easily seen and display rotating and flashing blue lights. They are fully stocked with mechanical, first aid, engineering, communications, photographic, and physical equipment which will make it possible for Registry officers to rescue persons trapped in an automobile, test vehicles for equipment failure, analyze the scene of the crash for engineering or operator failure, and identify drivers in hit-and-run accidents. They are the first vehicles in the Commonwealth with this type of equipment. In addition, the visibility of these vans will serve as a deterrent to accidents and violations.

Supervisor of Special Services, Jack O'Donnell of Milton, is in charge of the Accident Investigations Unit which consists of fifteen Registry inspectors trained in first aid, accident investigation, and rescue procedures. The vans are on duty twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. They will patrol an area of 6,400 road miles within the 128 circumferential highway which includes sixty-two cities and towns where approximately 42 percent of the state's fatal and possible fatal accidents occur.

Registrar Lucey said that this new program ties in with requirements in the Federal Standard for Accident Investigation and Reporting. "The data gathered are to be used in planning, evaluating, and furthering highway safety program goals," the safety administration says.

FIRE DEPARTMENT LAUDED

The following letter was sent to Fire Commissioner James H. Kelly on October 16:

MR. JAMES H. KELLY,
Fire Commissioner.

MY DEAR COMMISSIONER:

The assistance the Boston Fire Department rendered in conjunction with the Boston Post Office Fire Prevention Program is greatly appreciated.

Please extend my personal thanks to all the members of your department for the outstanding cooperation we received throughout the past year. Fire Marshal Joseph Dolan and the staff of the Fire Prevention Division have given us the benefit of their extensive experience and knowledge, and rendered excellent service to us during Fire Prevention Week this year, as in years past.

It is gratifying to know that the fire safety of the City of Boston is under the supervision of such capable men.

With kindest personal regards,

Very truly yours,
GEORGE K. WALKER,
Postmaster, Boston.

MBTA SEEKS $19.5 MILLION LOAN

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority on October 18 voted to authorize the General Manager to file a $19.5 million Revised Advance Land Acquisition Loan application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, Department of Transportation, to purchase 145 miles of Penn Central Transportation Company railroad rights-of-way for immediate and future use for urban mass transportation purposes. This application revision names the Authority as the applicant in place of the Commonwealth.

The authorization by the Authority to file a $19.5 million loan application came as a result of certain questions being raised by officials in the Urban Mass Transportation Administration in Washington concerning the ability of the Commonwealth as the direct applicant for the loan to make arrangements for repayment of the above loan.

Accordingly, it was determined that the Authority, which has the power under the law to apply for and receive loans as well as grants from the federal government, be the applicant.

At this time no funds are required in support of the Advance Land Acquisition Loan.

The properties included in the $19.5 million purchase price of the Penn Central Transportation Company railroad rights-of-way are: the former Boston and Providence main line and its Dedham and Stoughton branch lines — about 47 miles; the Needham branch line from Forest Hills through Needham Junction to Cook Street, and the Dover and Cluquot secondary tracks from Needham Junction to Millis — about 20.7 miles; the Franklin branch from Readville to Franklin — about 18 miles; the Stoughton branch from Stoughton to Easton and that portion of the abandoned line from Easton to Whittenton Junction that has not been sold — about 13.3 miles; the station and land at Route 128 Station; the Plymouth secondary track from South Braintree to Plymouth — about 26.1 miles; the Middleboro branch line from South Braintree to Campello — about 10.2 miles; the so-called former Boston & Albany main line between Riverside in Newton and Framingham — about 10.4 miles; and certain parcels of land within or immediately adjacent to the former Boston and Providence main line.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

October 13.

General Order No. 50

I. TRANSFERS

The following transfers will become effective at 0800, Wednesday, October 18, 1972:

Fire Capt. Stanley W. Card, from Engine Company 36 to Headquarters.

Fire Capt. William A. McLaughlin, from Headquarters to Engine Company 36.

Fire Fighter Thomas F. Morrissey, Jr., from Engine Company 41 to Engine Company 33.

II. FIRE ALARM BOX INSTALLED

The following fire alarm box has been installed, and company commanders shall add it to circuit card No. 52:

2538, Asticou Road, near South Street.

III. CHANGE IN DESIGNATION OF FIRE ALARM BOXES

Company commanders shall make the following changes in designation of fire alarm boxes on assignment cards:

12-297, Dr. William H. Ohrenberger School, 175 West Boundary Road.

12-3121, John P. Holland School, 85 Olney Street.

12-7433, Dr. Joseph P. Tynan School, 650 East Fourth Street.

IV. CALL'S DATA

Company commanders shall add the following information to Call's Signal 557: 557, New England Medical Center, 20 Herald Street; add (1) automatic fire alarm device connected to subscriber-owned Halon system protecting the computer room in the basement.

V. WORK UNIFORMS

In an effort to improve the professional image of the Boston fire fighters and impress the general public of the professionalism of the fire service, effective on January 3, 1973, the practice of wearing dungarees and chambray shirts will be discontinued.

The new work uniform for fire fighters will be a dark blue or navy blue permanent press, cuffless trousers with matching wash and wear shirts. To implement this change, there will be a transitional period commencing immediately and ending January 3, 1973. During this period either dungarees and chambray shirts or the new style work uniform may be worn.

Effective January 3, 1973, the wearing of dungarees and chambray shirts will not be permitted, except when unusually dirty work is being performed in quarters, and the new style work uniform shall be donned as soon as the work is completed. In keeping with this change, the following changes in Department Rules and Regulations will be made:

Rule 11.6: In the sixth line, strike out the words "sack coat, uniform hat, dungarees, blue chambray shirt, black tie, and black shoes" and replace with "navy blue work trousers without cuffs, black belt, navy blue work shirt and black shoes."

Rule 34.3 shall be changed to read: "On house patrol between 0800 and 2100 hours, members shall appear neat and clean dressed in the work uniform as specified in Rule 46.11, and the uniform cap."

Rule 34.4 shall be rescinded.

Rule 46.11 shall be replaced with the following:

"Rule 46.11 (a) Except when time does not permit making a change, regulation dress uniform shall not be worn for fire duty or to perform house work or other work for which it is not suitable. Members on duty shall have the regulation dress uniform readily accessible at all times.

"(b) Work uniform for officers shall be navy blue work trousers without cuffs, black belt, white shirt, and black shoes.

"(c) Work uniform for fire fighters shall be navy blue work trousers without cuffs, black belt, navy blue work shirt, and black shoes."

VI. FIRE COATS

Considerable time, effort, and expense have been expended by this department to develop a fire coat that is reasonably comfortable, provides a good degree of protection from weather extremes, and has an acceptable degree of fire resistance.

These efforts were directed toward providing increased safety to the fire fighter while operating at fires. The safety advantages of these coats have been proven in field service in a number of cases where serious injury would in all probability have resulted if an inferior coat had been worn. Far more serious injury would have occurred if no fire coat had been worn.

In order to take advantage of the safety features afforded, this coat must be worn at fires and considered as a piece of safety equipment in the same manner as are fire helmets, eye shields, and gas masks.

Appearance or comfort are not an issue; the prime issue is the safety of fire-fighting personnel.

In order to provide the optimum protection to fire fighters at fires, effective at 0800, October 14, 1972, Special Order No. 43, 1969 series, is hereby rescinded, and Rule 28.37 of the Rules and Regulations of the Boston Fire Department is changed to read:

"Rule 28.37. Suitable and sufficient clothing to safeguard members against burns from direct flame, sparks, burning embers, heat, steam, and scalding water and against cold and inclement weather shall be worn while responding to and working at fires. Compliance with this rule shall include the wearing of department issue fire hats and fire coats. The only exceptions to this rule shall be that members may remove fire coats: (a) where upon arrival at a small fire it would be obvious that the protection of a fire coat would not be necessary such as at a small outside rubbish, grass, or brush fire; (b) when a fire in a building is under control and considerable overhauling or axe and rake work is to be done."

SERVICING OF IBM ELECTRIC TYPEWRITERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Authority is requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to International Business Machines Corporation, for the maintenance and servicing of I.B.M. electric typewriters in the various city departments from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive.

This company is the only qualified source of servicing I.B.M. electric typewriters and therefore no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract in the above manner.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $6,000.

Respectfully yours,
KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

COVER MATERIAL

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On June 10, 1971, your Honor approved a contract to the West Roxbury Crushed Stone Company for furnishing 190,000 tons of cover material to the Public Works Department for delivery until March 31, 1972. This contract included the provision for furnishing an additional amount not to exceed 25 percent.

Bids for furnishing cover material from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, were publicly opened and read in this office on March 16, 1972, but no acceptable bids were received. Bids on this material will be opened again on May 12, 1972.

The present contractor has agreed to furnish up to 25 percent of the original contract amount. It is estimated that only 12 percent will be required. It is therefore requested that, inasmuch as time is of the essence and the material is used as a sanitary land fill at Gardner Street, permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award a contract, without public advertisement, to West Roxbury Crushed Stone Company, the present contractor, for furnishing approximately 22,800 tons of cover material to the Department of Public Works at the same price as the present contract—$1.54 per ton. The contract period will be from April 1, 1972, to May 12, 1972, inclusive.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $35,112, less 2 percent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,
KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

RADIOACTIVE PHARMACEUTICALS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Authority is requested to award contracts, without public advertisement, for furnishing radioactive pharmaceuticals to the Boston City Hospital Division of the Health and Hospitals Department from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, to the companies indicated below and at the amounts not to exceed those specified:

E. R. Squibb & Sons, Inc., $33,000, net, 30 days.

New England Nuclear Corporation, $8,000, net, 30 days.

3 M Company, Medical Products Division, $9,000, net, 30 days.

All prices will be those in effect day of shipment, plus a handling charge of $7.50 per shipment.

Detailed reasons, set forth in the attached copy of request received from the Boston City Hospital, substantiate the reason for requesting the above award. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contracts in the above manner.

Respectfully yours,
KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

AUDITORIUM COMMISSION

SERVICING OF ELEVATORS AND ESCALATORS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your Honor's authority is hereby respectfully requested to dispense with advertising in the City Record in awarding to Delta Elevator Service Corporation, 260 Western Avenue, Allston, a full maintenance contract for servicing the two Otis electric passenger elevators, the two Otis plunger electric passenger elevators, the three Otis plunger electric freight elevators, and the four Otis escalators in the city's John B. Hynes Civic Auditorium at 900 Boylston Street, Boston, during the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, at a cost to the city of $1,360 a month. The city's liability under this contract shall in no event exceed $16,320. The contract is to include emergency repair callback service at any hour. This contract will be at the same cost to the city and upon the same terms and conditions as the 1971-1972 contract.

Because of the professional nature of the work and service involved, it does not appear that any useful purpose would be achieved by advertising for bids for this contract which will be made pursuant to an option in the 1971-1972 contract.

Respectfully,
AUDITORIUM COMMISSION,
By ROBERT C. NORDBLOM,
Chairman.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT BUILDINGS RAZED

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

Emergency telephone bid for the demolition of 1, 2, and 3 Rutland Place and 4 and 6 Rutland Street, Ward 9, as ordered by Deputy Building Commissioner Leo F. Martin on March 30, 1972; to be supported by written confirmations.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 479, Acts of 1938, as amended, particularly section 116 (d) thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Maher and Fall.—$2,900.

John J. Duane.—$3,699.

Mystic.—$9,500.

Maher & Fall Wrecking Company, 233 Freeport Street, Dorchester, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in lower administrative cost to the city than would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price $2,000 or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding without advertising as required in the city charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,900 to the Maher & Fall Wrecking Company, 233 Freeport Street, Dorchester, Mass.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD R. THUMA, JR.,
Building Commissioner.

Emergency telephone bid for the demolition of 812, 816, and 818 Dorchester Avenue, Ward 7, as ordered by Leo F. Martin, deputy building commissioner; to be supported by written confirmations.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 479, Acts of 1938, as amended, particularly section 116 (d) thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Berardi.—$4,680.

Maher & Fall.—$4,800.

Mystic.—$5,450.

John A. Berardi Wrecking Company, 117 Franklin Street, Allston, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in lower administrative cost to the city than would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price $2,000 or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding without advertising as required in the city charter of a contract in the sum of $4,680 to the John A. Berardi Wrecking Company, 117 Franklin Street, Allston, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD R. THUMA, JR.,
Building Commissioner.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT RENTAL OF RADIOISOTOPE SCANNER

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on February 16, 1972, it was voted to enter into a contract, without advertising, with Lepeska Leasing Company, 301 East Main Street, Barrington, Illinois, for the leasing of an Ohio nuclear model 84FD dual 5-inch crystal radioisotope scanner for use in the Radiology Department at Boston City Hospital for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $9,402.

Since the radioisotope scanner is specially suited to the needs of the Radiology Department in the radioisotope diagnostic area, and inasmuch as the cost of such rental from Lepeska Leasing Company is reasonable, it is felt that no benefit will accrue to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to the Lepeska Leasing Company under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

RENTAL OF DATA PROCESSING EQUIPMENT

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with Mohawk Data Sciences Corporation of Waltham, Mass., for the rental of previously installed key-tape data processing equipment for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $15,000.

Other companies offer equipment almost equivalent to Mohawk, but there is a sufficient difference in the keyboards and control switches of the others to necessitate a re-training requirement which would result in a significant decrease in production.

Accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to renew this contract, without advertising, under the terms set forth above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on March 22, 1972, it was voted and approved to renew this department's contract with Honeywell, Inc., of Wellesley Hills, Mass., for the rental and updating of previously installed data processing equipment for the use of the Management Information Division of this department located at 249 River Street, Mattapan. The cost to the city for this renewal shall be a sum not to exceed $122,000 under a five-year plan initiated in 1968. This renewal shall commence on April 1, 1972, and end on March 31, 1973. There is included in this year's contract cost, an increase of approximately four thousand dollars over last year's figure due to expense of updating equipment.

By renewing this contract under our five-year lease plan, we continue to generate a substantial saving for the city.

We, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew this contract with Honeywell, Inc., without advertising, under the five-year lease plan for the period and the amount stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

MEDICAL SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract, without advertising, with the South End Pediatric Health Center, Inc., under which the said corporation shall provide medical services primarily for the residents of the South End Community through the operation of a private nonprofit medical care clinic.

Inasmuch as the operation of this clinic is the provision of a service of a specialized personal nature and of reasonable cost, it would be of no value to the city to invite competitive bidding on this contract.

We, therefore, respectfully request your Honor's approval to dispense with public advertising and to renew this contract for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $53,500.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

RENTAL OF DUPLICATING MACHINE

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract, without advertising, with Xerox Corporation of Boston, Mass., for the rental of one (1) previously installed duplicating machine for use at the Mattapan Chronic Disease Hospital for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $4,000.

Because of the technical nature and design of these machines which fill the particular needs of the Mattapan Chronic Disease Hospital, and inasmuch as the amount is reasonable, we feel that publicly inviting bids therefor would not serve a useful purpose.

May we therefore respectfully request your Honor's permission to enter into a contract with the Xerox Corporation under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

COUNSELOR

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew, without advertising, its contract with the Association of Boston Urban Priests, Inc., Boston, Mass., to provide partial salary for one full-time counselor for the Intoxication Unit located at the Pine Street Inn, 8 Pine Street, Boston, Mass., for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

Inasmuch as the amount is reasonable, your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to award this contract, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

BUS SERVICE

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 22, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority for furnishing bus service between Boston City Hospital and Mattapan Chronic Disease Hospital for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $9,686.

The MBTA holds the franchise over this route. However, bids were invited by publicly advertising in the City Record on March 6, 1972. Inasmuch as no bids were submitted and the MBTA has agreed to continue to provide this service at a reasonable cost, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 22, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority for furnishing bus service between Fields Corner and the Long Island Chronic Disease Hospital for the period commencing April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $57,000.

The MBTA holds the franchise over this route. However, bids were invited by publicly advertising in the City Record on March 6, 1972. Inasmuch as no bids were submitted and the MBTA has agreed to continue to provide this service at a reasonable cost, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT REFUSE COLLECTION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Contracts for refuse collection in the various Public Works districts of the city expire March 31, 1972. These contracts include option provisions under which the city may elect to continue the present collection contracts for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

The service provided by the present contractors has been very satisfactory, and there would be no advantage to be gained in not exercising our option for renewal and by inviting bids for doing this work.

Therefore I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with further public advertising and enter into a contract for collecting and removing garbage and refuse for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, with the following listed contractors at the same weekly prices as bid in 1971, plus the city paying 75 percent of a 64 cent per hour wage increase for each hour worked by each truck driver and helper employed by the contractor under these contracts; the total amount to be paid under each contract not to exceed the amount listed below:

District 1A, Charlestown, Banco Corporation, $131,600.

District 1B, Boston Proper, James A. Freaney, Inc., $809,800.

District 2, Jamaica Plain, Joseph Amara & Sons, Inc., $540,600.

District 3, Dorchester (North), Jeffries Disposal Corporation, $809,700.

District 4, Brighton, J. F. Ryan, Inc., $618,600.

District 5, South Boston, Banco Corporation, $237,900.

District 6, West Roxbury, M & C Corporation, $660,500.

District 7, Dorchester (South), United Contracting Company, Inc., of Boston, $878,200.

District 8, Hyde Park, Howard Disposal Corporation, $511,800.

District 9, East Boston, Banco Corporation, $345,600.

District 10, Roxbury, Dooley Brothers, Inc., $836,200.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE COMMISSION REPAIR WORK TO WINDOW WALLS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request, on behalf of the Commission for the Care, Custody, and Control of the Suffolk County Court House, your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award to, and execute with, J. P. Smith Company, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, a contract, at a cost not to exceed $146,000, for the performance of certain repair work to the window walls of the Suffolk County Court House.

In 1963 Caputo Construction Company, Inc., was awarded a contract after public bid for repairs and replacements to the Suffolk County Court House. During performance of that contract work, a dispute as to the proper performance of that work arose among the county, the designer, the contractor, the subcontractors, and suppliers. This dispute resulted in extensive litigation. After many days of trial, it was agreed among the parties to undertake certain trial repairs to the Court House windows in accordance with the specifications especially prepared for such purpose by Simpson, Gumpertz and Heger, Inc., with J. P. Smith Company, Inc., one of the parties to the suit, performing the work.

I am pleased to report that the trial repair program has been successful in alleviating the water leakage problems at the building.

The Corporation Counsel has informed this commission that agreement has been reached among the litigants to compromise and settle the litigation on a basis that would provide for J. P. Smith Company, Inc., under contract with this commission to perform additional repair work to the window walls, in accordance with the Simpson, Gumpertz and Heger specifications, with the cost of the work to be paid for out of funds already appropriated and encumbered but not paid to Caputo Construction Company, Inc., under the 1963 contract, with the balance of $30,875.62 necessary to pay Smith for this work to be paid out of an escrow account to be established by some of the parties to the litigation.

In view of the nature of this compromise of the litigation being on the basis of a work settlement by the parties to the suit, it is the view of this commission that publicly inviting proposals for the repair work now proposed to be done by J. P. Smith Company, Inc., is not in the best interests of the county or of the city and would, therefore, serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

JOHN E. POWERS, Chairman.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT UNIFORMS RENTAL

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 31, 1972, our agreement with Eastern Uniform Rental Company for furnishing work uniforms rental service for Parks and Recreation Department employees will expire. Although we publicly advertised for bids to be submitted on March 1, 1972, at 2 P.M., no bids were received.

Through an oversight and change of management, Eastern Uniform Rental Company failed to submit a bid. However, they have informed us that they will continue to provide rental service under the same terms as in the previous agreement.

The cost of the contract to the city will not exceed $9,633. This money has been provided for in the 1972 budget of the Parks and Recreation Department including the separate budgets of the Park Division and the Cemetery Division. The charge will be made as follows: Park Department budget, 1-11-41 (49-3), approximate sum of $5,577, and Cemetery Division budget, 3-33-21 (49-2), approximate sum of $4,056.

Accordingly, your approval is requested to award a contract without further advertising to Eastern Uniform Rental Company, 110 Glenn Street, Lawrence Mass., for a one-year period beginning April 1, 1972, and terminating on March 31, 1973. Further public advertising will not serve any useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

CAR REPAIRS

DEAR SIR:

You are respectfully notified that advertised proposals for "Miscellaneous Electrical and Carburetor Repairs and Replacements to Passenger Cars and Trucks" were publicly opened and read at this office on Tuesday, March 28, 1972, as follows:

A & J Auto Ignition Company, $2,390.

Cote Motor Company, Inc., $3,807.50.

The low bidder, A & J Auto Ignition Company, indicated the discount from the list price under Items 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the proposal but failed to fill in the amount in dollars and cents on the righthand column of the proposal and also to fill in the grand total amount of their proposal.

Insofar as the amounts can be calculated with the information filed by the low bidder on its proposal and a grand total can be determined, I propose to reject all bids and to award the contract to A & J Auto Ignition Company, 55 Brighton Avenue, Boston, for the sum of $2,390, to be charged to 1-11-41 (27).

Accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to award the contract to A & J Auto Ignition Company, for the sum of $2,390 without further public advertising.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING MALPRACTICE INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The City of Boston, acting by the Board of Health and Hospitals, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites proposals for furnishing malpractice insurance for nurses with liability limits of $100,000/$300,000 per nurse, approximately 1,000 nurses, for the period commencing November 15, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973. Forms may be obtained at the office of the Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs, Administration Building, fifth floor, Boston City Hospital, 818 Harrison Avenue, Boston, Mass.

The bidder must leave, at the above office, his proposal with a certified check in the amount of $500, payable to and to become the property of the City of Boston if the proposal, after acceptance, is not carried out. A fully executed duplicate bid, without check, must be left at the office of the City Auditor prior to the time named for opening bids. The proposal must be completely filled in, signed, and enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked "Proposal for Furnishing Malpractice Insurance Coverage for Employees of the Boston City Hospital." Bids are invited for the total position stated or any portion thereof.

The bids will be publicly opened and read on Friday, November 10, 1972, at twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time) at the office of the Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs at the address shown above.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, or any part of a bid, and to award the contract as it deems in the best interests of the City of Boston.

CITY OF BOSTON,
BOARD OF HEALTH AND HOSPITALS,

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR ROOF REPAIRS, TRAFFIC AND PARKING HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHAMPTON STREET, BOSTON.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for roof repairs, Traffic and Parking Headquarters, Southampton Street, Boston.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon Friday, November 10, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $370. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Friday, November 3, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Roofing and Flashing$330

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Monday, October 30, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

The City of Boston, acting by its Police Commissioner, invites sealed proposals for furnishing and installing reflective sheeting on department vehicles.

Proposals will be received until twelve o'clock noon on November 13, 1972, at the office of the Police Commissioner, 154 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

Proposals shall be submitted in duplicate on forms obtained at the office of the Police Commissioner, 154 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass. Each copy of the proposal shall be properly filled out, signed, and enclosed in a sealed envelope, plainly marked with the name of the bidder and the description of the work bid upon. One copy shall be filed at the office of the Commissioner, designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a certified check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $1,000, to become and to be the property of the City of Boston as liquidated damages, if, after an award is made to him, the bidder shall fail to enter into the contract therefor within ten days after notice of said award has been mailed to him. Bid bonds will not be accepted. Said proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read and the other copy shall be filed at the office of the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass. Both copies shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the proposal.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual date of the opening thereof. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Police Commissioner on and after 9 A.M., Monday, October 30, 1972.

The successful bidder will be required to provide an insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Police Commissioner and in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, as well as certain public liability and property damage insurance, will be required of the successful general contractor.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all bids, or any part or parts of any bid, if it be in the public interest so to do.

BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Demolition and Site Clearance Contract No. 7 for demolition of buildings and structures and site clearance in the Campus High Project No. Mass. R-129, located in the Roxbury-North Dorchester District, City of Boston, Massachusetts, until 12 o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time) on November 10, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 919, Boston, Mass., Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work will consist of demolition and site clearance of four (4) buildings (approximately five hundred eleven thousand four hundred cubic feet, excluding basement cube), the disposal of all demolished materials, the filling of excavation and cellar holes, the general cleaning up of the sites, and the installation of 3,590 feet of protective chain link fence, all in accordance with the plans and specifications.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of each proposal for demolition and site clearance (but need not exceed $50,000).

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the total cost of demolition as set forth in Section 4.0 of the "Bid for Demolition and Site Clearance," will be required of the successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding the contract.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Highway Construction in Bradlee Lane, Bradlee Park, Powers Court, and Washington Street Place in Hyde Park and Boston Proper; Highway Reconstruction in Fendale Avenue in Dorchester.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for highway construction in Bradlee Lane, Bradlee Park, Powers Court, and Washington Street Place in Hyde Park and Boston Proper; highway reconstruction in Fendale Avenue in Dorchester.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, less the amount of $5,000, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Highway Construction in Bradlee Lane, Bradlee Park, Powers Court, and Washington Street Place in Hyde Park and Boston Proper; Highway Reconstruction in Fendale Avenue in Dorchester," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1972, with a certified check for TWO THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS ($2,700), payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 805 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

CITY OF BOSTON

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

PROPOSALS FOR REMOVING EXISTING SPLICES IN SIGNAL SYSTEM CONTROL CABLES AND FURNISHING AND INSTALLING SPLICES IN TRAFFIC SIGNAL SYSTEM CONTROL CABLES IN VARIOUS SECTIONS OF THE CITY.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States for removing existing spllices in signal system control cables and furnishing and installing spllices in traffic signal system control cables in various sections of the city.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Removing Existing Spllices in Signal System Control Cables and Furnishing and Installing Spllices in Traffic Signal System Control Cables in Various Sections of the City," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before 12 noon on Friday, November 3, 1972, with a certified check for three percent of the total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner of Traffic and Parking.

NO. 45

Mayor Urges Stricter Rent Control Program

Mayor Kevin White said, on October 27, that he will file legislation to extend and toughen Boston's rent control program, which is set to expire December 31.

The Mayor said he will propose to the City Council that landlords be required to obtain prior approval from the Rent Board for rent increases, thereby shifting the burden of the control effort from the tenant to the landlord. Under the present rent control program the Rent Board acts only on the complaint of a tenant.

"The basic shortcoming of the present program, which has been in effect nearly three years, is that only about 5 percent of the tenants in this city have taken advantage of it," Mayor White said. "Whether because of a lack of familiarity with the law or a fear of reprisal by the landlord, not enough people have put the Rent Board to work for them.

"We have a workable program — one with proven results," he said. "By requiring landlords to have proposed rent increases approved by the Board rather than waiting for tenants to complain after the rent has been raised, we would have a program as stringent as any in the state.

"The experience of communities presently operating under the state program is not particularly encouraging," the Mayor said. "Cambridge, for example, recently announced a 30 percent across-the-board increase in rents."

Mayor White sponsored the present rent control program, which became law in December, 1969. Boston was the first city in the state to institute rent control.

He said he would seek to strengthen the existing law rather than opt for the state rent control program for several reasons. The state law is inflexible — it must be accepted or rejected without change — and cannot be modified, except by the Legislature, to meet local conditions.

Second, the state law does not impose rent control on federally subsidized (FHA) housing units. Though the 10,000 federally subsidized units in the city presently are covered by Boston's rent control program, they would be exempted if the city were to adopt the state program.

The Mayor's proposed strengthened rent control program would cover, as does the present program, all but two- and three-family owner-occupied units, luxury housing, and new construction.

REGISTRY REMINDER

"Drivers should be aware, now that Daylight Saving Time has ended, that they will have to compensate for early twilight and darkness as they drive home from work in the evening. Likewise, drivers who start out for work during early morning hours will have to become accustomed to the darkness and travel more slowly than usual," Registrar David J. Lucey reminded Massachusetts drivers last week.

To meet this change, Registrar Lucey suggests:

Turn on headlights one-half hour after sunset and use until one-half hour before sunrise and when the visibility is poor, no matter what time it is. (This is law!) Parking lights are for parking only.

Keep your windshield, headlights, and number plates clean. (This is law!)

Check windshield wipers. They must be working properly. (This is law!)

Drive more slowly once the sun sets; slow down if you see shadows; allow safe stopping distances; use seat belts and shoulder harnesses; give signals to start, stop, or change direction; lower speeds on wet roads; and, above all, use common sense in bad weather or on bad roads, remembering that posted speeds are meant for normal weather and road conditions.

PLANTREE—HUB'S PLAN TO BEAUTIFY

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department officially launched its Plantree Program when Mayor Kevin White planted the first Plantree tree in Dorchester, under the guidance of Bill McDermott, Little City Hall Manager, on Tuesday, October 24.

One person can't do it alone, but the department is calling on all friends of the environment to participate in PLANTREE, a long-term program of urban reforestation to improve the appearance and environmental quality of the city.

Everyone can help by contributing trees. Trees provide oxygen, humidify and circulate the air, and generally make the city more fit for human habitation. This massive replanting program is under way to fill the bare spots on the streets, in the parks, and on private property.

A gift of $125 will plant a tree in a park or street in Boston, while a contribution of ten or more trees will allow the donor to choose the site with the help of the Parks and Recreation tree expert. Smaller $25 memorial tree contributions are welcome, too, to help buy a tree for the city.

There are many practical uses for trees—from highways to housing, from plazas to playgrounds. Within the urban scene there is a sharp contrast between streets with trees and streets without trees. A street with trees is aesthetically more pleasant, it is cooler, and it has a lower dust content in its air. Trees reoxygenate air that we breathe as well.

Every urban area has open lots resulting from abandoned buildings, fire, or other reasons, spaces in and about public and private parking lots, bits and scraps and stretches of seemingly purposeless urban real estate unsuitable for major buildings, construction or beautification. These are the natural gathering places for new trees and green shrubs.

Urban forestry is a practical method for rehabilitating large open areas by planting acres of tree seedlings—young trees less than a foot high.

The Parks and Recreation Department will cooperate with every organization and every individual who wants to plant a tree. For more information on how you can help, write to "Plantree," Boston Parks and Recreation Department, City Hall, Boston.

MBTA ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) approved on October 25 the execution of an agreement with the San Francisco Municipal Railway Improvement Corporation (SFMRIC) to jointly solicit competitive bids for the purchase of 230 light rail vehicles (streetcars) from manufacturers in the United States and Canada.

The MBTA, recipient of a demonstration grant from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation in the amount of $109,084 for the preparation of a light rail vehicle specification and contract documents, has been working with San Francisco since December of 1971. San Francisco has executed the agreement, and with the approval of the MBTA the companies sent out bids to approximately a dozen manufacturers.

John J. Reilly

A funeral mass was celebrated on October 4 in St. Theresa's Chapel, West Roxbury, for John J. Reilly, sixty-eight, husband of Alice M. (Byrne); father of Mrs. Adeline Mathews of West Roxbury; brother of Mrs. Mary Kraus of Harvard, Mrs. Rose Bruno of Needham, Francis M. Reilly of Jamaica Plain, and the late Mrs. Adeline Driscoll and Joseph E. Reilly.

Born in Boston, he formerly lived in Jamaica Plain before coming to West Roxbury.

He had been employed as a painter for the City of Boston, working at the Franklin Park Yards.

Burial was in Holyhood Cemetery, Chestnut Hill.

WILLIAM J. BOND

William J. Bond, seventy-four, of West Roxbury, a teacher and three-sport coach for more than twenty years at Jamaica Plain High School, died on October 25.

Born in Roxbury, Mr. Bond was a graduate of the old High School of Commerce. He was the 1920 captain of the baseball team at Boston College, graduating the same year.

An Army veteran of World War I, Mr. Bond received his bachelor of law degree from Northeastern University in 1926.

He was a member of the Boston College Alumni Association, the Boston Teachers and Boston Coaches Associations and Holy Name Parish in West Roxbury.

Mr. Bond leaves his wife, Marie A. (Forde); a son, William C. Bond of Chappaqua, N. Y.; two daughters, Mrs. Doris M. Lorenz of Stoughton and Mrs. Marie K. Damon of Hyde Park; a brother, Joseph E. Bond of West Roxbury; two sisters, Mrs. Mary A. Eames of Pembroke and Mrs. Evelyn G. Chalmers of Milton; and eleven grandchildren.

A funeral mass was celebrated, Saturday, October 28, at Holy Name Church in West Roxbury, followed by interment in New Calvary Cemetery, West Roxbury.

GEORGE T. NEDDER NAMED HEART FUND
GENERAL CHAIRMAN;
MAYOR WHITE NAMED HONORARY CHAIRMAN

George T. Nedder of Hyde Park was named general chairman for the 1973 Heart Fund drive last week by Greater Boston Heart Association President Dr. Arthur A. Sasahara. In making the appointment Dr. Sasahara also announced that Boston Mayor Kevin H. White will serve as honorary chairman of the February drive.

Mr. Nedder, Director of the One-Stop Business Service for the City of Boston, has been an active Heart volunteer, serving as regional chairman for twenty-one communities in the 1971 campaign. He is also a member of the Greater Boston Heart Association's Board of Directors.

Mayor White is a long-time Heart Fund supporter and will be assisting the 1973 drive throughout the coming months. In accepting the position of honorary chairman Mayor White said, "The heart and blood vessel diseases are responsible for over half of the deaths in Boston and throughout the country. I hope that every individual will actively support the fight against our nation's number one killer with a generous contribution to the 1973 Heart Fund."

The campaign is now in the planning stages, and General Chairman Nedder will be working with Heart Fund leaders throughout Greater Boston in organizing fund-raising events and activities for February.

"The next few months are crucial to the success of this year's total Heart Fund drive. I hope that everyone concerned with the overwhelming problem of heart disease will assist us in our efforts by becoming a Heart volunteer or by giving generously during Heart Month," Mr. Nedder commented.

Active in community affairs, Mr. Nedder has received local, national, and international awards for outstanding service in business and civic endeavors. Among these are two awards from the government of France — the Silver Medal "for his devotion and efforts toward his fellow man," and the Gold Medal for his continued exceptional services rendered to all the collected humanities. He was also awarded a certificate of merit by Mayor White in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the City of Boston.

In his own community of Hyde Park Mr. Nedder serves as chairman of the Hyde Park Police-Community Relations Workshop and is the vice president of the Hyde Park Board of Trade.

He lives at 11 Bunker Street in Hyde Park with his wife and four children.

DIRECTIVE NO. 10
MOTOR VEHICLES REGIS-TRATION

To Department Heads and County Officials.

A very important meeting concerning new procedures for registering motor vehicles is to be held at the Traffic Building, 112 South-ampton Street, on Monday, November 6, 1972, at 10 A.M.

The new title law which went into effect on October 1 requires new procedures that will be standardized throughout our city and county governments and makes it absolutely imperative that all department heads and county officials inform the individual or individuals within their agencies responsible for the registering of motor vehicles to be present at this meeting.

Agencies that do not have motor vehicles under their jurisdiction may disregard this notice.

SPANISH LANGUAGE WEEK

A Spanish Language Week featuring films and demonstrations in Spanish is offered school groups at Boston's Museum of Science from November 6 through 10 — Monday through Thursday, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Friday, 10 A.M. to 10 P.M.

A multimedia exhibit, "The Sights and Sounds of the Americas," highlights the culture of twenty-three Latin American countries in a presentation sponsored by the Organization of American States. The narration, ordinarily given in English, will be changed to Spanish for interested groups.

Short films, also sponsored by the OAS, will be offered with Spanish narration.

Two regular museum demonstrations will be given in Spanish. One is with Spooky, the museum's 21-year-old great horned owl. The other involves the 20-foot-high model of Tyrannosaurus rex, flesh-eating dinosaur, now assembled in the West Wing.

To register, call Visitor Services Department, 742-1410, Extension 350 or 351.

A DREAM FULFILLED

Richard Williams got involved in skiing — back in the early 1950s — the way many of us did. He saw a movie about skiing and became fascinated with the idea of being outdoors in winter. He dreamed of sliding in the snow, down mountains, and between trees, and it seemed to him just about the most exciting thing anyone could do.

There was only one catch. Richard Williams had to do his dreaming in a Harlem tenement. He was so poor that, for all practical purposes, the nearest skiing might as well have been on the moon.

Yes, Richard Williams eventually got to ski — but he went much further than that. When he became special-projects director of the Boston Youth Activities Commission, a city agency dedicated to juvenile delinquency prevention, skiing was very much on his mind, but it took the 1968 Winter Olympics to crystallize his idea of introducing skiing to the city's underprivileged youngsters.

"Everything came together that year," he recalls. "Watching the Games, I asked myself why, if Black athletes can star in the Summer Olympics, can't they have an equally prominent role in the Winter Games. At just about the same time Martin Luther King was assassinated, and because of the reaction to this all kinds of possibilities opened up. I saw the opportunity to make a dream come true; I took it."

Williams enlisted the aid of ski areas, clothing and equipment manufacturers, university outing clubs, city agencies (for transportation), and just about anyone else who hinted he might be willing to help. Yet it was a tough struggle to get the program off the ground. That first year (1969) it took all the energy he and his volunteers could muster to get 500 kids to the slopes of the eight areas which offered free skiing.

"It was tough," he recalls. "There were lots of things we didn't have, and we had to make do." The program is progressing. Last year almost 3,000 youngsters (about 20 percent Black, the rest white, Spanish-speaking, and Oriental) got an opportunity to ski at thirty-two New England areas, and there is always a waiting list. "If we had the money, the equipment, and transportation," Williams says, "we could easily take 6,000 — maybe we will this season."

Although lift tickets, instruction, and transportation are donated, the children don't get the ski trip for nothing. They must come up with $2 for equipment rental — and there are few exceptions, partly because, as Birdie Ellsworth, the assistant director of the program, says, "We want to give them the feeling that nothing is out of their reach if they really try." And the kids certainly try, relying in part on one of the favorite devices of community centers staging spaghetti or ham-and-bean dinners.

For the volunteers who work with the program, it's a deeply moving experience. Paul Cohen, the ski shop manager at Killington, Vermont, who has helped YAC set up its rental operation, says, "You can't imagine what it means to these kids to get away from their deprived neighborhoods even for one day. Some of them have never been outside of Boston. Some have never even been outside the ghetto."

Dick Williams and his Oakland A's won the 1972 baseball world series. We believe that if a skiing world series award was to be given to a special projects director for introducing a bunch of youngsters to the sport of skiing, our own Dick Williams of the Boston Youth Activities Commission would win it.

P.S. The Boston Youth Activities Commission can use money (for transportation, lodging, meals), ski equipment, and clothing, and volunteer helpers. If you have anything to offer, write to Richard Williams, 400 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02118.

MBTA LABOR AGREEMENT

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority authorized on October 25 the execution of a new labor agreement for the period January 1, 1972, through December 31, 1972, with Local Union 717, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO.

The new contract covers wages and working conditions of a 38-man unit responsible for the maintenance and repair of electrical motors.

The new agreement is expected to result in an additional 1972 operating cost of $28,688, which is available in existing contingency funds in the current operating budget.

INTERESTED IN SEA STORIES?

A scientist who investigates the language of fishes will open an evening lecture series Friday, November 10, at Boston's Museum of Science.

Dr. John H. Todd, of the Department of Chemistry, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute, will talk at 7:45 P.M. on "The Mysteries of Animal Communication in the Sea."

With a background of experience from the arctic to the tropics, Dr. Todd is currently engaged in studying the behavioral signals of fishes as well as the effects of pollution on marine animals. He is also interested in marine farming.

The Canadian-born scientist is a graduate of McGill University, Montreal, and received his doctorate at the University of Michigan. He worked for a biological consulting firm in Canada and taught ethology at San Diego State College until going to Woods Hole in 1970. He is president and director of the New Alchemy Institute, an international research organization working to find ecologically sound ways of producing foods and finding alternatives to present-day living styles. He is the author of some twenty-five scholarly and popular articles.

Other lectures in the series are: "Origins of New World Agriculture," January 19, by Dr. Richard MacNeish, director of the Peabody Foundation for Archaeology, Phillips Academy; and "Historical Archaeology at Plimoth Plantation," March 23, by Dr. James Deetz, assistant director of the Plantation.

AUDITING STAFF MEMBERS CONVENE

The following letter was received by Mayor Kevin H. White:

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The undersigned members of the Auditing Department attended the fall meeting of the Massachusetts Municipal Auditors and Accountants Association held at Lenox on October 15, 16, and 17.

The morning session on October 16 was devoted to a discussion of laws relative to fiscal matters of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, passed by the last session of the Legislature. Mr. Gordon McGill, director of the Bureau of Accounts, expressed opinions on the effect of these laws relative to the duties of the auditors and accountants of the cities and towns.

The afternoon session took the form of a panel discussion concerning the recent legislation changing the fiscal year and, in particular, problems relative to the beginning eighteen-month cycle to accomplish this changeover. After the panel discussion a question and answer period was held, which was quite lengthy due to the many problems to be resolved.

The morning session on the seventeenth was again a panel session, set up to answer questions that had been submitted prior to registration. Of prime interest was a discourse on some of the phases of revenue sharing, and there were many other questions discussed relevant to municipal accounting.

This conference was very informative, and we express our sincere appreciation and thanks to you for giving us the opportunity to participate.

Respectfully yours,
EDWIN J. SULLIVAN,
WILLIAM J. KEARNS,
WILLIAM T. LEAHY.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HOSPITALS

DIETITIANS

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew, without advertising, the existing contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., which expires on March 17, 1972, under which said corporation provided Boston City Hospital with professional registered ADA dietitians at a cost not to exceed $25,000.

This department is still engaged in negotiations to have these positions classified under civil service and transferred to the City of Boston Compensation Plan. Until this is accomplished it will be necessary to extend this contract to insure that professional dietary services are provided at Boston City Hospital on an uninterrupted basis in compliance with the recommendation of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

In our judgment a renewal of our contract with the aforesaid corporation to have them continue to provide us with these personnel is the most reasonable and expeditious way of handling this matter.

Accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $92,500.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

HEALTH PROGRAMS

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a charitable nonprofit corporation created by chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965 under which said corporation will undertake certain activities including specifically the operation of comprehensive multidisciplinary health programs through the establishment of health-care clinics in existing city facilities or facilities rented by the City of Boston within the neighborhoods of East Boston (1), Dorchester (2), and South Boston (1). The period for which this contract will be renewed is one year commencing April 1, 1972, and ending on March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $338,000, which, in my judgment, is reasonable.

Under this contract, the Trustees will furnish and supply all equipment, supplies and personnel (licensed physicians and all medical and nonmedical personnel) and do everything necessary for and incidental to the operation of these clinics.

Inasmuch as this contractual undertaking is one of a personal and specialized nature, and since no benefit to the city can be derived from competitive bidding, your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

RENTAL OF DATA PROCESSING MACHINES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with International Business Machines Corporation of Cambridge, Mass., for the rental of previously installed data processing machines for use of the Management Information Services Division of the Department of Health and Hospitals.

This contract will be for a period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $15,000.

Inasmuch as this equipment has proven to be suited to the needs of this department and inasmuch as it is available at a reasonable cost to the city, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to International Business Machines Corporation, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

SERVICES OF SPEECH THERAPIST AND AUDIOLOGIST

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a charitable nonprofit corporation created by chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965, under which said corporation will provide the services of one (1) speech therapist and one (1) audiologist to work respectively thirty (30) and twenty (20) hours per week in the Out-Patient Department, Boston City Hospital.

This contract will be for a period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $20,588.

Since 1969, the services of a speech therapist and audiologist have been provided by a contract with the Tufts New England Medical Center. However, Tufts agreed to provide these services only through September 30, 1971. It is essential that these important services continue to be provided under contract until these positions are classified under civil service system and funded directly from our department budget. In my judgment, the cost incurred by the city under this contract is reasonable.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contractual undertaking is one of a personal and specialized nature, and since no benefit to the city can be derived from competitive bidding, your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

STORAGE OF RECORDS

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with the New England Storage Warehouse Company, Boston, Mass., to move patient's medical records and X rays from the Boston City Hospital and to provide "live" storage for these records.

Since the New England Storage Warehouse Company is the only firm capable of supplying this "live" storage to the extent necessary in this area, it is requested that this contract be awarded without advertising.

This contract will be for a period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $51,300.

In view of the above and inasmuch as the cost is reasonable, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to New England Storage Warehouse Company, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

COMPUTER DATA SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew its contract with Massachusetts Hospital Joint Ventures, Inc., of Burlington, Mass., for computer data services for the Medical Records Division at Boston City Hospital for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $12,000.

An invitation for bids was published in the City Record on March 6, 1972, but none were received. Inasmuch as no bids were submitted and Massachusetts Hospital Joint Ventures, Inc., is willing to continue to provide this service at no extra cost over last year's cost, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

LEASING OF MICROSCOPE

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 15, 1972, it was voted to renew the city's contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., under which said corporation will lease to the City of Boston, one Carl Zeiss electron microscope, model 9S-2, for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $8,940.39.

In January, 1971, the Trustees purchased this equipment from Carl Zeiss Corporation for use at Boston City Hospital since the city was without sufficient budgeted funds to make the purchase itself. Under the terms of this lease and the like agreement executed last year, the city has been leasing this equipment from the Trustees in order to reimburse said corporation at cost.

In view of the aforesaid, in my judgment, a substantial saving will inure to the city by leasing this equipment from this corporation, and accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

BLOOD CELL COUNTER

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 8, 1972, it was voted to renew its contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a nonprofit charitable corporation created by chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965, for the rental of one (1) Coulter Counter automated red and white blood cell counter (Model S) at a cost not to exceed $13,750 for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973.

The cost to the city for leasing this equipment from a leasing company would be prohibitive and sufficient funds are not available at this time for the city to make a direct purchase from Coulter Electronics, Inc.

In view of the aforesaid, the Trustees have purchased this equipment for use at Boston City Hospital and said corporation will, under this contract, make it available to this department on a year to year basis until they are reimbursed for actual cost.

In my judgment, a substantial saving will inure to the city by leasing this equipment from this corporation and accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

CITY HALL, BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 6, 1972.

In pursuance of the authority given by orders of the City Council of Boston and Acts of Massachusetts, the undersigned will receive proposals until twelve o'clock M., Eastern Standard Time, Tuesday, November 14, 1972, for the purchase of all but no part of the following described coupon serial bonds.

COUPON SERIAL BONDS

Bidder to name one rate of interest in multiples of one-tenth (1/10) of one percent; no bid to be less than par and accrued interest.

MUNICIPAL PURPOSE LOAN OF 1972 WITHIN DEBT LIMIT, $6,500,000

Orders of City Council of Boston of April 23, 1969, July 8, 1969, April 15, 1970, December 5, 1970, April 14, 1971, June 23, 1971, and May 25, 1972. Payable $720,000 annually, December 1, 1973, to December 1, 1977, inclusive, $500,000 annually, December 1, 1978, to December 1, 1982, inclusive, and $40,000 annually, December 1, 1983, to December 1, 1992, inclusive.

MUNICIPAL PURPOSE LOAN OF 1972, $32,500,000

Orders of City Council of Boston of January 12, 1966, April 26, 1967, April 17, 1968, January 14, 1969, January 5, 1970, February 25, 1970, April 15, 1970, January 13, 1971, April 14, 1971, May 12, 1971, June 23, 1971, December 20, 1971, and May 25, 1972. Payable $1,635,000 annually, December 1, 1973, to December 1, 1982, inclusive, $1,625,000 annually, December 1, 1983, to December 1, 1987, inclusive, and $1,605,000 annually, December 1, 1988, to December 1, 1992, inclusive.

All loans will be issued in Coupon Bond Certificates of $5,000 each, and will be paid on the dates specified for each loan, all with interest payable semiannually on the first days of June and December in each year, at the office of the Collector-Treasurer, Boston.

In comparing bids, preference will be given to the bidder whose bid provides for the lowest net interest cost to the city. (Total interest for the duration of the loan from December 1, 1972, less the amount of premium bid.)

The bonds will be dated December 1, 1972, and will be ready for delivery on or about December 14, 1972. Delivery of the bonds will be made either in Boston or in New York City at the option of the purchaser. Interest will begin December 1, 1972, and will cease on the dates on which the bonds are payable.

Under existing statutes, these bonds are exempt from local property taxes in Massachusetts, and the interest thereon is exempt from Massachusetts personal income taxes and from federal income taxes.

Proposals must be sealed and addressed to Edmund W. Holmes, Collector-Treasurer, City Hall, Boston, Massachusetts 02201, endorsed "Proposals for Loans." Each proposal must be accompanied either by a cashier's check or by a certified check in the amount of $390,000 drawn on a Boston or New York City National Bank or Trust Company, the check made payable to the City of Boston, Edmund W. Holmes, Collector-Treasurer. The check of any bidder to whom an award is made will be retained as part payment for the loans awarded. All other checks will be returned.

Accrued interest from December 1, 1972, to date of delivery is to be paid by the purchaser.

All proposals will be opened in the office of the Collector-Treasurer, Tuesday, November 14, 1972, at twelve o'clock M., Eastern Standard Time. The Collector-Treasurer reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to accept such bid or bids as may seem to him to be the most advantageous to the city.

EDMUND W. HOLMES,
Collector-Treasurer.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR PHASE I OF SITE WORK, PILE REMOVAL, NORTH END PARK.

The City of Boston, acting by its Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for Phase I of site work, pile removal, North End Park. General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, November 22, 1972, at the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the office of the Public Facilities Department, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done, and accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $750. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the bids.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Thursday, November 9, 1972, at the above office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition.

CITY OF BOSTON,
ROBERT J. VEY,

Director, Public Facilities Department.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Pedestrian Lighting at Stanley A. Ringer Playground, Brighton, Massachusetts.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for pedestrian lighting at Stanley A. Ringer Playground, Brighton, Massachusetts.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, less the amount of $3,000, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Pedestrian Lighting at Stanley A. Ringer Playground, Brighton, Mass.," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1972, with a certified check for TWO THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS ($2,200), payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 805 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Friday, November 10, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Demolition and Site Clearance Contract No. 6 for demolition of the East Wing of the South Station Terminal Building fronting partly on Summer Street and partly on Dorchester Avenue and site clearance in the Central Business District Project No. Mass. R-82 located at the South Station in the City of Boston, Mass., until twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time) on the thirtieth day of November, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 919, Boston, Mass., attention Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work will consist of demolition and site clearance of one (1) structure composed of a five-story building with basement, two-story building with basement, concourse with basement, former mail shed, partial basement, timber canopy on steel trusses, partial basement, and a covered basement (approximately 3,770,000 cubic feet excluding basement cube), the disposal of all demolished materials, relocation of a compressed air facility, relocation of existing utility lines, construction of new utilities, construction of walls, windbracing, track work, paving, waterproofing, fencing, and the general cleaning up of the site all in accordance with the plans and specifications.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Filed subbids will be taken for the following portions of the work:

1. Heating, Ventilating, and Air Conditioning, Section 701.1.
2. Electrical Work, Section 701.2.
3. Concrete, Section 703.1.
4. Masonry Work, Section 703.2.
5. Windbracing (Structural Steel Fabrication), Section 703.3.
6. Metal Panel Wall, Section 703.4.
7. Roofing and Flashing, Section 703.6.
8. Waterproofing, Dampproofing, and Caulking, Section 703.8.

All such filed subbids submitted shall be subject to the provisions of sections 44A to 44L, inclusive, of chapter 149 of the General Laws and shall be in the possession of the Boston Redevelopment Authority not later than twelve o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time) on the twenty-second day of November, 1972, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid is submitted, subbidder's name, and subbidder's address. All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bid security in the form of cash or a certified check on or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or a trust company payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, as follows: (a) by bidder for general contract in the amount equal to ten percent (10%) of Item 1, Form for General Bid (all work other than that covered by Item 2), but not to exceed $50,000; (b) by subbidders in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of subbid, but not to exceed $50,000.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract price, will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding the contract.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING.
11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR INTERIOR
AND EXTERIOR PAINTING AT THE CHOATE
BURNHAM SCHOOL, 486 EAST THIRD STREET,
SOUTH BOSTON, MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for interior and exterior painting at the Choate Burnham School, 486
East Third Street, South Boston, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Monday, November 20, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $700. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time thereafter.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation
Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Monday, November 13, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read.
Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Painting$500

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a sub-trade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the sub-bidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

No. 46

BRA to Revitalize Hub Neighborhoods

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has authorized submission of applications for four Neighborhood Development Projects to the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The NDPs, sometimes referred to as minirenewal projects, are located in Dorchester's Lena Park, in the Gouldville-Dudley section of Model Cities, on the East Boston waterfront, and in the Washington-Corey Road area of Allston-Brighton.

Predominant use proposed for the four projects includes housing for the elderly, low- and moderate-income families, and some middle-income housing.

Excluding site development costs, the total cost of the projects will be approximately $7.1 million, of which $6.6 million will be requested as federal capital grants under HUD's Neighborhood Development Program.

Robert T. Kenney, BRA Director, said, "The proposed NDPs represent a major effort on the part of the BRA to revitalize neighborhoods throughout Boston.

"There has been considerable discussion with community groups in formulating these plans, and support expressed for these projects by these community groups is unprecedented in the history of the BRA."

Mr. Kenney said that final planning and budget preparation was under way, as well as ongoing discussions with community groups. Once the BRA has been notified that the projects could be funded in 1973, he said, the Authority would then proceed with public hearings before the City Council.

He said that he was requesting authorization to file the applications so that necessary negotiations between HUD and the BRA could begin as soon as possible to secure funding.

The following is a short description of each NDP:

1. EAST BOSTON. The East Boston NDP II area is a 5.9 acre parcel located on the waterfront adjacent to the NDP I site for the elderly housing. The site is vacant except for the storage of new automobiles. The proposed plan calls for the acquisition of the entire parcel and the construction of 180 to 210 units of moderate- to high-income housing. A federal grant of $2,087,500 is necessary to make this housing feasible.

2. GOULDVILLE-DUDLEY. This area is located on an 18.0 acre site located within Model Cities Sub-Area 4. There are ninety-nine residential and eighteen nonresidential structures located on the site. Approximately one-sixth of the area is currently vacant. The proposed plan calls for the construction of 125 to 150 new units of housing, construction of the Opportunities Industrialization Center, and the rehabilitation of thirty buildings. Approximately sixty families and five businesses will be relocated. A federal grant of $1,876,000 is needed to carry out this project.

3. LENA PARK. The Lena Park area is located just south of Model Cities in the Franklin Field section of Dorchester. The site currently contains eighteen residential buildings and the Lena Park Community Service Center. Approximately one-half of the site is now vacant. The proposed site plan calls for the construction of 250 to 300 units of new moderate-income family housing and the rehabilitation of twenty-four units of existing housing. Fifteen buildings will be demolished, and twenty-three families relocated in order to implement this plan. A federal grant of $1,660,950 is being requested for this project.

4. WASHINGTON-COREY. The Washington-Corey area is located on a 3.1 acre site near Commonwealth Avenue in Allston. The site currently contains five commercial and residential buildings. The proposed plan calls for the construction of 250 units of housing for the elderly. Nine families and two businesses will be relocated in order to execute this proposal. A federal grant of $935,000 is being requested.

P.O. ANNUAL AUCTION SALE

Postmaster George K. Walker has announced the date of the annual fall public auction sale of unclaimed and damaged merchandise from parcel packages.

The auction will take place on Thursday, November 16, starting at 9:15 A.M. Location of the sale will be at the Claims and Inquiry Section, South Postal Annex, Basement Level, 75 Dorchester Avenue, Boston. Merchandise will be on display for inspection on Wednesday, November 15, from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M., where a catalogue listing the hundreds of items to be sold will be available to the public.

The items range from toys to clothing, jewelry, radios, notions, typewriters, sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, clocks, books, wigs, cameras, tools for the handy man, and hundreds of other items.

The sale will start at 9:15 A.M. and continue until all items are disposed of. There is no guarantee as to the quality or condition, and all items will be sold "as is." No refunds will be made.

Mr. Walker, in commenting on the large amount of merchandise offered for sale, reminds our customers that if they used the same care in wrapping items sent parcel post as they do in selecting the items for special use, post office auctions would be a thing of the past. He also reminds customers to enclose a duplicate address on the inside and to contact your local post office for a free copy of Notice 117, "How to Wrap and Send Parcels."

HUB NURSING HOME FEDERATION CHAPTER ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Joseph Vilimas, Jr., of South Boston, widely known in the field of long-term health care and social service, has been elected President of the Boston Chapter of the Massachusetts Federation of Nursing Homes.

He is owner and administrator of the 104-bed Bayside Nursing Home in South Boston. The Boston Chapter represents more than one hundred nursing homes. The Federation represents a majority of the 690 nursing homes in the Bay State, comprising more than 32,000 beds.

Election to the Boston Chapter presidency makes him a member of the Board of Directors of the state-wide Nursing Home Federation.

Mr. Vilimas was formerly Special Assistant to the President of Boston College, Executive Director of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, and Community Organizer for the late Saul D. Alinsky of Chicago.

A specialist for many years in health, social service, and community projects, he was notably responsible for the development and operation of many projects. These included:

The three-year study of the problems of unemployed older workers in Massachusetts for the United States Department of Labor.

The development of the Bunker Hill Health Center serving the entire community of Charlestown and operated by the Massachusetts General Hospital.

The design and operation of Boston's first experimental community multiservice center sponsored by the Ford Foundation and Permanent Charities of Boston.

The construction of a $8 million, 252-unit, moderate-income, cooperative housing project in Charlestown.

Mr. Vilimas is a graduate of DePaul University, where he received an A.B. degree in economics and philosophy.

SMOKING AND WEIGHT GAIN

Does quitting smoking trigger weight gain? Millions of men and women are finding out their own answers. Millions more are waiting in the wings.

Weight gain is a complicated, individual business. But a national health survey shows that, in general, men gain weight progressively until the age of forty-five. From forty-five to sixty-five there is little change. Then at age sixty-five some weight gain begins again.

For women the picture is different, rounder. They gain weight progressively at each age bracket until the age of seventy-five. Keeping a svelte figure isn't easy.

What happens when both sexes quit smoking? The National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health tried to find out in two national surveys, which were four years apart. In their sample of several thousand people, they found that among men aged twenty-one to thirty-four there was very little difference in weight gain between ex-smokers and smokers. From thirty-five to fifty-four ex-smokers seem to gain more weight than smokers. After that, there is no difference between the two groups.

For women between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-four there is no appreciable weight gain among ex-smokers. From thirty-five to forty-four there is some weight gain among ex-smokers. But from forty-five on there is very little difference between the two groups.

Studies show that people who gain weight after they quit smoking later lose those extra pounds. But weight gain is not inevitable, by any means. In fact, one out of every four ex-smokers lost weight; some of them lost large amounts. Once people decide to master some part of their lives, such as quitting smoking, they often take control of other aspects, such as eating properly and exercising enough.

Christmas Seals help point out the advantages of quitting smoking. They also continue the fight against emphysema, TB, and air pollution. Answer your Christmas Seal letter right away. It's a matter of life and breath.

U. S. POSTAL SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

The United States Postal Service called attention recently to liberalized provisions for mailing parcels to United States servicemen overseas.

Under the new "Military Mail Bill" (H. R. 3808) signed into law the "SAM" (Space Available Mail) parcel addressed to military forces overseas may now weigh as much as fifteen pounds. The previous weight limit was five pounds. The size limit of sixty inches length and girth combined has not been changed.

Mailers of SAM parcels pay only the domestic parcel post postage to United States ports of embarkation for overseas military mail, principally New York, Seattle, and San Francisco.

Other sections of the law require airlift to armed forces post offices overseas of parcels weighing more than fifteen pounds but not exceeding seventy pounds where adequate surface transportation is not available.

Another liberalization of the military mail provisions requires airlifting of parcels not to exceed seventy pounds and up to one hundred inches in length and girth combined from overseas armed forces post offices to other such post offices within the United States, its Pacific territories, and possessions, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Canal Zone. The airlift applies to such parcels until arrival from overseas at United States ports, after which they generally will move by surface to United States destinations.

Another type of parcel used for overseas military personnel, the PAL (Parcel Airlift) parcel, will continue to be available. The PAL parcel may weigh no more than thirty pounds, with a maximum combined length and girth of sixty inches.

Airlift all the way is provided for PAL parcels sent to military post offices overseas from deposit points within the United States. PAL parcels coming back to United States destinations from overseas military post offices are also airlifted all the way. Similar postage applies both ways for PAL parcels.

A PAL parcel mailed in Chicago, for example, to a serviceman in Vietnam is airlifted to the west coast port of embarkation and from there on to Vietnam. The cost is $1, plus the applicable domestic United States surface parcel post postage from Chicago to the west coast.

A PAL parcel mailed by a serviceman in Vietnam to his family in Chicago also costs $1, plus the applicable domestic surface parcel postage from the west coast port of debarkation to Chicago.

Unlike domestic surface parcel mail within the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii) — for which a single suggested deadline of December 10 applies — the recommended latest dates for mailing of SAM and PAL parcels vary widely, depending upon destinations involved. Mailers are urged to check their local post offices for specific SAM and PAL mailing dates when in doubt and to mail in advance of these dates whenever possible.

Formal instructions implementing the new liberalized provisions for military mail are being disseminated to all 32,000 post offices through the official Postal Bulletin.

HARVARD APPOINTS LEONARD BERNSTEIN

President Derek C. Bok of Harvard University announced that Leonard Bernstein took up residence at Harvard on Sunday, November 5, to begin his term as the Charles Eliot Norton Professor of Poetry. He will live in the same Harvard House with which he was affiliated as an undergraduate.

One of the most distinguished assignments in the academic world, the Norton Chair was established in 1925 by a gift from Charles Chauncy Stillman of the Harvard Class of 1898. Among those who have held it have been Igor Stravinsky, Aaron Copeland, Paul Hindemith, and Roger Sessions. The incumbent is appointed as a full professor for a term of one year upon the nomination of a committee appointed by the President of the University. The professor is chosen without limit of nationality from men of high distinction and preferably of international reputation. The incumbent is in residence and delivers publicly not less than six lectures upon poetry, the term being interpreted in the broadest sense to include all poetic expression in language, music or the fine arts. Publication of the lectures is required.

Mr. Bernstein will deliver these lectures not only in "the broadest sense" but in the most modern, using all the advanced techniques of communication for both the audience in attendance and for future students, scholars, historians, and the public at large.

The lectures are to be illustrated with musical performances by various groups, including the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Harvard Glee Club, singers, instrumentalists, and Mr. Bernstein at the piano. The Harvard University Press will publish the lectures and they will be recorded on videotape in cooperation with Boston's public broadcasting station, WGBH-TV.

During his six weeks in residence in the fall Mr. Bernstein will participate in a series of student seminars at Eliot House, conduct the Boston Symphony and prepare his lectures and musical illustrations. The lectures themselves will be delivered in the spring term at Sanders Theater on April 15, 22, 29, May 6, 13 and 16.

Mr. Bernstein is married and has three children, one of whom, his daughter Jaime, is now a junior at Radcliffe College. Mr. Bernstein received the honorary degree of doctor of music from Harvard in 1967.

CENTRAL LIBRARY NEWS

Almost three-quarters of a million books from the five-building storage area at the former Long Island (Boston) Nike missile site are being returned to Copley Square. The books are being shelved in the Library's Addition, construction on which is almost completed. This major book move into the building is the first to take place.

Following this initial step, other parts of the Library's vast book collections stored elsewhere in the city will be returned soon, too. Books, including city directories, patents, and periodicals, have been stored at the New England Deposit Library in Brighton, the Charlestown Service Building of the Library, two colleges in the greater Boston area, and in several branch libraries.

For the most part, many of the books were older editions, but nevertheless essential to anyone doing research. Other more current titles which fell within the same classifications have been stored in Long Island and elsewhere. Now all will be within easy reach of the researcher who comes to the Central Library.

And have you noticed the beautiful bronze doors as you enter the front door of the Library? Every day more than 3,000 persons pass through one of the three pairs of these artistic doors to enter and leave the building. How many people actually see the graceful sculpture is a moot point, but even fewer actually know who the artist was! The creator of the magnificent doors was none other than Daniel Chester French, world-famous for his monumental seated figure of Abraham Lincoln in the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D.C. The doors portray allegorical figures, sculptured in low relief, which represent Music and Poetry, Knowledge and Wisdom, Truth and Romance. In 1894 French charged $25,000 for his artistic labors. One wonders what it would cost to acquire a similar work by a leading sculptor today, some fourscore years later.

REGISTRY ANNOUNCEMENT

Motor vehicle passenger plates ending with the letter "X" and "Y" expire in November and December of both 1972 and 1973. The Registry of Motor Vehicles cannot reissue these series in the red-lettered plates until November and December of 1973.

Therefore, registration renewal applications mailed to registrants whose plates expire in November, 1972, will show an expiration date of September, 1974. When it is necessary to prepare an application for renewal of a registration expiring in November, 1972, the expiration date must appear as September, 1974. Also, every new registration issued in December must have September, 1974, as the expiration date. Red-lettered plates ending in the number "9" will be issued, and the fee will be prorated for twenty-two months.

Registration renewal applications mailed to registrants whose registration expires in December, 1972, will show an expiration date of October, 1974. When it is necessary to prepare an application for renewal of a registration expiring in December, 1972, the expiration date must appear as October, 1974. Also, all new registrations issued in January, 1973, must have October, 1974, as the expiration date. Red-lettered plates ending in the number "0" will be issued, and the fee will be prorated for twenty-two months.

All registrations issued on an annual basis (as trucks, trailers, buses, motorcycles, etc.) will expire in December. Renewal applications for these vehicles will be mailed to the registrant by the Registry of Motor Vehicles early in November. New red-lettered plates will be issued for all of these vehicles except those in the vanity and ham operator plate series. New plates for these annual registrations will not be issued until January, 1974. Therefore, the renewal applications for 1973 may be processed at any of the thirty-four district offices of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

DIRECTIVE NO. 11 NATIONAL ELECTION DAY SKELETON FORCE

November 3, 1972.

To All Department Heads.

His Honor, the Mayor, in order to allow all city employees to vote on National Election Day, has declared a skeleton force for all departments commencing at 4:00 P.M., on Tuesday, November 7, 1972.

You are at liberty, therefore, to operate your departments on a skeleton basis after the time designated, provided essential services to the public are not neglected or interrupted.

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

DIRECTIVE NO. 12 SERVICE ORDERS AND PURCHASE REQUISITIONS

November 3, 1972.

To all Department Heads and County Officials.

Beginning on November 13, 1972, no service orders or purchase requisitions will be accepted by the Budget Division and the Purchasing Division for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Special consideration will be given to unusual situations, but clearance in each case will have to be obtained in advance from the Budget Division.

In the case of an emergency which might endanger life or property, a service order may be issued subject to later review by the Budget Division.

Special Order

Two Copies — One for Posting

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.

Subject: Education Incentive Plan.

Sir:

Under the provisions of the new collective bargaining agreement between the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association and the City of Boston an Education Incentive Plan, similar to but not identical with the terms of chapter 835 of the Acts of 1970, has been included. Under Article XVIIA of this agreement all patrolmen possessing the following degrees, or education points towards these degrees, earned and credited in the manner specified by chapter 835 of the Acts of 1970, shall receive payments as scheduled under this plan:

Associate degree, baccalaureate degree, master's degree, law degree.

In order to administer the Education Incentive Plan the following guidelines are established.

1. Only degrees which have, or will be, earned in an educational institution accredited by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, or approved by the State Board of Higher Education, will be recognized.

2. The major field of study should be one that contributes to the field of police efforts and the effectiveness of the Police Department. Acceptable fields of study will include, but not be limited to, criminal justice, law enforcement, sociology, psychology, English, mathematics, chemistry, police science, police administration, business administration, etc.

3. Patrolmen who have completed two or more years in an approved baccalaureate program, that is, they have earned sixty (60) or more semester hours credit towards their degree, will be credited with the equivalent of an Associate Degree under the terms of the new contract.

4. Patrolmen seeking credit under this program must submit transcripts which indicate the courses taken, credits earned, and degrees awarded by each degree-granting institution attended by the officer. The major field of study must be indicated on the transcript. This information is required as evidence of the officer's scholastic achievement, and will be submitted to the Personnel and Training Division, Room 507, Police Headquarters.

Forwarded with this order are copies of a departmental form to be completed and submitted with the necessary transcripts by each patrolman entitled to education credits. Additional forms may be obtained by contacting the Personnel and Training Division on extension 431.

IX. LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The following letter received by his Honor the Mayor is published for the information of the department:

"September 27, 1972.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On three occasions in the recent months we at the Harvard Business School have had the need to summon the Boston Fire Department to our campus. On two of these occasions there was a fire emergency in Baker Library, which houses a wealth of business- and management-oriented material, the loss of which would be incalculable to the Business School and to the business community of the country as well. The fire alarms were answered by Ladder Company 14 attached to District 11. On both occasions their arrival on the scene was within five minutes of our sounding the alarm. On one of these occasions the minimizing of damage in Baker Library was directly attributable to this outstanding response. Not only has Ladder Company 14 responded with great alacrity, but their demonstrated professionalism once on the scene has been a source of both great pride and satisfaction to us.

On the third occasion Ladder Company 14 responded with comparable speed and professionalism when a Columbia University rugby player was injured so severely that his breathing had stopped. The prompt action of your fire fighters may well have saved this young man's life.

On behalf of the entire Business School Community, I wish to express our appreciation to you, and through you to the Boston Fire Department and to Ladder Company 14, for their continued invaluable service and support.

Sincerely,

LAWRENCE E. FOURAKER, Dean."

X. CHANGE IN TIME

In accordance with the Daylight Saving Law, time will be retarded one hour at 0200 hours, Sunday, October 29, 1972. At that time clocks in all department houses will be set back one hour.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Accidental Death or Dismemberment Insurance Deduction on Weekly Payroll Ending October 31, 1972.

SIR:

Uniform force personnel who availed themselves of the benefits of the "accidental death or dismemberment" insurance coverage authorized under the provisions of Article XVI, section 8A, 1972 collective bargaining contract between the City of Boston and the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association will have 15 cents to 50 cents deducted from their gross pay on the payroll week ending Tuesday, October 31, 1972. The variance in the amounts is due to the authorized insurance coverage which is predicated on the yearly salary of the officer concerned.

It has been noted that a number of officers have not availed themselves of the increased coverage. Only those officers who have complied with the department special order dated August 11, 1972, will be covered under the death or dismemberment policy.

Personnel interested in participating in the program who have not signed and submitted the application cards will be required to submit the necessary forms before Tuesday, January 30, 1973. During the interim period, they will not be protected by the additional insurance benefits.

October 26.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Distribution of New Wooden Batons.

SIR:

This department is about to issue to each uniformed man a new wooden baton with quick release holster to replace the present nightstick.

The Property Clerk's office will deliver to each district and unit a supply of these batons with quick release holsters and the officer in charge will sign for same at time of delivery.

A print-out containing a list of the uniformed personnel in each district or unit will accompany these batons. A supply of left-handed quick release holsters will be in each delivery, and a notation identifying left-handed personnel will be made on the print-out.

It will be the responsibility of each commanding officer to see that the print-out sheet is signed by each officer as he receives his new baton and holster and that a notation is made that the officer has or has not turned in his old nightstick.

When the distribution of these batons has been completed within a district or unit, the surplus new batons will be returned to the Property Clerk's office, 154 Berkeley Street, and the number of signatures and surplus batons will be totaled to ascertain that all batons are accounted for. The old nightsticks will be turned in to the Property Clerk's office at the same time.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HOSPITALS

RENTAL OF SELECTRIC TYPEWRITER

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 29, 1972, it was voted to renew, without advertising, the city's contract with International Business Machines Corporation of 1730 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Mass., for the rental of one (1) Model IV magnetic tape selectric typewriter (MT/ST) for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $3,060.

This typewriter is required and specially suited for typing of radiologic reports in the Radiology Division of this department. Since IBM is the only company capable of supplying us with this machine, and inasmuch as the cost is reasonable, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

LEASING OF COMPUTER FACILITIES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 29, 1972, it was voted to award a contract, without advertising, to On-Line Systems, Inc., of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for the leasing of computer facilities for computation of serum, protein levels and for matching and printout of diagnostic patterns for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $4,200. Facilities included are computer time, connect time, and program storage.

During the past year, these computer services were provided under a contract awarded without advertising to Telcomp Corporation of America, after an assessment of the past performance in the computer field of Telcomp Corporation and two other computer services, Harvard Computer Center, Cambridge, and Tymshare, Chestnut Hill. Based upon this assessment, it was determined that Telcomp Corporation could provide the required computer services with better technical backup at the lowest cost. Since On-Line Systems, Inc., has taken over the operation of Telcomp's facilities and inasmuch as Telcomp provided us with these services last year at a reasonable cost, we respectfully request you approve the awarding of this contract to On-Line Systems, Inc., without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on March 8, 1972, it was voted and approved to award a contract, without advertising, to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a Massachusetts nonprofit corporation incorporated under chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965 with offices at 909 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, under which said corporation shall provide this department with the service of Mrs. Anne Jackson to serve as Director, Preschool Vision Screening Program of this department for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, at a cost to the city not to exceed $12,305.

This department is currently engaged in having this position established with Civil Service and incorporated with our department's compensation plan. Until this is achieved, it is essential that this contract mechanism be utilized to provide us with this vital service.

Inasmuch as this contract is one of a personal and professional nature, your permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and award this contract to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on March 8, 1972, it was voted and approved to award a contract, without advertising, to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a Massachusetts nonprofit corporation incorporated under chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965 with offices at 909 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, under which said corporation shall provide this department with the service of Miss Melissa Tillman to serve as Director, Day Care Consultation and Licensing Unit of this department for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, at a cost to the city not to exceed $14,793.

This department is currently engaged in having this position established with Civil Service and incorporated with our department's compensation plan. Until this is achieved, it is essential that this contract mechanism be utilized to provide us with this vital service.

Inasmuch as this contract is one of a personal and professional nature, your permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and award this contract to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 29, 1972, it was voted to renew, without advertising, the contract with the Lamson Division of the Diebold Corporation of Cambridge, Mass., for the servicing of the Lamson pneumatic airtube system in the Out-Patient Department at Boston City Hospital for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $2,680.

Since the Lamson Division, Diebold Corporation is the only company capable of servicing this equipment, and inasmuch as the cost is reasonable, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

MEDICAL TRANSCRIPTION SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on March 8, 1972, it was voted to award a contract, without advertising, to Transcription Services, Inc., of North Providence, Rhode Island, for furnishing of medical transcription services to the Medical Records Division, Boston City Hospital, for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, in an amount not to exceed $34,000.

Invitations for bids were advertised in the City Record on February 14, 1972, asking for bids on cost per line based on approximately 542,000 lines and at a contract cost not to exceed $34,000. Bids were publicly opened and read on February 25, 1972. The following bids were submitted:

Transcription Services, Inc., 7 cents per line for the 285,700 lines and 6½ cents per line for all lines in excess of 215,385 lines.

International Dictating Services, Inc., 7 cents per line.

The bid submitted by Transcription Services was the low bid. However, inasmuch as both bids were technically defective, it is our feeling that it is clearly in the best interest of the city that we reject both bids and award this contract, without advertising, to Transcription Services, Inc.,

In view of the aforesaid and because in our judgment the bid of Transcription Services, Inc., is reasonable and their performance in providing this service to the city in the past has been satisfactory, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to Transcription Services, Inc., under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

RENTAL OF MACHINES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on March 15, 1972, it was voted and approved to award a contract, without advertising, to Redactron Corporation of Newton Centre, Mass., for the rental of two (2) Redactron data machines (one single-card system and one dual-card system) for use of the Medical Records Division of the Department of Health and Hospitals at Boston City Hospital for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $5,583.

The Redactron data machine is a computerized word processing system designed to increase productivity and eliminate the need for manual logging of information, and in addition operates in logical manner in the way a typist would normally type.

These two machines will replace two IBM magnetic tape selectric typewriters (MS/ST) currently utilized by the Medical Records Division. In our opinion, there are many advantages to Redactron which make it better suited for the needs of our Medical Records Division.

Commissioner.

ANESTHESIOLOGY SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on March 29, 1972, it was voted and approved that the city enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a nonprofit corporation, incorporated under chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965 with offices at 909 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Mass., under which said corporation shall provide anesthesiology services at Boston City Hospital in support of the increased requirements of the Comprehensive Multidisciplinary Health Care Clinics for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending March 31, 1973, at a cost to the city not to exceed $80,000.

Because of the extremely limited availability of qualified anesthesiologists to meet the needs of this department, it is in the best interest of the city that we contract with the Trustees to obtain this service.

Inasmuch as this contract is one of a personal and professional nature and since no benefit will inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract, without advertising, under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

MAYOR'S SAFE STREETS ACT
ADVISORY COMMITTEE

PROVIDING PSYCHIATRIC SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee I respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Citizenship Training Group, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $93,668 for the period from March 1, 1972, through December 31, 1972.

The purpose of the grant award is to allow Citizenship Training Group and the Boston Juvenile Court to continue to work closely together to provide psychiatric services to defendants subject to the jurisdiction of the Boston Juvenile Court and to the families of such defendants.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $100,000 under Section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by an order of the City Council on October 18, 1971.

The objectives of the project are directly related to the Citizenship Training Group, Inc., a nonprofit charitable organization of which Judge Francis G. Poitras, the presiding justice of the Boston Juvenile Court is the president ex officio. Therefore, Citizenship Training Group is uniquely qualified to further develop this project funded under the Safe Streets Act. This project will be carried out in close coordination with other Safe Streets Act projects previously contracted to Citizenship Training Group, Inc.

Because of the unique service required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
PETER C. BORRE, JR.
Director.

MODEL CITY ADMINISTRATION

RECREATION PROGRAMS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed forty-eight thousand, eight hundred twenty-two dollars ($48,822) to the Roxbury Action Program, Inc., with offices located at 63 Lambert Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program in Subarea II, as part of the Parks and Recreation Program.

The services offered represent a cooperative effort of four established agencies within Subarea II, which will furnish staff and facilities for the operation of recreation, cultural, and vocational programs. These participating agencies include the following: The Roxbury Action Program, Inc., located at 63 Lambert Avenue, Roxbury, which shall conduct a rifle and archery recreation program; the United Neighbors of Lower Roxbury, located at 90 Windsor Street, Roxbury, which will operate a youth center offering social and recreational programs; the Roxbury-North Dorchester Area Planning Action Counsel, located at 10 Linwood Street, Roxbury, which will operate an employment training program for youth from low-income families; and the Hawthorne Youth Center, located at 9 Fulda Street, Roxbury, which will offer a full-range service program of activities to be conducted from their Fulda Street facilities.

Approximately fifteen hundred (1,500) youth from Subarea II shall participate in these programs.

The funds to be provided under this contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from January 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972, inclusive.

The Roxbury Action Program, Inc., has demonstrated through similar community programs it has conducted, that its staff is capable and experienced. It is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) to the Community Development Corporation of Boston, Inc., (C.D.C.), 25 Ruggles Street, Boston, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program in Subarea III, as part of the Parks and Recreation Program.

The objective of this program titled Teens Servicing Teens, shall be to offer a multi-service program which includes social service counseling and recreational activities to offset the rise of juvenile delinquency; to provide a focal point for the coordination of teen services; and to involve teens in the formation of a complete service program designed to adequately meet the needs and interests of area teen-agers.

Activities to be offered by the contractor at facilities located at 30 Forest Street, Roxbury, shall include employment counseling, educational counseling, organized recreational programs, vocational workshops, and social service counseling.

Between 300 and 400 teen-agers from Subarea III shall participate in these programs.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from August 1, 1971, through July 31, 1972.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed forty-eight thousand eight hundred twenty-two dollars ($48,822) to the Federated Dorchester Neighborhood Houses, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation having offices at 1346 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., for the operation of the Dudley-Denny-Hill Cooperative Recreation Program as part of the Parks and Recreation Program for Subarea IV of the Model Cities area.

This program, which shall provide recreation and group activities for Subarea IV residents, will be operated as a cooperative effort of three community groups. Each of the three groups, all of which are experienced agencies, will share a distinct segment of responsibility by utilizing all available resources without duplicating services. Through this cooperative effort, approximately five hundred fifty area residents between two and a half years through twenty years of age would be served.

The Mother's, Inc., located at 473 Dudley Street, would operate the child care component, which would serve approximately fifty children and be staffed by five workers. This segment will operate both indoor and outdoor tot lots at facilities of Dennison House located at 25 Howard Avenue.

A group activity component will be operated by the Dennison House at the Howard Avenue facilities. This program is designed to present special group activities for approximately 300 children ages six through twenty. Under the direction of an instructor from Boston University, six workers will staff and supervise the activities.

St. Paul's Church located at 1 Lingard Street, will operate a neighborhood youth program component. This group will offer a comprehensive recreation and athletic program for approximately 200 youth between the ages nine through sixteen, to be conducted by priests of St. Paul's Church and Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. It shall consist of an after-school program and a six-weeks summer program during July and August. All programs are to be conducted bilingually and all children shall be chosen on a nondenominational basis.

The contractor will act as bursar and receiving agent for this cooperative recreation program and shall report to the Model City Administration on all financial transactions.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from January 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972.

There is combined wealth of experience and resourceful facilities offered by the groups participating under this project; it is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,
PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) to the Aswalos House of the Roxbury Y.W.C.A., 246 Seaver Street, Dorchester, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program in Subarea VI, as part of the Parks and Recreation Program of the Model Cities area.

The objective of the program is to offer vocational, cultural, and recreational activities for young women from Subarea VI and adjacent areas. It is designed specifically for teen-age girls to supplement the lack of organized activities which are sponsored for these young women in the Model Cities area. Classes will be offered in personal hygiene, home management, weaving, and other personal development areas. Recreational activities shall include swimming, yoga, slmnastics, and a sauna program. A free baby sitting service shall be provided at the Y.W.C.A. to accommodate all participants who require such services. The classes shall be scheduled Monday through Friday, between 9:30 A.M. and 10 P.M. at Y.W.C.A. facilities.

Approximately 300 persons from Subarea VI and adjacent areas will be served under this project.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from January 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972.

The Roxbury Y.W.C.A. is an established community organization, with an experienced staff which has administered many successful recreational programs. It is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,
PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract to run a public educational program in an amount not to exceed $5,000, without advertising, to Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., Robert Gould Shaw House, 612 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass. 02121.

The contract shall be effective for four months from the date it is signed by the Mayor.

The Model City Agency is planning to conduct a public education program designed to (a) inform residents of the services provided by various city departments in the areas of maintaining a clean environment and improving the physical condition of the Interim Assistance Area, and (b) to inform residents of their responsibilities in assisting city department personnel who provide these services. This information will be disseminated through pamphlets and meetings.

The public education program will be conducted as part of the Interim Assistance Program being administered by the Model City Agency, and we desire to let contracts to run the program with community organizations located in each of the six Model Neighborhood subareas and in that portion of the Interim Assistance Area which is outside the Model Neighborhood, IAP Subarea 7. Fifteen community organizations were requested to submit proposals for the public education work, and Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Robert Gould Shaw House, was selected as having submitted the best proposal for Model Neighborhood Subarea 6.

It is requested that the contract be awarded without advertising because of the importance of contracting with local community organizations who are familiar with the area and with relating to area residents, and so that the Model City Agency may comply with the federal mandate to provide maximum opportunity for employing area residents in the Model City Program.

Very truly yours,
PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

STAFF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I refer to my letter of September 7, 1971, whereby it was requested and you approved a contract for staff educational services in the amount of eight thousand, seven hundred and sixty dollars ($8,760) to Burdett College, Inc., 160 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. It is requested that the letter of award be amended to increase the total amount under the contract by an additional three thousand, five hundred and fifty dollars ($3,550) so that the new requested contract amount to be awarded without advertising will be twelve thousand, three hundred and ten dollars ($12,310). It is further requested that the contract period of performance be extended from April 4, 1972, through July 31, 1972, inclusive.

The increased amount and the extended period of performance is requested to permit accelerated and advanced training in the book-keeping and secretarial courses for the staff members presently enrolled under this staff-training program.

We request, therefore, because of your prior approval of the contract award without advertising in the City Record, that the increased amount and extended performance period of this contract be dispensed from advertisement in the City Record.

Very truly yours,
PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

CABINETS IN VARIOUS SCHOOLS, BOSTON,
MASS.

The City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer, Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed proposals for furnishing, delivering, and installing pupils', teachers', nurses', furniture, and filing and storage cabinets in various schools, Boston, Mass.

Proposals will be received until twelve o'clock noon, Friday, December 1, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The proposal submitted to the Chief Structural Engineer shall not be separated from the book of specifications. The additional copy of the proposal shall be removed from the book of specifications and after filling out shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the Auditor of the City of Boston, at City Hall, Boston, Mass., before the time for the opening of the proposals.

A bid deposit in the form of a certified check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of 5 percent (5%) of the full amount of the bids, except that the minimum amount of check shall be $50, shall be submitted with the copy of the proposal filed with the Awarding Authority. The bid deposit shall be in a separate envelope, properly marked. Bid bonds will not be accepted.

A bond of an approved surety company must be furnished by the successful bidder in the full amount of the contract price.

The successful bidder will be required to provide for insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation
Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

Specifications and forms of proposals may be obtained at the office of the Chief Structural Engineer, 11 Beacon Street, Boston,
Mass.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual opening thereof (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays).

The Awarding Authority reserves the right
to waive any informalities and to reject any and all bids or any item or items of a bid.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING,
11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR PAINTING, INCLUDING FIRE ESCAPES, AT THE BUNKER HILL SCHOOL, 68 BALDWIN STREET, CHARLESTOWN, MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for interior and exterior painting, including fire escapes, at the Bunker Hill School, 68 Baldwin Street, Charlestown, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, November 29, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $800. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, November 22, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Painting$300

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,

Proposals for Furnishing Tractor Trailer on Rental Service.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for furnishing tractor trailer on rental service.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Furnishing Tractor Trailer on Rental Service," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1972, with a certified check for TWO HUNDRED TEN DOLLARS ($210), payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 711 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $1,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, November 21, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Painting$600

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $3,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, November 21, 1972, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical	$1,500
Masonry	150

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bid. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

Commission on Elderly Affairs Initiates RSVP Program

The Boston Commission on Affairs of the Elderly has been awarded a $53,068 grant to operate a Retired Senior Volunteer Program.

This grant will enable the commission to initiate a city-wide RSVP Program involving 500 senior citizens in volunteer service within the first year and as many as 1,000 within the next five years.

The Boston RSVP Program will place volunteers in cooperating public and private social agencies throughout the city. Senior volunteers may serve in the office of the Mayor, Model Cities Department, Office of Human Rights, and the city's Library Department. Other volunteers may serve as senior center coordinators and arts and crafts aides for the Parks and Recreation Department.

In the private sector, hospitals, nursing homes, and other service agencies will utilize the expertise of the volunteers in a wide range of creative positions.

Why Volunteer?

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program offers people over sixty years of age new and varied opportunities for part-time service to their community. There are no income or educational requirements for service in this program.

Volunteers are reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses such as transportation to and from the place of service, as well as meals. All volunteers are covered by a special insurance plan to provide coverage while in service of RSVP.

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program provides older adults a recognized role in the community and a meaningful life in retirement through volunteer service.

As an idea, it began on Staten Island in New York City in SERVE, a local program for voluntary service by older citizens. That program gained broad Congressional support for a senior volunteer organization on a national basis, and RSVP was created in 1969 through amendments to the Older Americans Act, although it did not become operational until 1971.

The Administration on Aging in the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare awarded grants to develop the first eleven programs. Then, on July 1, 1971, RSVP was transferred to ACTION, the new citizens corps. Applications are now being accepted to start more than 100 additional local programs across the nation during the next year.

How RSVP Operates

Each RSVP is planned, organized, and operated on the local level. It is developed under the auspices of an established community-service organization that is able to generate local financial support. Only one RSVP is permitted in a community service area.

A local RSVP Advisory Committee guides the program's early development and provides support and advice on major decisions. A full-time program director provides leadership and continuity.

THANKSGIVING DAY

In the first year of his office, President George Washington issued a proclamation recommending that November 26, 1789, be kept as a day of "national thanksgiving" for the establishment of a form of government that made for safety and happiness. For years the festival was almost exclusively a New England institution, celebrated by religious services in the churches, the sermon often a political address, and by the gathering at the old home of the scattered members of the family. The day gradually became a custom in the western and some of the southern states, each appointing its own day. In 1864 President Lincoln issued a proclamation in which he "appointed and set aside" the last Thursday in November as a day of national thanksgiving "for the defense against unfriendly designs without and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household." Until 1939 each president followed Lincoln's example in proclaiming the last Thursday of November a national day of thanksgiving. In that year Franklin D. Roosevelt, desiring to lengthen the interval between Thanksgiving and Christmas, named the next to the last Thursday as the date of celebration. But in December, 1941, Congress passed a resolution making the fourth Thursday a legal holiday. Governors in the various states usually issue proclamations to this effect. The day is also celebrated in all the territories and possessions.

Elderly Affairs . . .

Senior volunteers serve in a variety of organizations, agencies, and institutions which are known as Volunteer Stations. These include courts, schools, libraries, day-care centers, hospitals, nursing homes, boy scout offices, economic development agencies, and other community-service outlets.

Arrangements for such help are made directly through the local RSVP, whose primary concern is matching local needs with interests, preferences, and concerns of older retired adults who want to continue to serve their communities in a meaningful way. Accordingly, the RSVP will:

Attract retired men and women over age sixty into community volunteer service.

Arrange for suitable Volunteer Stations including those that serve people of all ages, and then assign senior volunteers according to needs and preferences.

Orient senior volunteers to their new activities.

Orient the supervisory staff of each Volunteer Station in ways of working with senior volunteers.

Help arrange transportation and necessary meals, providing reimbursement as appropriate.

Provide accident insurance for senior volunteers.

Assure smooth functioning of the RSVP Advisory Committee.

Direct the program toward the needs of the total community.

Develop community support, including financial support.

Arrange special recognition for senior volunteers.

Who Can Be a Volunteer?

Anyone who is retired and age sixty or over is eligible to be an RSVP volunteer. All that is asked is that you:

Be willing to share the benefits of a lifetime of living, which is more than your accumulated experience, knowledge, interests, abilities, skills, understanding, maturity, and dependability.

Be in search of an opportunity to be useful, needed, and appreciated.

Have the capacity to cooperate and accept instructions.

Be able to accept a commitment to serve on a regular basis.

For more information about RSVP, contact Renee Lewis at the Commission on Affairs of the Elderly, Room 209, Boston City Hall, or telephone 722-4100, Extension 125. (Please call for an appointment.)

MRS. ANNIE KERRIGAN

Mrs. Annie (Laffey) Kerrigan of 213 West Eighth Street, South Boston, died on November 5. She was ninety-five. She was born in County Galway, Ireland, came to America in 1900, and resided in South Boston. She is survived by three sons — John E. of South Boston, former Mayor of Boston and present City Councillor; James A. of South Boston, retired I.R.S. officer; and Thomas F. of West Roxbury.

A funeral Mass was concelebrated Wednesday, November 8, in St. Augustine's Church, South Boston. A gracious and kindly woman, Mrs. Kerrigan was loved and respected by all who knew her. Interment was in New Calvary Cemetery, Roslindale. May her soul forever rest in peace.

NEED A BOSTON MAP?

Along with its principal responsibilities as city planning agency and redevelopment authority, the BRA also fulfills the function of city map-maker and repository of cartographic information, present and past.

The Technical Services Division of the BRA, headed by Howard Bennett, has on file 4,000 maps showing each neighborhood, school district, ward, and precinct. The maps, or reproductions of them, range from a Pelham map of 1775 showing the fortification around Boston, and the batteries of guns to aerial surveys of the Government Center area done three years ago.

The bulk of the collection, though, is based on two aerial photographic surveys — one made in 1961 and the other in 1965. On each occasion more than 300 photographs were taken of the entire city. (The city also purchased the Boston segment of a state-wide aerial mapping survey conducted five years ago.)

Because the pictures have overlapping portions, two identical photos can be placed under a stereo viewer to give a three-dimensional image. A delicate sensing machine then traces the contour of land in 5-foot gradations. For every plate covering a section of the city five different maps are prepared, graded from simple street line detail to a combination address, lot size, shape, and setting of buildings on parcels.

The maps are traced on a tough plastic-like substance which easily admits light in photostating, and are filed by code so any street can be immediately identified.

The various maps turned out by Technical Services are of great use to other city agencies, such as the Public Works, Public Facilities, Fire and Police Departments, and Little City Halls.

The maps are also available to the general public for a nominal fee of $1 and $2. The "market" consists of people who might want to have a picture of their neighborhood as seen from the air, political candidates who plan campaigns along the ward/precinct lines, and potential developers seeking detailed aerial surveys of land in which they might have an interest. In addition, more and more students are finding out that the BRA can provide them with maps which enliven term papers and other school research projects.

How popular is this service? In 1971 over 4,000 maps were purchased. This figure will undoubtedly be surpassed in 1972 since, during the first four months alone, over $3,300 worth of maps were sold.

RESTORATION PROJECT STARTED IN QUINCY MARKET AREA

The installation of a block of granite by Mayor Kevin H. White on November 10, signaled the start of a $2.2 million restoration project of forty-three buildings on North and South Market Streets in Boston's Faneuil Hall Market area.

The buildings, constructed in 1826 as part of Boston's first urban renewal project, will be restored to the specifications of the original architect, Alexander Parris. The work will consist in its initial stages of stripping facades from seven buildings and removing ten roofs so that the original roofline of the connecting buildings will be restored.

Once the preliminary work is completed, slate roofs will be installed, the granite exteriors reconstructed, and new windows installed.

When fully restored the buildings will be used for retail and specialty shops, restaurants, and other commercial activity. The project is being carried out by the Boston Redevelopment Authority as part of its Waterfront Urban Renewal Plan.

The project will be financed primarily with private funds, but $2.2 million in federal historic preservation funds from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development will be used for the first phase of the project.

The North and South Market Street buildings, along with Faneuil Hall and Quincy Market, will be the focal point of Boston 200 — the bicentennial celebration of American independence which will begin in Boston in 1975.

In his remarks Mayor White said, "This project is, indeed, the city renewing itself, preserving its heritage, and safeguarding its future."

The Mayor noted that people from all over the world would be visiting the area in 1975; and Boston, he said, has "an obligation to upgrade and revitalize this site, so that it takes on a new life in the physical sense just as the spirit of this site — where British colonials first met to plan American independence — has survived and nurtured the hopes of all men for almost two centuries."

The Mayor's statement was echoed by Robert T. Kenney, Director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, who said, "What we are doing here is more than preservation of the past. These buildings will not be prettied up only to serve as a museum piece. There is a need and purpose for this restoration, both now and in the future. The Government Center, the business district, and the growing residential community on the waterfront combine to make this area once again the crossroads of trade and activity in this city, just as it was when the buildings were first constructed."

Architects for the exterior restoration are Stahl Associates, a division of Stahl-Bennett, Inc. Construction is being done by Falzarano Construction Company of Reading, and structural engineers are Le Mesurier Associates, Inc., of Cambridge.

While the initial phase of the project involves only exterior restoration of the North and South Market Street buildings, it is anticipated that the BRA will soon designate a developer to carry out the full-scale restoration.

North and South Market Streets will probably be closed to through vehicular traffic and the blacktop surface removed from the original cobblestone pavement. Extensive tree planting and street furniture are included in the plan, along with special outdoor entertainment.

Faneuil Market is a major link in the Walk-to-the-Sea that is included in the waterfront renewal plan. It provides the pedestrian connector between Government Center and the waterfront at a pivotal point between these areas, the North End and the financial district. The markets project is expected to have considerable impact on commercial development throughout the downtown.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority now owns forty-two of the forty-five structures that make up North and South Market Streets. Quincy Market, a 535-foot-long granite Greek Revival structure, is owned by the City of Boston. The three buildings not owned by the BRA belong to the Durgin-Park Restaurant and are exempted from the waterfront renewal plan. The owners of the buildings have, however, agreed to conform to the exterior restoration standards for the complex.

The new markethouse and adjacent buildings supplemented Faneuil Hall, which had served the city as a market and assembly hall since its construction in 1742.

Mayor Quincy's plan called for the market to remain in city possession, which it has ever since, with its cost defrayed by rental of stalls. The Market Street buildings, however, were sold to private developers who were required to adhere to the architect's designs. Quincy Market and the Market Street buildings especially have undergone considerable exterior alteration and interior deterioration over the years.

CHRISTMAS SEALS CAMPAIGN STARTED

The Boston Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association kicked off its annual fund-raising campaign last week when Jamaica Plain resident, Linda Layman, designer of the 1972 Christmas Seal, presented Boston Mayor Kevin White with the first sheet of seals.

The presentation took place in the Mayor's office.

Miss Layman, twenty-four, is the youngest artist ever to win the prestige of designing a Christmas Seal.

Her design, "An Old-Fashioned Christmas," was chosen by a panel of respected artists and printers from hundreds of entries in the national competition.

The annual Christmas Seal Campaign represents the only fund raising done by the Boston TB and Respiratory Disease Association, whose goal is the eradication of tuberculosis and control of the other major respiratory diseases — emphysema, chronic bronchitis, and asthma.

Contributions through the Christmas Seal Program support respiratory disease research as well as the many public and professional health education activities sponsored by the Boston TB and Respiratory Disease Association.

WINTER PARKING REGULATIONS MODIFIED

The Traffic and Parking Commission, acting on a proposal by Mayor Kevin White, voted today to modify the city's winter parking restrictions, which limited overnight parking in residential areas to one side of the street from November 15 through March 31.

Under the new regulation parking will be restricted to the even-numbered side of the street this year, except where posted otherwise, on a round-the-clock basis when the Traffic Commissioner declares a snow emergency. The restriction will remain in effect, both day and night, until lifted by the Traffic Commissioner.

In addition, the commission voted to increase the fine for noncompliance from $2 to $15 in Zone A (downtown, Back Bay) and from $2 to $6 in Zone B (all other sections of the city).

The new regulation, which is being implemented on an experimental basis for sixty days, took effect November 15.

"Public safety demands that the city impose winter parking regulations to facilitate the movement of emergency vehicles and snow-fighting equipment," the Mayor said. "I also recognize the hardship imposed on residents by these regulations in a city when in the best of times there are too few parking spaces.

"We feel it makes good sense to restrict parking during the winter only when conditions warrant," he continued. "If there is general compliance with the new regulation, we will continue it through March. If the public fails to cooperate and public safety is therefore threatened, we will be forced to return to the old system."

Residents will be informed of a snow emergency via newspaper, television, and radio announcements, according to Traffic Commissioner, William Noonan.

In addition to the emergency regulations in residential areas, the Traffic Commissioner may also prohibit parking on both sides of the street along posted snow emergency arteries and in the central business district.

MINORITY GROUP STUDENTS AIDED AT HARVARD

Harvard University Summer School has received a $1,135,000 grant from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's Office of Health Manpower Opportunity (OHMO), Director Thomas Crooks announces. The grant, largest in the school's history, will support for three years the Health Career Services Program — a program giving minority-group students premedical training and career counseling in the health professions.

The grant, $371,089 in its first year, provides the funds needed to support 150 students in the program for each of the next three years.

OHMO also gave a $100,000 grant to the program in 1972.

In a letter thanking the OHMO for the grant, Mr. Crooks said, "If minority groups are not now given special support, the percentage of their involvement in the health care professions will drop even more over the next generation." Only 5.7 percent of medical school students throughout the country last year were members of minority groups.

HCSP began in the summer of 1969 under the cooperative sponsorship of the Harvard Schools of Medicine, Public Health, and Dental Medicine, the teaching hospitals associated with Harvard, and the Harvard Summer School. It was financed until last summer by gifts from private foundations and by Harvard.

According to the final report of the HCSP for 1972, the primary purpose of the eight-week program is "to make medicine and dentistry viable, realistic career choices for the large number of students who might have the potential for such careers, but have not had the encouragement, exposure, and academic preparation necessary to approach these career pathways at the entry point."

PWD OPERATION "QUIET"

New, "quieted" construction equipment will be used by the Boston Public Works Department on street repairs, it was announced on November 10.

The equipment — six air compressors and six pavement breakers — was delivered today to the Boston Public Works Department at City Hall by Ingersoll-Rand Company.

A demonstration between the old-style equipment and the newer "quieted" model was held. Noise control engineers from the Boston Air Pollution Control Commission were on hand to measure the sound levels of both pieces of equipment.

David Standley, Executive Director of Boston's Air (and noise) Pollution Control Commission, congratulated the Boston Public Works Department for indicating "quieted" equipment in their bid specification, and for putting the City of Boston in the forefront of the drive for a quieter city.

"Noise is a particularly violent form of environmental pollution," said Standley, "and a flagrant abuse of the rights of others. We consider this purchase to be a major step in halting that abuse."

"We expect others, both in the public and private sectors, will follow the lead of the City of Boston and require the purchase of "quietest available" construction equipment."

Commission regulations prohibit the sale or lease of any new construction equipment (excluding pile drivers) producing in excess of 88 dB(A) at 50 feet after January 1, 1973. Federal government noise standards for new equipment are expected within 18 months.

The commission is presently working with various city departments to ensure that similar purchase orders include noise specifications, and that those firms working under City of Boston or Boston Redevelopment Authority contracts comply with noise control regulations.

DIRECTIVE NO. 13 REVISED PURCHASING AND CONTRACT PROCEDURES

To All Department Heads and County Officials.

The City of Boston's purchase and contract procedures have been thoroughly reviewed by a vendor payment committee, and recommendations have been formulated to improve both the efficiency and effectiveness of these procedures.

This directive officially adopts these recommendations dealing specifically and solely with purchase orders of $2,000 or more. A flow chart detailing the new procedures is attached. You are to begin implementing the new system on December 1, 1972.

This is an important project which should be given high priority status. It should be assigned to a key individual who is familiar with the overall operations of your department. Its success will depend largely on the effort expended explaining to the system's operatives the changes involved and reasons for such changes.

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

PURCHASE, $2,000, OR MORE, RECOMMENDED PROCEDURE

Ordering Department: Prepare purchase requisition. Send original to Budget Division.

Budget Division: Check account number, code, appropriation, etc. Initial and return to Purchasing Division.

Auditing Department: File white invoice copy with receiving report attached. Original warrant signed by auditor and sent to Mayor. Copy of warrant with checks and remittance advice to treasurer.

Mayor's Office: Have Mayor sign warrant. Send warrant (original) to treasurer.

Treasury Department: Checks signed and mailed to vendors with remittance advices. Original signed warrant filed. Warrant copy sent to Auditing Department.

ASTRONOMY COURSE AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

What earthlings can expect from future space probes will be among the topics covered in The Solar System, an evening astronomy course at Boston's Museum of Science. It begins Thursday, November 30, at 7:30 P.M.

As a general introduction to our solar system, the course investigates the sun, moon, planets, comets, meteors, and asteroids. It discusses the properties of these celestial objects and the physical laws governing their movements. Slides, films, and demonstration devices will be used with emphasis on the most recent information gained from the Mariner probes of Mars and the moon landings.

Classes one-and-one-half hours long will be held for seven Thursdays, November 30 through December 14 and January 4 through January 25.

Open to ages sixteen and above, the course costs $26. Family and Contributing Members of the Museum are charged $22.

To register, call the Museum's Hayden Planetarium at 742-1410, ext. 274.

CREDIT UNION ELECTION

The fifty-eighth annual meeting of the City of Boston Employees Credit Union will take place in the City Council Chamber, on Tuesday, November 21. President James M. Dever will convene the meeting at 9:30 A.M. The balloting for election to the Board of Directors for a three-year term will start at 9:30 A.M., and continue until 6 P.M. in the Gallery Exhibit Room on the fifth floor. Twenty-one city employees are vying for the position; seven will be elected.

Members eligible to vote must be members of the Credit Union for more than three months.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

October 30.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Halloween: Damage to Street Lamps, etc.

SIR:

District commanders are hereby directed to make such police arrangements as may be necessary in order to prevent the breaking or extinguishing of street lamps during the Halloween celebrations.

Officers shall be instructed to be vigilant for persons, especially boys, breaking lamps or otherwise maliciously damaging property. Officers must realize the possible danger to persons and property while sections of street lighting are rendered inoperable and it is incumbent upon officers to exercise every precaution to prevent malicious damage to the street lighting equipment.

It is to be understood that this order not only applies to street lamps or lights but to all property: billboards, fences, City of Boston School Department property, polling places, and also the throwing of missiles at automobiles which might cause damage to same or result in accidents. Vacant buildings shall also be carefully watched by police officers.

District commanders shall make such arrangements and details necessary to prevent the sounding of false fire alarms and police alarms. Officers on street duty will be instructed to be observant particularly of all fire alarm boxes in their respective districts, especially those that have a frequency of fire alarms. The sound of false fire alarms is a serious matter and every effort will be made to apprehend and prosecute any persons who sound any false fire or police alarms.

District commanders shall instruct members of their command to be alert for the purpose of safeguarding children, preventing disturbances, damage to street lights and property of every description, and the regulation of traffic.

The instructions in this order are important and all officers will be instructed accordingly.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

November 3.

General Order No. 53

I. RETIREMENTS

The following retirements, in accordance with the provisions of sections 7 and 94, chapter 32, General Laws, which became effective at 0800, November 1, 1972, are hereby announced:

Fire Lieut. Joseph J. Censullo, Engine Company 9.

Fire Fighter Joseph F. Kenneally, Ladder Company 6.

Fire Lieut. Censullo was appointed to the department January 22, 1947, and was promoted to the grade of fire lieutenant April 3, 1968. Fire Fighter Kenneally was appointed November 14, 1945.

Both of these members leave the department with the best wishes of their associates.

II. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

The services of the following-named fire fighter on probation have been terminated as of 0800, October 25, 1972:

Fire Fighter on Probation Peter J. Knippenberg, Ladder Company 8.

III. FIRE ALARM BOX INSTALLED

The following fire alarm box has been installed, and company commanders shall add it to circuit card No. 36:

14-1656, Detoxification Center, 19 James Street.

IV. 3M DATA

Company commanders shall add the following signal number to running cards of the 3M Company in this department:

Signal 578, Ninja Realty Trust, 199 State Street, one dry waterflow system protecting the premises. Apparatus to respond: Engine 25, Ladder 8, District 3. Nearest box is 1296.

V. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rule 41.1 shall be changed to read:

"Rule 41.1. All reports, applications, and other official communications shall be properly signed in pen by the officer or member with whom they originate, and shall include the group number of the officer or member, and the following rules concerning them shall be strictly observed.

VI. HIGH COMMENDATION

At 1002 hours, October 4, 1972, the department responded to a fire in a three-story wooden frame dwelling house at 27 Leston Street, Dorchester.

While enroute Engine Company 52 and Ladder Company 29 were informed that a child was trapped in the burning building. Upon arrival at the scene, while hose lines were being run, Fire Fighter William M. Burns and Fire Lieut. Henry J. Miller of Engine Company 52 entered the building by the front door and proceeded up the front stairway. Upon reaching the second-floor landing, very heavy smoke and heat were encountered forcing them to enter the right side of the duplex second floor. They then went to the rear and up a rear stairway to the third floor.

Fire Fighter Burns, Ladder 29, searched one side of the apartment while Fire Lieut. Miller searched the other side. While groping through the heavy smoke and heat on the third floor, Fire Fighter Burns found a baby on a bed. He picked the baby up and crawled from the front to the rear and down a rear stairway to the outside where the baby was removed to the hospital. Fire Fighter Burns performed this rescue work before the completion of ventilation and without a gas mask.

Because of the fact that Fire Fighter Burns performed the rescue work under very difficult conditions and without thought of his own safety, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend him highly, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

BUILDING PERMITS

The Building Department issued permits for the week ending October 27.

VII. COMMENDATION

Fire Fighter Edward R. Yalmokas of Engine Company 1 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 7423, on October 19, 1972, while off duty.

VIII. LETTER OF THANKS

The following letter to the Fire Commissioner is published for the information of the department:

"October 26, 1972.

DEAR SIR:

I want to thank the firemen of my district, through you, for the prompt attention and kind treatment given to my son, Joseph G. McDonald, Jr., when his car hit a building on the corner of Corbet, Nelson and Norfolk Streets, Dorchester, on October 3.

The firemen were efficient and kind to my son and to me. Also to the onlookers who got in their way. The average person does not know the firemen until a fire or a tragedy strikes. Please thank them for me.

Sincerely,
Joseph G. McDonald, Sr.
84 Corbet St., Dorchester."

IX. RIFLE HONOR GUARD

Rifle Honor Guard drills for November will be on November 9 and 30 from 1800 to 2230 hours in Fire Headquarters.

November 7.

General Order No. 54

GREAT BOSTON FIRE OF 1872

Thursday, November 9, 1972, will mark the one-hundredth anniversary of the "Great Boston Fire of 1872." On that date Box 52 was struck at 1924 hours for a fire starting in a hoopskirt factory at the corner of Summer and Kingston Streets, creating a financial loss in excess of $78,000,000, which amounted to approximately one-tenth of the assessed valuation of the entire City of Boston. This fire covered sixty-five acres of the "high value" section, took fifteen lives, and destroyed 776 buildings.

In observance of the anniversary the Fire Alarm Office will strike Box 52 and additional alarms at the same times and in the same manner in which they were struck on that historic date. There will, of course, be no response of apparatus.

The alarms, as received, shall be entered into the company journal by the man on patrol.

The alarms were struck in the following manner: (Note the strange manner in which multiple alarms were struck in that era — in striking multiple alarms, Fire Alarm did not include the box number for which it was struck).

1924 hours, 52-52-52, first alarm.

1929 hours, 10, second alarm.

1934 hours, 12-12, third alarm.

1945 hours, 12-12-12, fourth alarm.

2000 hours, 12-12-12, fifth alarm.

There will be no all-out alarm transmitted.

At that time in our department's history the Boston Fire Department consisted of twenty-one engine companies, eleven hose wagons, seven ladder companies, and three extinguishing companies. The first alarm response was as follows: Engine Companies 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 10; Hose Companies 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 9; Ladder Companies, 1, 3.

To confine the fire and prevent its further spreading took a period of seventeen hours. The extinguishment actually took three days. The present fire box at the same location (Summer and Kingston Streets) is now Box 1431. The coded wheel located in the shell of this box is "52" in commemoration of the "Great Fire." Upon receipt of Box 52 the Fire Alarm Office transmits Box 1431.

There will be distributed in our department a copy of the story of the "Great Boston Fire." This history, called "The Epizootic Fire," (named after the disease that befell the horses at that time), was composed by District Fire Chief John P. Vahey of District 8. Because of the deep amount of research and effort that went into this work, the Fire Commissioner and Chief of Department wish to commend District Chief Vahey.

November 8.

General Order No. 55.

I. RETIREMENT

The following retirement, in accordance with the provisions of section 5, chapter 32, G. L., as amended, which became effective at 0800 hours, November 1, 1972, is hereby announced:

Fire Fighter James H. Cross, Ladder Company 14.

Fire Fighter Cross was appointed to the department July 16, 1937, and he leaves the department with the best wishes of his associates.

II. CHANGES IN ASSIGNMENTS

Company commanders shall make the following changes and additions on the assignment cards and on General Order No. 51, c. s.:

Boxes 1831, 1833, 1837, 1841, 1842, 1843, 1845, 1847, 1848, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1856, 1857, 186, 1861, 1862, 1864, 1871, 1872, 1877, fifth alarm, drop Engine 42, add engine 34.

Boxes 1865, 1866, 1896, fourth alarm, drop Engine 42, add engineer 34.

Boxes 241, 2411, 2412, 2413, 2414, 2415, 2416, 2417, 2418, 242, 2421, 2423, 2425, 2426, 2427, 2428, 2429, 2445, fifth alarm, drop Engine 5 to 3.

Box 2449, second alarm, drop Engine 33, add Engine 53.

Boxes 3191, 3195, second alarm, add E48 to 16; fifth alarm, drop E55 to 52.

Box 3358, second alarm, drop E8 to 21, add E8 to 3.

3-M, Signals 573, 574, 575, drop District 6, add District 7.

Response for Box 2858 shall be the same as for Box 2856. (See S. O. 43, July 18, 1969.)

III. MASSACHUSETTS BAY UNITED FUND CAMPAIGN

His Honor, Mayor Kevin H. White, has called attention to the annual United Fund Campaign for 1973 which is now under way. The Mayor hopes that the customary generosity of the Fire Department employees will be repeated this year.

Pledge cards and literature concerning the United Fund Campaign are being distributed to the department today, one for each member.

Company commanders and heads of branch divisions are requested to interview each member of their commands, including employees on sick and injured leave, and ask them to make a contribution. All pledge cards are to be completed and returned to Headquarters on or before November 20, 1972. However, completed cards with initial donations should be sent to Headquarters as soon as possible before the above date. Company commanders are requested not to hold a number of completed cards while awaiting receipt of others.

This year the pledge card is in two sections, one white and one blue. If a member desires to use the payroll deduction plan, he should complete both white and blue cards. If a member elects not to take advantage of the payroll deduction system, he should complete only the blue card. However, the cards should not be separated, and both should be returned to Headquarters. The third section of the card is a receipt form which the company officer will fill out and give to a member who makes a contribution or a pledge.

On the blue card a member may designate the agency to which he desires to have his contribution sent. These agencies are listed by code number on pamphlets sent with this order.

All pledge cards and currency will be received at Headquarters by Head Clerk Joseph P. Cawley on or before November 20, 1972. Delivery of pledge cards and money can be made on any weekday, except Saturday, between the hours of 0900 to 1500.

A member may pledge a sum of money and have it deducted on the department payroll in accordance with the provisions of chapter 180, section 17B, G. L. However, deductions will be made on the Fire Department payroll only four times a year, during the weeks in which there will be no Blue Cross deductions, as follows: January 30, May 29, July 31, and October 30, 1973. The minimum payroll deduction will be $1.

Since there is a shortage of pledge cards designated for City of Boston employees, some of the members will receive pledge cards designated for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Employees Campaign. However, in all cases the department will be designated as the Boston Fire Department.

Additional pledge cards and envelopes may be obtained at Headquarters.

VETERANS' SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Expenditures for veterans' benefits for August show an increase of $411,104.63 in comparison with the expenditures for the period of August, 1971. This is due in part to a greater number of accumulated benefits bills being paid in August of 1972.

The 3,380 cases aided during the month of August represented a total of 6,412 individuals benefited through the facilities of the Veterans' Services Department.

There were sixty-four cases closed during the month of August because of obtaining employment, having been awarded unemployment compensation, receiving social security, and becoming eligible to receive financial assistance for miscellaneous reasons.

During the month of August the department collected $4,780.39, which represents refunds by former beneficiaries of veterans' benefits who were found to have received aid under circumstances which warranted its return to the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
JOHN S. STEPHANS, Commissioner.

IV. HAZARDOUS BUILDING

The building at 25 Phillips Street, District 3, is in hazardous condition. In case of fire in this building members shall use extreme caution. The district chief shall make sure the building is posted.

V. B.F.D. BAND

The Boston Fire Department Band will play at a dedication on Sunday, November 12, 1972. Members shall report to Band Manager Robert Cook at Old Harbor Street and Columbia Road at 1330 hours. Members scheduled to work the day tour November 12 will be excused at 1200 hours.

The following letter received by the Fire Commissioner is published for the information of the department:

"November 2, 1972.

DEAR SIR:

I am writing this letter to you so that I can commend the men from Ladder Company 19 in South Boston, under the command of Lieutenant Waldron, for the wonderful way they responded to a call for assistance.

On August 26 at around 9:45 A.M. my wife fell down some stairs and struck her head, knocking herself out. Lieut. Joseph Feeney who lives next door to me came in and took over. I walk with a cane and have back trouble so could do nothing. Joe called for the Fire Department who came and gave her oxygen to make her breathing easier, as she was having trouble doing same. The doctor at the hospital said this was a very good idea, as we did not know if it was a heart attack or not. It was not an attack.

My wife, thank God, is now home after a week in the hospital and will be laid up for a couple of weeks. She suffered a severe bruise to her right side and also aggravated an old back injury. She was partially paralyzed on her right side, and thanks to the kindness shown by your men in lifting her to the stretcher and helping to carry her down the stairs to the ambulance, further damage was avoided.

Sincerely,

PATRICK M. O'CONNELL,
62 N Street,
South Boston, Mass."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

ARCHITECT'S SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The firm of Johannes H. Wagner, Landscape Architect, has duly completed schematic designs, design development and preliminary cost estimates for use in the construction of recreational facilities at the former Hull School site at Nos. 67-71 Quincy Street in the Roxbury district of Boston, as called for under its contract therewith with the city executed on November 26, 1971.

Therefore, I hereby request your Honor's written permission to forego public advertising in the City Record in the award of a contract to the firm of Johannes H. Wagner, Landscape Architect, doing business at 9 Wickford Road, Framingham, Mass., to prepare working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates, and for the supervision of construction of recreational facilities at the former Hull School site at Nos. 67-71 Quincy Street, Roxbury district of Boston at a fee not to exceed $2,086.50, and upon the receipt of such authority to execute said contract in the name of and on behalf of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation.

The Architect's fee (10.7 percent) taken from Group II of the "Percentage Fee Schedule" of the American Society of Landscape Architects and based upon the estimated cost of construction of $30,000 shall not exceed $3,210, less the sum of $1,123.50 paid to the architect under the initial contract with the firm. The contract now proposed will also provide for presently estimated needs for supplementary services by the architect at an added cost of $500. The maximum liability of the City of Boston under the new contract is to be $2,586.50.

In view of the category of services to be performed under the proposed contract, I am of the opinion that nothing would be gained by a public invitation for competitive bids therefor.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of E. Lionel Pavlo, Engineering Company, Inc., 80 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass. 02116, to furnish general engineering and surveying services for the preparation of plans and specifications and for the supervision of construction of various improvements to parks and playgrounds at a cost not to exceed $20,000, payable in accordance with the 1969 Eastern Massachusetts Association of Professional Engineers and Surveyors, Inc., Minimum Fee Schedule for Professional Services.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract.

As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of professional service, a public solicitation for bids therefor would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to appropriation 1-11-41 (29).

Respectfully,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of Schoenfeld Associates, Inc., Consulting Engineers with offices at 210 South Street, Boston, Mass., as engineers for the supervision of construction of installation of floodlighting equipment and the construction of ball fields at Billings Field, in the West Roxbury district of Boston at an estimated installation cost of $200,000.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract. The engineer's basic fee (6.30 percent) taken from the "B" rate of "Boston's 1966 Fee Schedule for Engineers" and based upon the estimated cost of construction of $200,000 will be $12,600. In no event shall the maximum liability of the city under the terms of the proposed contract as of the date of its execution, including presently estimated expenditures of $4,000 for supplementary services by the engineer, exceed in the aggregate the sum of $16,000.

As the proposed contract is to be for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids therefor would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to 1-11-41 (813).

Respectfully,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

SUMMER RECREATIONAL PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record and to award a contract to Mr. James Hunt, 55 Pasadena Road, Dorchester, Mass., for organization and supervision of a special summer recreational program in the city's parks.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Mr. Hunt will organize and supervise a special 1972 summer recreational program designed to mobilize and encourage citizen and community interest in the city's parks and in the opportunities they offer for recreational activities. A special effort in this program will be made to provide youth activities in the parks and to involve youth in planning the program. The program's emphasis will be on the large city parks such as Franklin Park, Columbus Park, Dorchester Park, The Fens, and Jamaica Pond. Mr. Hunt will be paid at the monthly rate of $1,000 a month, and the cost to the city will not exceed $12,000. The contract will be for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, and it will be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget, 1-11-41 (29), Miscellaneous Contractual Services.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

SYSTEMS ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request your written authorization to dispense with a public solicitation for bids in the Boston City Record, and thereafter, to enter into a contract with the International Business Machines Corporation, with a place of business in Cambridge at 1730 Cambridge Street, providing for systems engineering services, during the period of April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, the total cost for the aforesaid services not to exceed the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars ($7,500).

The processing of a contract would assure the Police Department of technical guidance and assistance in the use of our 360/40 computer. It would also assure the department of professional assistance in the development and implementation of administrative applications. Not of least importance would be the opportunity to have general technical assistance with operational and systems design techniques.

It would not be economically feasible for the Police Department to obtain these skills from other sources, especially at unscheduled and undetermined times. No other professional source could bring the degree of familiarity and expertise as personnel who have handled these problems before recent policy changes became effective within the IBM Corporation. This applies to software as well as to hardware problems.

Inasmuch as the engineering requirements for the proposed contract period are estimated, and in the event that the actual services may exceed such estimates, it is my purpose, as such occasions may arise, to request your authorization to amend the proposed contract to adjust the sum as may be necessary.

I feel very strongly that publicly inviting bids therefor would not serve a useful purpose nor indeed be of any avail to the City of Boston.

Sincerely,

EDMUND L. MCNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

40 Lambert Street, Ward 9.
87 Munroe Street, Ward 12.
95 Nightingale Street, Ward 14.

22 Savin Street, Ward 12; 24 Savin Street, Ward 12.

197-199 Washington Street, Ward 14; 201-203 Washington Street, Ward 14.

Technical specifications may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

General bids will be received up until 11 A.M., Thursday, December 7, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. Two copies of the general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid shall be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of the general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended. This schedule will be available to the successful bidder.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Demolition and Site Clearance Contract No. 16 for Demolition of buildings and structures and Site Clearance in the South End Project No. Mass. R-56, located in the South End District, City of Boston, Mass., until twelve noon (Eastern Standard Time) on the fifth day of December, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 919, Boston, Mass., (Attention: Engineering Department), at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

This work will consist of demolition and site clearance of approximately thirty-three structures (approximately 1,416,750 cubic feet, excluding basement cube), the disposal of all demolished materials, the filling of excavation and cellar holes, and the general cleaning up of the sites, all in accordance with the plans and specifications.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of each proposal for demolition and site clearance (but not to exceed $50,000).

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the total cost of demolition, as set forth in section 4.0 of the "Bid for Demolition and Site Clearance" will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding the contract.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR ELECTRICAL SWITCHGEAR ENCLOSURE, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for electrical switchgear enclosure, Boston City Hospital.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 20, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $500. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 13, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Heating, Ventilating, and Air
Conditioning	$150
Electrical	100

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Friday, November 24, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid upon a subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

PROPOSALS FOR APPLYING PAVEMENT MARKINGS
ON VARIOUS ROAD SURFACES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States for applying pavement markings on various road surfaces in the City of Boston, Mass.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Applying Pavement Markings on Various Road Surfaces in the City of Boston, Mass.," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before twelve noon on Friday, December 1, 1972, with a certified check for three percent (3%) of total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR X-RAY SERVICE WIRING, EIGHTH FLOOR, DOWLING BUILDING, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for X-ray service wiring, eighth floor, Dowling Building, Boston City Hospital.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, December 7, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $500. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, November 30, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical$450

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Wednesday, November 22, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Sewerage and Water Works in Fleet Street; Water Works in Unity Street and Unity Court in Boston Proper.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for sewerage and water works in Fleet Street; Water Works in Unity Street and Unity Court in Boston Proper.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, less the amount of $3,900, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage and Water Works in Fleet Street; Water Works in Unity Street and Unity Court in Boston Proper," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1972, with a certified check for THREE THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS ($3,400) payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 805 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Hub Presents Annual Christmas Festival

On Monday, November 27, Boston's twenty-second annual Christmas Festival, a six-week celebration of the season of brotherhood and peace, will begin to shine on the city and the public is cordially invited to attend its opening, said Mrs. Katharine D. Kane, director of the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs, which produces the festival with the assistance of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department.

Calling attention to the Monday date, Mrs. Kane noted that although the festival has in the past opened the day after Thanksgiving, so many families are away during the holiday weekend that it was decided to move the opening to the following Monday to enable more people to enjoy the event.

Mayor Kevin White will preside at the festivities which will begin at 4:30 P.M. at Boston City Hall with Christmas carols by the Boston Fire Department Band and selections by the Boston Brass Ensemble directed by Mark Harvey. Following the music will be a Gospel reading by George Welbes, featured player in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," currently at the Charles Playhouse in Boston. The City Hall ceremony will conclude with the lighting of the Advent wreath by Mayor White.

After the lighting of the wreath at 5 P.M., as area church bells ring out, the Mayor and distinguished guests will lead a lantern light procession including the Fire Department Band, the Boston Brass Ensemble and twenty-five children bearing lanterns down Tremont Street to a special stage erected on Boston Common. Band selections, Christmas poetry readings, and carols by the Ruggles Street Baptist Choir and the Tremont Temple Choir will then precede the lighting of the Common.

At 5:30 P.M. Mayor White, assisted by four-year-old Lisa MacPhail of Chelmsford, daughter of Specialist 5 Donald MacPhail and youngest child of a Massachusetts prisoner of war, will flick a switch which will transform the paths of the Common into avenues of tree-shaped masses of shimmering yellow, red, blue, and green lights.

Visitors to the Christmas display this year will find an all-new crèche amid a grotto of trees near the Parkman Bandstand, all Santa's reindeer near the play area, and throughout the Common podia containing Christmas messages from the works of Longfellow, Thoreau, Molière, Milton, and Wordsworth.

Back at City Hall, the fourth-floor level will display Christmas trees decorated according to the holiday customs of twelve countries including Armenia, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Spain, and Turkey.

In the main lobby of the building, Christmas music is scheduled to be sung from 11:30 A.M. to 2 P.M., Monday through Friday, from December 4 through December 22.

The sixth-floor balcony on the Dock Square side of City Hall will contain a lighted tree for the enjoyment of passersby in the Faneuil Market area.

Robert F. Fitzgerald, president of Harbor National Bank, is chairman of Boston's Christmas Festival, which is financed each year jointly by the City of Boston and by generous contributions from businesses and individuals.

TEEN BEAUTY AND CHARM SCHOOL

Registration for the Boston Parks and Recreation "Teen Beauty Workshop and Charm School" will be held on Tuesday afternoon, November 28, between 2:30 and 4 P.M. at the Roslindale Recreation Center, 6 Cummins Highway.

This highly successful mod program is free to all Hub girls and is directed by Harriet Silvestri, the high fashion consultant, whose efforts with teenagers in this field have gained her national recognition. Mrs. Silvestri is also a recreation supervisor with the Boston Parks and Recreation Department.

In addition, some lucky girl will receive a scholarship to the famed Carole Nash Modeling School of Boston.

The program will feature the proper method of applying cosmetics, facial care, hair styling, and other related subjects.

WINTER PARKING REGULATIONS CLARIFIED

For a trial period of sixty days effective November 15 the winter residential parking regulations have been changed as follows:

Parking will be prohibited on the odd-numbered side of streets only during declared snow emergencies. However, instead of being in force from 12:01 A.M. to 8 A.M., the prohibition will remain in effect continuously until the emergency is terminated which could be several days depending upon the severity of each storm.

The above regulation does not apply on streets where parking is already prohibited on one or both sides. This is designated as Weather Emergency Prohibition No. 1.

Weather Emergency Prohibition No. 2 pertains to emergency arteries and Weather Emergency Prohibition No. 3 pertains to the central business district. There has been no change in either of these.

Any one or any combinations of these emergency prohibitions may be declared and terminated by the Commissioner.

Violators of Emergency Prohibition No. 1 will be classified under Code 30 (Weather Emergency) which means that the fines will be fifteen dollars in Zone A and six dollars in Zone B instead of two dollars, making the fine for this violation the same as for Emergency Prohibitions No. 2 and 3.

Violators of Emergency Prohibition No. 2 may still be towed as formerly.

GUIDED TOURS AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

For the first time in its history, Boston's Museum of Science is offering guided tours of exhibit halls.

With the inauguration of Highlighters, a corps of forty-eight trained volunteers, guides will be available to escort families, organizations, and those attending special members' events.

The Highlighters are prepared to give what Chairman Mrs. Charles R. Hood, Brookline, calls "an extra dimension" to exhibits by discussing design, construction, and scientific aspects that go beyond labeled descriptions. They aim at pointing out facts that the casual visitor might miss.

Intensive training in a series of eight classes introduced the Highlighters to the Museum's history and purpose, its staff, and major exhibits. Director Bradford Washburn briefed the group on "Mapping the Roof of North America," his extensive cartographic display. Architect Verner Johnson, who is responsible for the new west wing, talked on that subject. Staff designers presented the background of major exhibits they had arranged.

Monthly briefing sessions will continue to keep the volunteer guides informed of new exhibits and activities.

To join the tours which are now in progress, please call 742-1410 for an appointment.

SIX-POINT PROGRAM URGED FOR PARKS DEPARTMENT

Joseph E. Curtis, Boston's Commissioner of Parks and Recreation Department, and new president of the American Parks and Recreation Society, recently announced a bold new plan of action to upgrade and expand urban recreational facilities. Here is his six-point program:

Persuade the President to call the first White House conference on leisure.

Establish a national center for leisure arts and sciences.

Mount an all-out war on bullying, terrorism, and vandalism in America's large and small parks.

Establish a national consensus of purposes and priorities among major departments and agencies providing leisure and recreation services.

Expand international exchange of recreation students, professionals, ideas, and equipment.

Encourage investment of private capital into leisure and recreation development on a vast scale.

Mr. Curtis pointed out that with leisure expenditures in America approaching a quarter trillion dollar mark annually and a scattered variety of public and private agencies struggling to meet the demand for services, the White House conference would be aimed at reviewing the present scene, assessing needs, and planning for the immediate and long-range future.

The center for leisure arts and sciences would be sited ideally at a major university, where training, product testing, research, and many other technical and academic aspects of the needs could be evaluated.

Widespread petty crime and terrorism in parks frighten off families and other park users, according to Mr. Curtis, whose plan would mount a massive assault involving leaders of the media, police, education, and citizen groups.

The encouragement of intensified private ventures into the leisure field would assure the delivery of quality recreation services without adding major new tax burdens, Commissioner Curtis added.

A FIRE FIGHTER RETIRES

In the November 13 issue of the City Record, the retirement of General Foreman of Fire Alarm Construction Joseph E. Donovan was announced (General Order No. 52). He was appointed to the department August 17, 1928, and promoted to general foreman on April 2, 1952.

What the order did not state was that this exceptionally devoted-to-duty fireman retired with 310 days of sick leave unused. He is a credit to the City of Boston and we wish him continued good health and a pleasant retirement.

His attendance record has set an example to us all for devotion to duty.

BOSTON'S NEW POLICE COMMISSIONER INSTALLED

Robert J. di Grazia, forty-four, was installed as Boston's Police Commissioner on November 15, in Police Headquarters, where he was sworn into office by City Clerk Joseph M. Dunlea. Superintendents and deputy superintendents attended the ceremonies. Commissioner di Grazia came to Boston from the St. Louis County, Missouri, Police Department, where he was superintendent over approximately 600 men. His thirteen-year police career started as a deputy sheriff in California.

Mayor White hailed the new commissioner as "a man of proven courage, experience and vision, who I believe will be an effective, strong commissioner. He has a tough job ahead and he knows it. His responsibility is shared by the entire community. If he is to do what must be done in this city, he must have the full cooperation of the press, the police, and the public. I stress this point because there may well be important changes in the Police Department, both in procedures and personnel. Our department, like so many others in the nation, needs meaningful change in order to survive. Many thoughtful people who are concerned with the future of this department have been dismayed by the insidious rumors that have already been created to undermine the commissioner and the department.

"Some of these attempts have surfaced in the media. If this is not stopped, the public would have every reason to feel shortchanged. Fighting crime, while at the same time modernizing a police department, is a long and arduous process and I would hope that all responsible people would give the commissioner a chance to do his job properly." Commissioner di Grazia described himself as anxious to get to work, and, referring to Mayor White's remarks on changes, he said, "We are not talking about any great shake-ups. There will not be changes for changes sake."

The new commissioner resides in West Roxbury with his wife, Patricia, and their four children, Robert, sixteen, Michael, fifteen, Lisa, ten, and Gina, six, and his godson, Joseph Salvemini, seventeen, who lives with the di Grazia family.

NEW BIKE REGULATIONS

There's a bicycle boom in our pollution-conscious society. But booms always contain hazards.

Bike models are not being recalled the way autos are ordered back to Detroit. But it could happen. This fall, the Food and Drug Administration plans to issue, for the first time, strict standards for bicycles. The regulations should take effect by the end of the year.

Some of the safety requirements will be nonslip pedals, front and back reflectors, front and rear wheels of the same diameter, seat posts that cannot be raised so high they interfere with the rider's control, and possible elimination of the front-wheel caliper brake which can throw the rider forward on sudden stops.

One reason for the government's concern is the tremendous upsurge in bicycle sales. In 1960, 3.7 million bikes were sold. Forecasts for this year are 11 million. While sales have tripled during the last decade, deaths and accidents with bikes have doubled. The government now estimates there are one million injuries each year from bicycle-related accidents.

The FDA does not contend that high-risers — bikes with small wheels, a long banana seat, and high handlebars — cause more injuries than other bikes. But in a study of accidents, the agency found high-risers were involved in twice as many mishaps as standard bikes. Industry and government officials admit the high-riser is harder to steer than regular bikes, especially if the front wheel is smaller than the back one. The banana seat also encourages youngsters to ride double, a dangerous practice.

Careful riding on safe bikes is one way to cut down car exhaust and air pollution. Contributions to Christmas Seals help find other ways to fight air pollution, TB, and emphysema. Answer your Christmas Seal letter today. It's a matter of life and breath.

RECREATION PROGRAM STARTED

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department will conduct a Sunday recreation program for mentally retarded adolescents and adults age fourteen and over at the Erich Lindemann Mental Health Center, Government Center, Boston, during the hours of 9 A.M. to 1 P.M. The program will consist of gym activities, arts and crafts, and swimming instruction.

The program will begin on Sunday, December 3. Registration materials and other information can be obtained by calling Josephine Ruggeri or Daniel Needham at 722-4100, ext. 135 or 136. Formal application to the program will be necessary (including a medical certificate).

DRUG EDUCATION CAMPAIGN

In keeping with an objective approach to the drug problem, the United Front of Drug Free Communities is launching a major educational campaign in the Boston community on just what the facts are concerning methadone maintenance programs and the related dangers of methadone. Along with educating, the United Front of Drug Free Communities will be seeking signatures to a petition to have these programs brought under local community accountability.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

ARCHITECT'S DOCUMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On the nineteenth day of the current month, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request of your Honor, as I hereby do, written permission for the waiver of public advertising in the City Record in awarding to Ehrenzeller Associates, Engineers, of 45 Brookline Street, Abington, Mass., a contract for the purchase from Ehrenzeller Associates of working drawings and detailed specifications for additions and modifications to the heating system at the Hastings Street School in the West Roxbury district of the City of Boston at a cost not to exceed $4,600; and to authorize the Director to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The subject drawings and specifications are immediately available and have been drawn in accord with all pertinent City of Boston requirements and regulations. Their acquisition by the method outlined will be expeditious and the school heating system involved needs the additions and modifications which their use and application will effect.

Under the circumstances it is considered that nothing is to be gained through the pursuance of our customary advertising procedures which involve the inevitable consumption of time, a factor which is all important in this instance and one that cannot be disregarded. Thus the request to forego public advertising for competitive bids by advertisement in the City Record.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission has authorized the undersigned to request of your Honor, in its name and on its behalf, written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding to Hassan Mohammed of 301 Newbury Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to provide during the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, both dates inclusive, as ordered from time to time, consulting services pertaining to audio-visual design and installation at a cost for such services of not to exceed $10,000, payable at the rate of $35 per diem; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The procuring of the aforespecified services fills a need of this department which continues to exist and we know from experience that the aforesaid will provide us with the kind of expert assistance in the subject area of our work with which he will be directly connected.

Due to the unique and technical character of the services to be rendered here I am of the view that publicly inviting competitive bids for the same, would not be of avail to the city in this case.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

STEAM LINES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a most recent authorization given the undersigned so to do by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's executive authorization, in the name of and on behalf of that Commission, to dispense with a solicitation for competitive advertising therefor in the City Record in awarding a contract to Boston Edison Company, 800 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., providing for the furnishing and installing of the following (a) 60 feet of 4-inch steam line pipe for the projected new Nurses' Residence Building at Boston City Hospital, (b) 80 feet of 12-inch steam line pipe for the existing power plant at Boston City Hospital, and (c) 320 feet of 6-inch steam line pipe for the project Norcross School Building, at a cost for such services not to exceed $40,900; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The purpose of the aforementioned steam line installations at the named facilities is to provide heat from a dependable, constant, and efficient source. In case of the steam line running to the existing power plant at Boston City Hospital, the same will furnish heat for the entire existing plant. For the further information of your Honor, the cost of these installations is substantially less than the actual expense therefor to the Boston Edison Company.

Public advertising is not being pursued here as it would serve no useful purpose since the Boston Edison Company refuses such installations to be carried out by anyone other than their own firm.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

LEASING OF CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises from the Wil-Ten Company, Inc., 811 East Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes, specifically to provide office space for the assistant superintendent of schools for the Jamaica Plain district of the City of Boston, Mass. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to execute such lease upon the receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be included in the proposed lease are known and numbered Suite No. 207, 123 Morton Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass. The term of the lease shall be from April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973. The rent will be $3,090.36, payable in monthly installments of $257.53.

In addition, the lease includes a tax escalator clause that provides for a proportionate payment of any increase in taxes levied against the premises, in excess of the 1970 taxes. Also included is an option to extend this lease for an additional twelve month period upon expiration of the initial term.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary or convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be included in this lease consist of approximately 500 square feet known as Suite No. 107, at 280 Washington Street, Brighton, Mass. The lessor is Nibur Realty Trust, of the same address. The term of the lease shall be for one year beginning April 1, 1972, and the lease will contain an option to renew upon the same terms for two periods of twelve months each. The annual rental will be $2,940, payable in twelve equal monthly installments of $245. While this represents an increase, it is less than 10 percent and within the federal guidelines. In view of current economic conditions, we do not feel this increase to be unreasonable. The lease will also contain a tax escalator clause providing for a proportionate share of any tax increase over the 1972 taxes.

Incidentally, the City of Boston has utilized these premises since 1966 as office accommodations for the district assistant superintendent of schools.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be included in the proposed lease are Rooms 206 and 207, consisting of 505 square feet, at 6 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., to be used by the personnel relations coordinator and the labor relations consultant of the Boston School Department.

The effective date of the lease will be April 1, 1972, and the term will be one year only, terminating March 31, 1973. The lessor will provide heat. The rental will be $3,000 per year, payable at the rate of $250 monthly. A tax escalator clause based on the 1971 taxes is a part of the lease.

Since these premises are adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

EMERGENCY REPAIRS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the Deer Island House of Correction there exists a serious threat to life and property resulting from electric distribution wires, poles, and fixtures which were blown down during the storm from February 18 through February 20, 1972. The hazard exists in that portion of the electric system providing exterior security lighting. It has been necessary to maintain the remaining portion of this security lighting; however, in doing so, there are live wires on the ground and in contact with the security fence and other structures thereby presenting an extremely dangerous condition.

The emergency work to be done will be confined to temporary repairs to correct the hazardous condition. The scope of the work and the quantities of labor, materials, and equipment cannot be determined; therefore, it is my intention to engage the services of a contractor on a basis for contract wherein the contractor will be reimbursed for all direct cost of labor based on the prevailing wage rates with direct added cost, invoiced cost of materials and rental cost of equipment with the factor of 10 percent added to the cumulative total of the previous items and a second factor of 10 percent added to the cumulative total for a margin of profit.

The question as to eligibility and the prudence of doing this under emergency procedures and its relationship to the Federal Disaster Assistance Program has been presented to Walter Cameron, our Civil Defense Director and an agent from the Federal Government Office of Emergency Preparedness, both of whom concur that these emergency measures should take place.

Wherein the requirements of sections 44A to 44L of chapter 149 of the General Laws do not apply because this work does not involve a public building, your Honor's written approval is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the M. B. Foster Electric Company, 368 Congress Street, Boston, Mass., for an estimated cost for this emergency work not to exceed $6,000.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

PROFESSIONAL COUNSEL AND SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission by its recent action has authorized the undersigned to request your Honor, as I hereby so do, in its name and on its behalf, executive permission to dispense with a public invitation for proposals by advertising therefor in the City Record in awarding to James A. Hamilton Associates, Incorporated, a Minnesota corporation, duly licensed to do business in the State of Massachusetts, hospital consultants, of 2331 University Avenue Southeast, Minneapolis, Minnesota, a contract to provide the professional counsel and services necessary to produce (with close attention being paid by the consultation to the architectural drawings hitherto produced by the project architect) and to furnish to the city, in the form of a comprehensive written report, including detailed recommendations, an operational plan for the new Outpatient Building at a cost for such services not to exceed $50,000, to be paid at the rate of $30 per hour and in addition, the net cost of direct expenses, specifically authorized by and under the contract; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The proposed study and report shall cover (1) development of a three-year operating budget, (2) review of proposed clinics and system staffing, including analysis of and recommendations re each functional area and personnel category, (3) suggested architectural modifications to decrease operating costs, (4) preparing equipment list and the weighing of acquisition by lease vs. purchase of same, (5) evaluation of existing equipment, (6) recommendations re a phasing of equipment purchase, (7) development of a program for materials movement within the building, (8) recommendations and phasing of hiring of additional personnel for the new Outpatient Buildings, and (9) preparation of orientation materials for the move into the new building.

The prime objective of the proposed contract is to make available to administrative officers at BCH, through the medium of the Public Facilities Department, expert consultants who will review the functions of all departments of the new Outpatient Building with the ultimate goal of developing an efficient operating unit which, when completed, will represent the most efficient vehicle for the expenditure of those municipal funds devoted to that facility, from time to time.

Because of the professional, special, and technical nature of the services to be rendered under the proposed contract, public advertising here would not, it is believed, be in the public interest.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

CLEANING STREETS WITH MECHANICAL SWEEPERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time, the city has contracts for cleaning streets with mechanical sweepers with the following contractors:

W. J. Banfield, 530 East First Street, South Boston, Mass., for furnishing mechanical sweepers for the purpose of supplementing the department forces and equipment in connection with the work of keeping the streets clean in Areas 1, 2, and 3. The contract amount for Area 1 is $22,500, for Area 2, $20,800, for Area 3, $18,000.

V. J. Armata, 27 Wood Avenue, Mattapan, Mass., for cleaning streets with mechanical sweepers in District 1A, Charlestown. The contract amount is $35,824.

M & M Contracting Company, 139 Coleridge Street, East Boston, Mass., for cleaning streets with mechanical sweepers in District 3, North Dorchester. The contract amount is $77,304.

M & M Contracting Company, 139 Coleridge Street, East Boston, Mass., for cleaning streets with mechanical sweepers in District 7, South Dorchester. The contract amount is $68,986.

These contracts, as amended, will expire March 31, 1972. There is a provision in each of the contracts for renewal at the same terms and conditions for the contracts for the period commencing April 1, 1972, and ending November 30, 1972, at the option of the city.

It is my opinion that advertising for bids will result in higher prices for the work. Accordingly, your permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and renew the above contracts with W. J. Banfield, Vito Armata, and M & M Contracting Company.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CITY OF BOSTON

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

PROPOSALS FOR APPLYING PAVEMENT MARKINGS ON VARIOUS ROAD SURFACES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

The City of Boston, acting by the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, with offices at Room 721, City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States for applying pavement markings on various road surfaces in the City of Boston, Mass.

A performance bond and also a payment bond, each of a surety company satisfactory to the Commissioner and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 721, City Hall. Each proposal should be filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Applying Pavement Markings on Various Road Surfaces in the City of Boston, Mass.," one copy of which is to be left at Room 721, City Hall, before twelve noon on Friday, December 1, 1972, with a certified check for three percent (3%) of total bid price, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal or any item of a proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

CITY OF BOSTON,
WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner of Traffic and Parking.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTONDEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING, 11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR CARPENTRY WORK AT SOUTH BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL,
THOMAS PARK, SOUTH BOSTON, MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for carpentry work at South Boston High School, Thomas Park, South Boston, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Monday, December 4, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $300. The general bid shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed, shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids, if it be in the public interest so to do.

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Flexible Campus Program for Hub's High Schools

First Vice President C. Vincent Vappi has announced that, for the second consecutive year, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce will cooperate with the Boston School Department and the Lincoln Filene Center of Tufts University to conduct a "Flexible Campus Program" in Boston's fourteen area high schools. The program will be a project of the Youth Employment Sub-Group of the Chamber's Inner City Urban Affairs Task Force.

Under the auspices of the "Flexible Campus Program" interested high school students are given in-depth exposure to the operation of participating business firms. Last year, over fifty Boston area businesses took part, in a variety of ways: by taking student interns; by offering "mini-courses" on their respective operations; through a lecture program, involving company personnel; or by opening their firm or plant to student tour groups. The goal of the program is to stimulate the interest of high school students, both in their present curriculum and in future careers.

For its part, the Chamber will again contact some 5,000 businesses in the Greater Boston area, inviting them to participate in the '72-'73 programs. Those responding positively will make up the "Flexible Campus Resources Catalogue," which will be published by the Chamber and distributed to Flexible Campus Coordinators in the city's high schools.

In evaluating last year's "Flexible Campus Program," the Lincoln Filene Center of Tufts University gave the project high marks. The Center's report noted improvement in student attitudes toward school, sharper development of student career goals, and a decrease in youthful delinquency and vandalism in participating schools.

Businesses in the Greater Boston area interested in taking part in the 1972-73 "Flexible Campus Program" are asked to contact Ms. Simone Auster of the Chamber's Task Force Office at 426-1250.

DR. HAYES, WE'RE PROUD OF YOU

Dr. Marie T. Hayes, one of the administrators responsible for the success of South Boston High School's flexible campus program, has been named Massachusetts Teacher of the Year. Dr. Hayes heads an English department at South Boston High School.

She will be entered in the national Teacher of the Year competition sponsored by the Ladies Home Journal, Encyclopaedia Britannica, and the Council of Chief State School Officers.

A graduate of Emmanuel College, Dr. Hayes holds a master's degree in education from Boston State and a doctorate in education from Boston University. Her teaching started in 1952 at Girl's Latin School and in 1965 she joined the faculty at South Boston High School. We wish her success in her quest for the coveted title.

MAYOR LAUDS TEMPLE MEMBERS

Mayor Kevin White has announced that Temple Adas Hadrath Israel in Hyde Park will make a voluntary payment to the City of Boston in lieu of taxes.

"The members of Temple Hadrath Israel and their president, Maurice M. Kaufman, are to be praised for this civic-spirited action. Such contributions by tax-exempt institutions are drastically needed by the city if we are to continue to supply essential services to our residents," the Mayor said.

The amount of payment was undisclosed.

GOOD LUCK, JOHN!

John J. Wheeler, head stoneman at the City Printing Plant for twenty years, retired on October 31.

Prior to his retirement thirty of his fellow workers and Malcolm MacKinnon, president of the Boston Typographical Union, surprised him with a party at his home in Braintree and a purse from all members of the Printing Section.

John was involved for many years in union activities. During his tenure as chairman of the plant chapel the first contract between the employees and the city was signed. He was always available to resolve any problem that arose, and he will be greatly missed by his many friends.

FUNDS ALLOCATED TO MEDICAL RESEARCHERS

Four Massachusetts medical researchers are receiving grants this year thanks in part to local Christmas Seal contributions.

John J. Devlin, President of the Boston TB and Respiratory Disease Association announced that the four grants were part of $1,193,000 allocated by local, state, and national units of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association (NTRDA) to underwrite a wide range of investigations aimed at unveiling new information about lung diseases.

The local recipients and their areas of study are: Melvin W. First, Sc.D., Harvard School of Public Health, the effects of tobacco smoke pollution in public places; Dr. Sadamu Ishikawa, Tufts Lung Station, studies in lung physiology; Dorothy Sexton, R.N., Assistant Professor of Medical Surgical Nursing, Boston University School of Nursing, the relationship between knowledge of health beliefs and compliance with medical regimen; Robert W. Walker, Ph.D., Institute of Industrial Microbiology, University of Massachusetts, the human resistance factor to isoniazid (presently the major anti-TB drug).

The twenty-six grants awarded in the nationwide program range in amount from $1,500 to $15,600 and are designed to begin investigations that may later qualify for support by the federal government, foundations, or other sources.

In addition to Christmas Seal research grants, another $1,000,000 plus supports fellowships, faculty positions, and other programs designed to expand professional knowledge about emphysema, tuberculosis, and other respiratory diseases, Mr. Devlin said.

In renewing his appeal for contributions, he pointed out that emphysema alone more than doubles every five years.

"We face a long, hard battle against chronic lung diseases, and contributions to respiratory disease research through donations to Christmas Seals will help keep us in the fight."

SKATING RINKS OPEN

DIRECTIVE NO. 15 SKELETON FORCE FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1972

November 17.

To All Department Heads and County Officials.

Mayor White has directed that on Friday, November 24, 1972, the day after Thanksgiving Day, department heads, at their discretion, may declare a skeleton force.

It is understood, however, that sufficient personnel must report for work in order that the city's normal business can be conducted efficiently.

Director.

A WORTHY CAUSE

People who have trading stamps lying around in their glove compartments, in drawers, or in their pocketbooks, can clean out these spaces by donating the stamps or books of stamps to the Epilepsy Society of Massachusetts, to help them stamp out epilepsy.

What will the Society do with these trading stamps? In the four years since this public appeal began, the stamps have been redeemed for filing cabinets, a bookcase, an adding machine, and general office supplies. Using trading stamps for these necessities frees money to be spent on the many important services for the epileptic person himself.

The Epilepsy Society informs the epileptic about retraining programs, about insurance and social security benefits, tells him where to find medical treatment, and helps prepare him or her for a meaningful place in our society.

To do these things, a well-equipped, efficient office is a must. This year the Society needs typewriters, mimeo paper, filing cabinets, and other general supplies. Help stamp out epilepsy by sending your stamps or stamp books to the Epilepsy Society of Massachusetts, 140 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass. 02116.

SUBWAY POST OFFICES OPENED

Subway post offices opened on November 27 at Park Street and Washington Street for the 1972 Christmas season. Postmaster George K. Walker of the Boston Postal District, Joseph C. Kelly, General Manager of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, and William Phipps, Executive Director of the Retail Trade Board were on hand for the opening.

The two offices will be open daily for the sale of stamps from 7:30 A.M. to 6 P.M., Monday through Friday; and from 11 A.M. to 6 P.M. on Saturday, December 2, 9, and 16.

Boston is the only city in the world to establish a subway post office to assist commuters on public transportation. They have been very popular since their inauguration several years ago with the co-operation of the MBTA.

The Postmaster reminded the public that parcels for distant states should be in the mail no later than Monday, December 4, and greeting cards, by Sunday, December 10.

Christmas kits will be delivered to all homes in the Boston Postal District on December 7 and 8. Customers are requested to use the bands enclosed in the kits and separate their Christmas cards in three bundles: "Local," "Mass.," and "Out of State." Be sure to use Zip Code on your return address as well as to the addressee.

PARKING FEE REDUCED

The Boston Common Garage is offering reduced night parking rates and better bus service for Christmas shoppers.

From now through Christmas Eve shoppers may park at the garage from 6 to 10:30 P.M. for 50 cents instead of the usual $1.

The buses are free and the route has been altered in the evening to pick up customers along Washington Street, between Temple Place and Bromfield Street. Buses will leave the garage every fifteen minutes and will traverse the key streets of the downtown shopping district.

The shuttle buses will leave the garage, travel up Beacon Street, down Park Street to Tremont Street, take a left at Temple Place to Washington Street and to Bromfield Street.

They will then proceed up Bromfield onto Tremont and then down Boylston to Charles Street and back to the garage.

CHARCOAL AND CARBON MONOXIDE

Glowing charcoal fires take the chill off the cool night air. But inside closed spaces, charcoal fires in grills and hibachis can cause poisoning. Even fatal poisoning.

After cookouts, campers and hunters sometimes take makeshift burners inside station wagons and vans to warm up sleeping quarters. The still-burning coals, however, can give off a deadly concentration of carbon monoxide. The gas is a silent, unseen poison formed by the incomplete combustion of the carbon in charcoal.

In outdoor cookouts, the gas escapes into the open air. And fumes from indoor cooking on these burners usually force everyone to open windows fast. But in tightly closed places, levels of the gas soar. High concentrations of it starve the body tissues of oxygen.

The red-colored blood pigment, hemoglobin, acts like a gigantic sponge, soaking up carbon monoxide breathed through the lungs. Hemoglobin, which carries oxygen to the tissues, combines with carbon monoxide about 200 times easier than with oxygen. The brain and heart both depend upon a continuous supply of fresh oxygen; but carbon monoxide forces oxygen out of the blood.

At high altitudes, where the air is thinner, the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning is even greater. There is less oxygen in the air to begin with, and the body has to work harder to draw it in. And to make matters worse, starting at about 3,000 feet above sea level the lack of oxygen makes the charcoal less likely to burn completely, thus producing more carbon monoxide.

Carbon monoxide comes from car exhaust and cigarettes as well as charcoal burners. Contributions to Christmas Seals help call attention to the dangers of air pollution and chart ways to fight it as well as TB and emphysema. Answer your Christmas Seal letter today. It's a matter of life and breath.

JUSTIN L. O'FARRELL

A Memorial Mass was celebrated for Justin L. O'Farrell, P. E., at St. Anthony's Shrine, Arch Street, on November 28. Mr. O'Farrell, late supervising structural engineer of the Boston Building Department, formerly of 48 Avalon Road, West Roxbury, had recently retired and moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he died on November 19. Contributions in his memory may be made to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Justin O'Farrell Memorial Fund.

EXTRAORDINARY STEP-RATE ADVANCE UNDER COMPENSATION PLAN FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMISSION.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

MR. DUNCAN T. FOLEY,
Supervisor of Personnel.

DEAR MR. FOLEY:

The appointment of Paul F. White, 175 Atlantic Avenue, Hull, as supervisor of research with the Youth Activities Commission has been approved effective September 6, 1972.

Mr. White has had four years experience with the Massachusetts Department of Youth Services working in the planning of delinquency prevention programs as well as in the research and evaluation of existent programs throughout the Commonwealth.

Mr. White also has two years prior experience with the Peace Corps in Ecuador, working as a consultant to the Ecuadorian government in community organization and in the establishment of alternatives to juvenile detention centres. He also possesses a graduate degree in criminology with specialization in research and juvenile delinquency.

In view of Mr. White's service with the Commonwealth and his broad experience in the field of delinquency prevention, it is respectfully requested that his first, second, third, and fourth increments in the position of supervisor of research be determined under the provisions of Rule 6 (F) of the Youth Activities Commission Compensation Plan effective September 6, 1972.

Very truly yours,

PAUL V. McCAFFREY,
Executive Director.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

November 13.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions and Districts.
Subject: Release Time for Boston State College Students.

Two Copies — One for Posting

SIR:

As a result of advice received from the City of Boston Office of Labor Relations those officers enrolled in the 1972 freshmen class in the Baccalaureate Program at Boston State College shall be granted release time on the same basis as presently provided to the other participants in the program.

This action, however, is not to be construed as an extension of the release time concept. Rather, this order serves notice that on June 30, 1973, which is also the expiration date of the present agreement between the city and the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association, the release time benefit shall be terminated for all students entering the Boston State Program on or after September, 1973.

This order will take effect on November 13, 1972, and will supersede Special Order dated September 19, 1972, on this same subject.

November 14.

November 15.

Personnel Order No. 1

Robert J. di Grazia, having been appointed by Mayor Kevin H. White under the provisions of chapter 291, Acts of 1906, as amended by chapter 322 of the Acts of 1962, and having taken the oath of office on Wednesday, November 15, 1972, assumed his duties as Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

All existing Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, not inconsistent herewith, are hereby continued in full force and effect.

November 16.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Winter Parking Regulations.

SIR:

The following is a copy of the Winter Parking Regulations forwarded by the Boston Traffic and Parking Department for the information and guidance of this department.

Article IV, section 18 (Weather Emergency Regulations) is amended by striking out Emergency Prohibition No. 1 and Emergency Prohibition No. 2 and substituting new Emergency Prohibitions Nos. 1, 2, and 3 so that Article IV, section 18 (Weather Emergency Regulations) will read as follows:

Whenever impending weather conditions threaten to constitute a traffic hazard impairing transportation, the movement of food and fuel supplies, medical care, fire, health and police protection, and other vital facilities of the city, the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking may declare a weather emergency to exist and cause announcement thereof to be made by use of available news media. No driver shall park or stand any vehicle on any day from November fifteenth of each even-numbered year to March thirty-first, inclusive, of each following odd-numbered year on the odd-numbered side of any street, way, highway, road or parkway under the control of the city, outside of the Central Business District as described under Emergency Prohibition No. 3.

No driver shall park or stand any vehicle on any day from November fifteenth of each odd-numbered year to March thirty-first, inclusive, of each following even-numbered year on the even-numbered side of any street, way, highway, road or parkway under the control of the city, outside of the Central Business District as described under Emergency Prohibition No. 3.

Where the parking or standing of a vehicle is prohibited under the provisions of part 2 of section 3 of Article IV, or of part 2 of section 4 of Article IV A on one side of a street, way, highway, road, or parkway at all times, the prohibitions in the preceding paragraphs shall not apply.

The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall not apply to the parking or standing of a vehicle in municipal off-street parking areas or in portions of reservations surfaced for parking where angle parking is allowed under the provisions of Article IV, section 7, of these rules and regulations or on either side of the following streets or parts thereof, unless such parking or standing is otherwise prohibited.

The list of "streets or parts thereof" referred to in the preceding paragraph is on file at the office of the Traffic and Parking Department.

Emergency Prohibition No. 2 (Emergency Arteries)

No driver shall stop, stand or park any vehicle within the limits of the following traffic arteries, or parts thereof, provided that this regulation shall not apply to passenger vehicles stopped temporarily during the actual receiving or discharging of passengers nor to commercial vehicles stopped temporarily during the actual loading or unloading of materials:

The list of "traffic arteries or parts thereof" referred to in the preceding paragraph is on file at the office of the Traffic and Parking Department.

Emergency Prohibition No. 3 (Central Business District)

No driver shall stop, stand or park any vehicle in that part of the downtown area of the City of Boston bounded by the easterly line of North Washington Street, by the easterly line of Haymarket Square, by the northeasterly line of Blackstone Street, by the southeasterly line of North Street, by the northeasterly line of Cross Street, by the northwesterly line of Commercial Street, by the northerly line of Eastern Avenue and the northerly line of Eastern Avenue extended to Boston Harbor, by Boston Harbor and Fort Point Channel, by the southwesterly line of Summer Street, by the southeasterly line of Atlantic Avenue, by the southwesterly line of Kneeland Street, by the southeasterly line of Washington Street, by the westerly line of Broadway, by the westerly line of Park Square, by the westerly line of Charles Street, by the southerly line of Beacon Street, by the easterly line of Bowdoin Street, by the southerly line of Cambridge Street, by the westerly line of Staniford Street, by the northerly line of Causeway Street.

NOTE: All Parking Violation Notices issued during the Emergency Prohibitions Nos. 1, 2, and 3 will be classified under Code No. 30.

Streets referred to in the parking prohibitions as being on file at the Boston Traffic and Parking Department will be forwarded to all units upon receipt of same from the Parking Department.

General Order No. 57

November 17.

I. RETIREMENTS

The following retirement, in accordance with the provisions of section 5, chapter 32, G. L., as amended, which will become effective at 0800, December 1, 1972, is hereby announced:

Fire Capt. John C. T. Hawe, Ladder Company 4.

The following retirement, in accordance with the provisions of sections 7 and 94, chapter 32, G. L., which will become effective at 0800, December 1, 1972, is hereby announced:

Fire Lieut. George T. Dowd, Ladder Company 30.

Fire Capt. Hawe was appointed to the department May 20, 1942. He was promoted to the grade of fire lieutenant April 13, 1949, and to fire captain September 7, 1955. First Lieut. Dowd was appointed December 15, 1943, and was promoted to the grade of fire lieutenant January 14, 1948.

Both of these men leave the department with the best wishes of their associates.

II. FIRE ALARM BOX INSTALLED

The following fire alarm box has been installed, and company commanders will add it to circuit card No. 35:

12-2358, Deaconess Employees' Garage, Longwood Avenue and Pilgrim Road.

III. FIRE ALARM BOXES ESTABLISHED

In the near future, the following fire alarm boxes will be installed, and the circuit numbers will be announced at that time:

12-6221, Ramada Inn, 225 McClellan Highway (add to assignment card for Box 6221).

148 Washington Street and Kneeland Street (response same as Box 1491).

IV. G.A.C. DATA

Company commanders shall add the following signal numbers to running cards of the General Alarm Company in this department:

Signal 334, Gleason Associates, 185 Devonshire (automatic alarm). Apparatus to respond: Engine 25, Ladder 8, District 3. Nearest box is 1423.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

INSPECTION AND MAINTENANCE SERVICE FOR ELEVATORS

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record in awarding a contract to F. S. Payne Company for inspection and maintenance service for the elevators in City Hall. The equipment in the building is Payne Equipment and since the cost is reasonable and fair, it is advisable for the Payne firm to service it.

The period of this agreement is April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973. This is for renewal of last year's contract. The cost will not exceed $19,500.

In view of the circumstances, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

SERVICE AND MAINTENANCE OF ESCALATORS

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding to the Otis Elevator Company a contract for service and maintenance of the four escalators in City Hall for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, at a monthly cost of $653.47. The price, I believe, is fair and reasonable and since the escalators were installed in City Hall by the Otis Elevator Company and they have rendered very satisfactory maintenance service since then it is appropriate that that firm continue. Public advertising in the City Record would, I believe, serve no useful purpose.

Yours truly,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

DISPOSAL OF WASTE PRODUCTS, QUINCY MARKET
YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding to James H. Freaney, Inc., Disposal Contractors, One Wadleigh Place, South Boston, Mass., a contract for service of a 2½-yard compacting unit and dumpster for disposal of waste products for the Quincy Market for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, at a monthly cost of $448.

James H. Freaney, Inc., the only bidder, has recently been awarded a contract for the same services for the new Boston City Hall. Since this firm's services and price are fair and reasonable, in my opinion, public advertising in the City Record would serve no useful purpose in this instance.

Respectfully,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENGINEERING,
11 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR FIRE DAMAGE REPAIRS AT VARIOUS SCHOOLS, BOSTON, MASS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston, acting by the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of Planning and Engineering, Boston, Mass., hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for fire damage repairs at various schools, Boston, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, December 19, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, first floor, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bid shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $4,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, December 12, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical	$300
Painting	500
Iron Work.....	200
Floor Covering.....	200
Plastering	350

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the day fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade, nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders, may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of the subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Repairs to Decking of Reservation Road Bridge Over Mother Brook, Hyde Park.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for repairs to decking of Reservation Road Bridge over Mother Brook, Hyde Park.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall. The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked, "Proposal for Repairs to Decking of Reservation Road Bridge Over Mother Brook, Hyde Park," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 P.M. of THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1972, with a certified check for ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS ($1,950), payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 805 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR COPLEY SQUARE HIGH SCHOOL ELEVATOR AND SERVICE LIFT.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for Copley Square High School elevator and service lift.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 27, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $2,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 20, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Elevator$1,700

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Wednesday, December 6, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Site Preparation Contract No. 12 in the Fenway Urban Renewal Area No. Mass. R-115, located in the City of Boston, Mass., until 12 noon (Eastern Standard Time) on the fourteenth day of December, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 921, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass., Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work will consist of construction to the degree of completeness as shown on the plans of: cleaning and centrifugal lining with cement mortar of the interior of existing cast-iron water mains, the installation of new cast-iron and/or ductile iron water mains and appurtenances, the installation of temporary bypass mains, hydrants, the removal and salvage of existing hydrants, valves, water mains, and other appurtenances in the following streets: Huntington Avenue (from Longwood Avenue to West Newton Street), Vancouver Street, Museum Road, Forsyth Way, and Gainsborough Street.

Proposal forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of each proposal for Site Preparation Contract No. 12.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract price, will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

One copy of the proposal shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a certified check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $1,000. The duplicate copy of the proposal shall be filed with the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass., previous to the time named for the opening of proposals. The proposals shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of proposals.

No proposal may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing proposals and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the proposals. In addition, no proposal filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time thereafter.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and for the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Monday, December 4, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority.

A performance bond of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority, and in the sum of $3,000, will be required of the successful bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all proposals or any item or items of a proposal, if it be in the public interest so to do.

500 ARBORWAY, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02130

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bid or proposals for M.B.T.A. Contract YS-108/110 (Project Value $36.0) will be received by the Contract Administrator at the office of the Director of Planning and Construction, 500 Arborway, Boston, Massachusetts 02130, until two o'clock (2 P.M.) (Eastern Standard Time) on January 4, 1973, immediately after which, in a designated room, the proposals will be opened and read publicly.

The above-numbered contract is more fully described as follows: (CLASS 5—ELECTRICAL) (PART A) INSTALLATION OF SUBSTATION EQUIPMENT AND (PART B) TRACTION POWER WORK, SOUTH BAY MAINTENANCE CENTER, Boston, Massachusetts.

The work to be performed under this contract consists of the following:

PART A

a. Installation of primary power distribution and traction power substation equipment in existing Substation Building.

b. Installation of primary feeders from substation to R.T. Shop Building.

a. D.C. switchgear in three switchhouses and associated control wiring.

b. Complete contact rail installation.

c. Wayside disconnect switches and distribution panels.

d. Positive feeders from substation D.C. switchgear to switchhouses and from switchhouses to contact rails via distribution panels and wayside switches.

e. Negative feeders from negative switchboard in substation to running rails and/or impedance bonds.

f. Cross bonds and track jumpers.

The work area under this contract is located in South Boston, bounded by Dorchester Avenue on the east, Fort Point Channel on the north, Penn-Central Railroad yard on the west, and Midland Branch Railroad on the south.

Each prospective bidder proposing to bid on this project must be prequalified in accordance with the Authority's "Procedures Governing Classification and Rating of Prospective Bidders." Copies may be obtained from the Contract Administrator's office at 500 Arborway, Boston, Mass. 02130. Requests for prequalification for this project will not be accepted by the Authority after the tenth (10th) day preceding the date for the opening of bids.

Prequalified bidders may obtain from the Contract Administrator a "Request for Proposal Form" which must be properly filled out and submitted for approval. A deposit of twenty-five dollars ($25) will be required for plans, specifications, and other contract documents, excluding the Authority's General Requirements and Covenants (Division I), which charge will not be refunded. Copies of Division I are available in a separate volume from the Contract Administrator at a separate charge of $5 per copy which is not refundable.

Any person may purchase copies of the plans and specifications for information purposes only, upon payment of the required charge.

Bidding documents will be mailed by parcel post upon request and receipt of an additional postage and handling charge of $10, payable by separate check, which amount will not be refunded.

Complete information and authorization to view the site may be obtained from the Project Manager, Mr. Richard J. Dempsey, at the address above (Tel. No. 722-6388).

A prebid conference will be held on December 19, 1972, at 10 A.M. (Eastern Standard Time), in the office of the Planning and Construction Directorate, 500 Arborway, Boston, Mass. It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications to be discussed at that time should be submitted in writing no later than December 14, 1972, to the Director of Planning and Construction.

This contract is subject to a financial assistance contract between the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority and the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work, and particularly to the bid conditions outlining affirmative action requirements in connection with equal employment opportunity, which must be submitted as part of the bid.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in the form of cash or a certified check or a treasurer's or cashier's check, issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority. A bid bond will not be accepted.

The right is reserved to waive any informality in or to reject any or all proposals. A proposal which includes for any item a bid that is abnormally low or high may be rejected as unbalanced.

An award will not be made to any contractor whose name appears on the United States Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors for federally financed and assisted construction.

It is a condition of this contract, and shall be made a condition of each subcontract entered into pursuant to this contract, that the contractor and any subcontractor shall not require any laborer or mechanic employed in performance of the contract to work in surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary, hazardous, or dangerous to his health or safety, as determined under construction safety and health standards (Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1518—published in the Federal Register on April 17, 1971) promulgated by the United States Secretary of Labor, in accordance with Section 107 of the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act (83 Stat. 96).

The contractor shall be required to pay minimum wages in accordance with the schedules listed in the special provisions, which wage rates have been predetermined.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a performance bond for the full amount of the contract, as well as a labor and materials payment bond in the sum of 50 percent of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR EXTERIOR LIGHTING AT BRIGHTON BRANCH LIBRARY.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for exterior lighting at Brighton branch library.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 27, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $300. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time thereafter.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 20, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical$100

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Friday, December 8, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1972

NO. 50

911 Boston's New Emergency Telephone Number

The Boston Police Department has inaugurated 911 emergency telephone service as part of a new $1.5 million, vastly-improved communications system designed to speed response to emergency calls, it was announced recently by Mayor Kevin White.

The 911 emergency telephone number will serve both the Boston Police and Fire Departments from telephones within the city limits. The new three-digit number replaces the familiar 338-1212 emergency number for the Police Department and the 536-1500 number for fire emergencies.

"With the inauguration of 911 services and the Police Department's space-age communications system, Boston will step out in front of most cities in the nation in its fight against crime in the streets," the Mayor said. "In addition to speeding response time, the new system, we hope, will increase the safety of the man in the streets by making help available to him through the use of a portable radio system that provides instantaneous communications between Headquarters and every policeman in the city."

Bruce Harriman, New England Telephone Vice President and General Manager for Massachusetts, said "The introduction of 911 in Boston is part of a long-range Bell System program to help establish a standard nationwide emergency telephone number."

Mr. Harriman said that as part of this program, Boston becomes the sixteenth Massachusetts community to receive 911. At the end of 1971, there were 184 communities in the United States being served by 911. Fifty-seven additional cities are scheduled for this year.

Mayor White stressed that Boston residents should dial 9-1-1 only for police and fire emergencies. All other calls should be directed through the administrative numbers (Police 536-6700; Fire 442-8000) of the Police and Fire Departments.

"Installation of the 911 service was a primary recommendation of a city-wide crime study by the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee," Mayor White noted. "With the inauguration of 911 service, any Boston telephone subscriber can be connected directly to the Police Communications Center almost instantly — without having to look up a number, without calling an operator, without delays caused by overloaded circuits at Headquarters."

The Mayor also said the number of incoming emergency lines at the Police Communications Center has been doubled from fifteen to thirty, also in an effort to speed response by police and fire units.

The new communications system centralizes control at Police Headquarters rather than at the district stations. The city has been divided into three communications zones, each with its own dispatcher.

In addition, the dispatchers will have instantaneous two-way communications with every policeman in the city through portable radios.

Each dispatcher will have before him a lighted display of the entire radio system, showing what channels are busy, what channels are calling, what channels are clear, and what transmitting site is being used. The dispatcher also will have another lighted display which shows the available patrol cars in his zone as well as a picture of coverage in the rest of the city.

In cases of incidents that would be of interest to cars in more than one zone, the dispatcher can transmit on any or all channels. This would be done in the case of a city-wide emergency or to relay important information.

In addition to the three zone dispatchers, another dispatcher assigned to a stolen car check computer and a computer linked to the National Crime Information Center will broadcast over a city-wide information and inquiry channel.

Every policeman in the city has been given briefings at roll call as well as a four-page explanation of the system, which was partly financed by federal funds.

HUB INTRODUCES NEW PROGRAM

A new economic stimulation program for the City of Boston has been announced by Mayor Kevin H. White and Gerald W. Bush, Boston's Commerce and Manpower Director. The program will be directed by George R. Berbeco, formerly an investment consultant in this city.

The purpose of the program as outlined by Mr. Bush and Mr. Berbeco is to assist Boston business in the following ways:

"To stimulate employment in Boston by helping small and medium-sized businesses of all types to receive long-term (fifteen to twenty-five years), low-interest (5½ percent) financing to expand operations and hire more people; to help businesses receive financing assistance to comply with environmental protection regulations and reduce pollution; to develop minority business opportunities."

This program is being sponsored as part of the Small Business Administration's implementation of its Section 502 Local Development Company program in major cities across the country.

Local Development Company program has been very successful; during its ten years of operation it has created or preserved over 160,000 jobs in more than 3,000 small business projects across the country—mostly in rural areas. A new effort to step up the Local Development Company program in order to have a major job development and minority business ownership impact in urban areas has been initiated.

An experienced business analyst and long-time Boston area resident, Mr. Berbeco has been active in Boston community and philanthropic affairs for several years. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and also attended the Sloan School of Management.

Companies wishing to discuss this long-term, low-interest loan assistance should contract Mr. Berbeco at 722-4100, ext. 8855, or write care of Boston City Hall.

STAMP ALBUMS AVAILABLE

The 1972 commemorative stamp folders, described by Postmaster George K. Walker "as the best way to begin a stamp collection," are now available in all post offices in the Boston Postal District and selected cities in Sectional Centers 017 and 020.

A new stamp honoring stamp collecting is also available. It features the first United States postage stamp, issued 125 years ago, according to the Postmaster.

"We are again pleased that we can make available these attractive mini-albums, which this year contain see-through mounts that will allow budding collectors to keep the stamps in their original condition," the Postmaster said.

Postmaster Walker said the albums also show a reproduction of the first United States postage stamp, issued in 1847, containing a likeness of Benjamin Franklin, our first Postmaster General.

Primarily designed to encourage stamp collecting by young persons, the kits for 1972 contain thirty-one commemorative stamps, some general information on stamp collecting, and capsule comments on each of the commemorative stamps. The kits cost $3 each.

DANCING EXHIBITIONS

Los Supays, a Bolivian folkloric group now on a tour of the United States and Canada, will present in costume Christmas dances and music from South America at Boston City Hall on Monday, December 11, at 2:30 P.M.

Also at City Hall on Monday, December 18, at 3:30 P.M., the Maureen Hansen Irish dancers, a group of twenty children and teenagers from Boston area schools, will perform a program of Irish holiday dances.

Both special events are part of Boston's twenty-second annual Christmas Festival, according to the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs.

MODEL CITIES PROGRAM AUDITED AND IS A1

Boston's Model Cities Program has been spending money legally, efficiently, and effectively for the last three years according to an official audit that was released on November 29.

The study, requested by the City Council in November of 1971, was made by the Boston firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell, & Co., certified public accountants.

"I am greatly encouraged by the highly favorable report we have received," Mayor Kevin White said.

"This professionally documented testimony to the economic integrity and stability of the Model Cities Program should be highly reassuring to all citizens.

"This report confirms what I have always known, namely, that Model Cities is supplying valuable services throughout the community in a thoroughly professional and effective manner," the Mayor added.

The Peat, Marwick, Mitchell, & Co. report contains an audit and analysis of Model Cities Administration operations as well as opinions on independent audits performed on twenty-seven public and private agencies which have received Model Cities funds. The final report was made once all audits from other operating agencies were received.

The Peat, Marwick, Mitchell, & Co. audit concludes that no money has been abusively spent or illegally used out of a three-year $23,154,000 budget, committed by the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to the Model Cities Agency.

The report states that:
No unusual transactions were noted.

Activities undertaken were in accordance with the terms of the contracts.

Costs incurred were in accordance with contractual terms.

The report did offer fourteen recommendations for improving the operation of the Model Cities Program even more. Model Cities Administrator Paul Parks has already instituted a number of these recommendations with several more soon to follow.

"All the recommendations in the Peat, Marwick, Mitchell, & Co. report are quite common in reports of this kind and we welcome their suggestions," Mayor White said.

"The report showed no mismanagement or misuse of funds and these recommendations will simply make the Model Cities operation even more effective."

HARVARD APPOINTMENT

Dr. Aldo Castaneda, a cardiovascular surgeon with wide experience in surgery for congenital heart defects, has been appointed Professor of Surgery at the Harvard Medical School. His appointment, which became effective September 1, 1972, is announced by Robert H. Ebert, M.D., Dean of the Faculty of Medicine. Dr. Castaneda also serves as Cardiovascular Surgeon-in-Chief at the Children's Hospital Medical Center.

Dr. Castaneda succeeds Dr. Robert E. Gross, who established the new field of cardiovascular surgery in 1938 when he successfully repaired a patent ductus arteriosus (a fetal vessel in the heart which fails to close properly after birth) for the first time. Dr. Gross retired on August 31, 1972, leaving the Pediatric Cardiology Unit at the Children's Hospital Medical Center, the largest in the United States. Since the program began, more than 7,000 cardiac operations and more than 5,000 cardiac catheterizations have been performed.

Dr. Castaneda, a naturalized United States citizen originally from Guatemala, served formerly as Professor of Surgery at the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis. He joined the Faculty of Medicine there in 1964.

He is married and has three children. He lives in Chestnut Hill, Mass.

PARK PLAZA CLOSER TO REALITY

Statement of Mayor Kevin White

The Governor's announcement, representing nearly six months of negotiations between the Boston Redevelopment Authority and the State Department of Community Affairs, is most encouraging.

We are hopeful, too, that the Park Plaza project will clear its remaining hurdles without undue delay so that we may get on with the task of rebuilding the Park Square area. At stake is the future economic well-being of the City of Boston.

Park Plaza will provide 3,000 new construction jobs, 9,000 new permanent jobs, and generate millions of dollars in new tax revenue to the city each year.

No other urban renewal program in the city's history has come under closer scrutiny, stimulated more debate, and garnered more public support. We, therefore, feel that the state now has reason to believe that Park Plaza truly is in the public interest.

The task of convincing the state of the merits of the plan in view of its initial setback fell upon the BRA, the city's renewal and planning agency. BRA Director Robert Kenney and his staff are to be commended for their dedication and determination in the city's effort to save Park Plaza from defeat.

NEW DIRECTOR

Mayor White on December 1 named Katharine D. Kane to direct the city's official observance and celebration of the nation's two hundredth anniversary. Mrs. Kane is presently director of the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs and Summerthing. "Kathy Kane has done an outstanding job," Mayor White said. "Her creative talent coupled with her ability to organize led me to select her for this most challenging assignment."

PUBLIC ASKED TO SEPARATE AND BAND CARDS

In an effort to cut down the handling and the costs of 350 million Christmas cards to be mailed in the Boston Postal District this month, letter carriers delivered on December 8 and 9, 625,000 kits to homes within the twenty-five cities and towns of the Boston Postal District.

As explained in each kit, the bands enclosed are for use in packaging Christmas cards which have been separated as follows:

Local (all cards for your city or town).

Massachusetts (outside of the local).

Out of State.

Postmaster George K. Walker stated that 60 percent of all Christmas cards mailed in your hometown are for delivery in your hometown.

"If the cards are separated and bundled with the appropriate bands as contained in the kits, they will be retained at the local post office and sorted directly to the carrier routes without having to be distributed and rehandled in large centralized mail centers," said the Postmaster.

Where possible, the packaged cards should be deposited at the local post office where special racks have been set up in the lobby for this neighborhood Christmas mail. Additional bands can be obtained through your letter carrier or at the local post office.

Customers are urged to purchase Christmas stamps as early as possible for all their greeting cards. The designs for two 1972 Christmas stamps have been announced. Santa Claus will appear on one of the two stamps. The other stamp will reproduce two angels, a detail from a National Gallery of Art painting, "Mary, Queen of Heaven," done in the fifteenth century by an unknown artist.

Since all Christmas cards this year will require eight cents postage, sealed or unsealed, a return address on all mail will permit the return of cards which are undeliverable. Further, all cards can be forwarded this year to new addresses which are on file at the post office.

Postmaster Walker also called attention to the form contained in the Christmas kit which lists the Zip Code for that home for inclusion in the return address on cards.

Closing dates for continental United States are: parcel post, December 10; greeting cards, December 15; and airmail, December 21.

COMMISSIONER THUMA HONORED

Boston Building Commissioner Richard R. Thuma, Jr., was honored as "The Construction Man of the Year" by the Master Builders Association of Boston.

The award, a beautiful bronze plaque, was presented to Commissioner Thuma at the Association's annual dinner on Thursday, November 30, at the Stadium Club, Schaeffer Stadium, Foxboro.

The Master Builders Association, organized in 1885, is the oldest active construction organization in Boston.

VETERANS' SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Expenditures for veterans' benefits for September show a decrease of $443,027.85 in comparison with the expenditures for the period of September, 1971. This is due in part to the number of accumulated bills paid during the month.

The 3,360 cases aided during the month of September represented a total of 6,395 individuals benefited through the facilities of the Veterans' Services Department.

There were sixty-four cases closed during the month of September because of obtaining employment, having been awarded unemployment compensation, receiving social security, and becoming eligible to receive financial assistance for miscellaneous reasons.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals therefor in the City Record, and to award a contract to Allan W. Drachman of 115 Mayo Road, Wellesley, Mass., for labor relations consulting services for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a monthly rate of $1,791.66.

Mr. Drachman, as a former assistant corporation counsel specializing in labor matters, has the necessary experience and expertise to assist the city in its conduct of labor relations matters and has, since January 1, 1970, provided satisfactory service and is presently serving under a contract which terminates March 31, 1972.

The total cost of the proposed agreement for the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, will not exceed $21,500.

In view of the professional nature of the services to be performed hereunder, it is my opinion that public advertising for proposals could serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

Purchasing Division VARIOUS FORMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of requisitions from the Assessing Department for various forms. Attached is copy of memorandum received from the Commissioner of Assessing requesting that the forms requested be purchased from Moore Business Forms, Inc., because of past experience. This company has submitted informal written quotations.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Moore Business Forms, Inc. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract as requested.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $17,377.16, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

CITY DIRECTORIES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Police Department for twenty-five (25) R. L. Polk city directories. R. L. Polk Company, who is the sole supplier of these directories, has submitted an informal written quotation.

Since this company is the sole supplier, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices. Authority is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to R. L. Polk Company. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract as requested.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $2,375, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS PREPARATION OF VOTING MACHINES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under the terms of a current vote, the Boston Election Commission authorized me in its name and on its behalf to request, as I now do, from your Honor, executive permission to dispense with the customary advertising in the City Record in awarding to Election Machine Service Company, Inc., with offices at Ashville, New York, a contract to assist the Voting Machine Division of our department in the preparation of voting machines for the April 25, 1972, Presidential Primary at a cost of such services not to exceed $18,000, and to authorize the Chairman to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The foregoing action was necessary because of the extremely large and complicated ballots for the Primary and the extensive mechanical set-up work required.

The above-named corporation is the manufacturer's representative for Automatic Voting Machine Corporation, and was able to supply the Boston Election Department with trained voting machine mechanics for this function.

In view of the very special nature of the services furnished here it is not considered that public advertising would be in the best interest of this municipality.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH D. MURPHY,
Chairman.

FIRE DEPARTMENT AUTO BODY REPAIR WORK

DEAR SIR:

Subject to your Honor's approval, I will award a contract, without public advertising, to Fitzpatrick Brothers Corporation, 42 Sharp Street, Dorchester, Mass., for repairing damaged or defective body parts on passenger cars and commercial vehicles of the Fire Department.

The contract will be in effect from April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, and the cost for the entire period will not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), with a limit on each repair job of $150. Work on a vehicle estimated to cost more than $150 would be the subject of a competitive bid by this contractor and another contractor under similar contract.

The foregoing company has performed auto body repair work for this department in the past. Their work has been very satisfactory, and their rates have always been fair and reasonable.

I do not believe that any advantage or savings would accrue to the city in public advertising for bids on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. KELLY,
Fire Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

Subject to your Honor's approval, I will award a contract, without public advertising, to Acme Auto Body Company, Inc., 3430 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for repairing damaged or defective body parts on passenger cars and commercial vehicles of the Fire Department.

The contract will be in effect from April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, and the cost for the entire period will not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), with a limit on each repair job of $150. Work on a vehicle estimated to cost more than $150 would be the subject of a competitive bid by this contractor and another contractor under a similar contract.

The foregoing company has performed auto body repair work for this department in the past. Their work has been very satisfactory, and their rates have always been fair and reasonable.

I do not believe that any advantage or savings would accrue to the city in public advertising for bids on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. KELLY,
Fire Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

Subject to your Honor's approval, I will award a contract without public advertising, to Columbus Auto Body, Inc., 269 Washington Street, Dorchester, Mass., for repairing damaged or defective body parts on passenger cars and commercial vehicles of the Fire Department.

The contract will be in effect from April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, and the cost for the entire period will not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), with a limit on each repair job of $150. Work on a vehicle estimated to cost more than $150 would be the subject of a competitive bid by this contractor and another contractor under a similar contract.

The foregoing company has performed auto body repair work for this department in the past. Their work has been very satisfactory, and their rates have always been fair and reasonable.

I do not believe that any advantage or savings would accrue to this city in public advertising for bids on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. KELLY,
Fire Commissioner.

REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE WORK

DEAR SIR:

Because of the ever-increasing demand for fire protection and the attendant need for sophisticated fire equipment and vehicles to provide such protection, it has become increasingly difficult to repair and maintain the equipment, in question, in a manner commensurate with the need. More specifically the department's equipment and vehicles now require greater skill to repair and maintain them and such repair and maintenance must be immediately available. It was therefore necessary for this department to seek all available firms with the various required skills who would be willing to bid from time to time on repair and maintenance work requiring immediate attention.

Below is a list of available firms specializing in one or more of the repair maintenance skills required by the department. In each instance where immediate repairs are required and two or more of the firms listed below are skilled in the specific area needed, bids shall be requested from each firm under contract. Inasmuch as the services involved are of such a nature that no useful purpose would be served by inviting bids by advertisement in the City Record, your written permission is respectfully requested to award contracts to the firms listed below, without advertising, for the period from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, and the cost for the entire period will not exceed $136,000.

A & J Auto Ignition Company, 55 Brighton Avenue, Brighton (will not exceed $5,000).
Arcand Spring, Inc., 229 Brighton Avenue, Brighton (will not exceed $6,000).
Bay State Auto Spring, Inc., 83 Hampden Street, Roxbury, (will not exceed $6,000).
Bay State Engine Rebuilders, Inc., 67 Chelsea Street, Everett (will not exceed $8,000).
Beacon Radiator Company, 110 Brookline Avenue, Boston (will not exceed $3,000).
Carlson Tire and Alignment Company, 610 Gallivan Boulevard, Dorchester, (will not exceed $4,000).

East Coast Equipment Corporation, 349 Lincoln Street, Hingham, (will not exceed $11,000).

Fitzpatrick Brothers Corporation, 42 Sharp Street, Dorchester (will not exceed $11,000).

Hubbs Engine Company, 295 Mishawum Road, Woburn (will not exceed $5,000).

International Harvester Company, 230 Southampton Street, Roxbury (will not exceed $2,000).

Massachusetts Truck Body and Trailer, Inc., 60 Arlington Street, Chelsea (will not exceed $7,000).

Superior Court Criminal Business LEASING OF COPYING EQUIPMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request that your written authority be granted to dispense with advertising in the City Record for the purpose of inviting proposals for leasing of copying equipment and to award the Xerox Corporation a contract for the rental of a Xerox copying machine for the period beginning April 1, 1972, to and including March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $7,200, which amount, I believe is fair and reasonable.

Further, in view of the type and quality of the machine and the service to be provided, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
EDWARD V. KEATING,
Clerk.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR INCINERATOR REPAIRS AT MATTAPAN CHRONIC DISEASE HOSPITAL, MATTAPAN, MASS.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for incinerator repairs at Mattapan Chronic Disease Hospital, Mattapan, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, January 9, 1973, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $1,500. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Thursday, December 28, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical	$100
Plumbing	100

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Thursday, December 14, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR ELECTRICAL ALTERATIONS, QUINCY MARKET BUILDING, NORTH AND SOUTH MARKET STREETS, BOSTON, MASS.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for electrical alterations, Quincy Market building, North and South Market Streets, Boston, Mass.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Tuesday, January 9, 1973, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $2,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 27, 1972, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Electrical$1,950

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Tuesday, December 12, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

ONE CITY HALL SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Boston Redevelopment Authority will receive sealed bids for Site Preparation Contract No. 1 in the East Boston N.D.P. Project No. Mass. A-3, located in the City of Boston, Mass., until 12:30 P.M. (Eastern Standard Time) on the twenty-first day of December, 1972, at City Hall, ninth floor, Room 921, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass., attention of Engineering Department, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work will consist of installation of embankment and roadways up to binder course, installation of a concrete crib wall, installation of new cast-iron and/or ductile iron water mains and hydrants, installation of new sanitary sewer and storm drain pipes, catch-basins and manholes, installation of street light bases and conduits and other appurtenances in the following streets: Bremen Street, Webster Street, Public Street (Mill Street), Lewis Street, and Marginal Street.

Proposal forms of contract documents, including drawings and technical specifications, are on file at the office of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, City Hall, ninth floor, Room 920, One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of each proposal for Site Preparation Contract No. 1.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority and each in the sum of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract price, will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

REAL PROPERTY BOARD OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

INVITATION FOR PROPOSALS FOR LEASING OF PUBLIC PARKING FACILITY AT 50 SUDBURY STREET, IN THE GOVERNMENT CENTER, BOSTON, MASS.

The Real Property Board of the City of Boston, hereinafter called the Board, invites from individual citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, proposals for leasing for the term of one (1) year beginning January 4, 1973, and ending January 3, 1974, unless earlier terminated in accordance with the conditions as more fully set forth in the form of lease, the public parking facility situated at 50 Sudbury Street, in the Government Center, Boston, more particularly described in Schedule A of the form of lease, upon the covenants, agreements, and conditions contained in the form of lease which, with the form of proposal, may be obtained daily (except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) between 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. at the office of the Board, Room 811, City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston. The covenants and agreements contained in the lease will require, among other conditions, that the lessee will maintain and operate the parking facility at all times in a manner fully satisfactory to the Real Property Board of the City of Boston.

Proposals shall be submitted in duplicate on forms obtained as aforesaid. Each copy of the proposal shall be properly filled out, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and marked "Proposal for Leasing of Public Parking Facility at 50 Sudbury Street, in the Government Center, Boston." One copy of the proposal shall be filed with the Board at its said office at or before 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, December 19, 1972, at which time and place all proposals will be publicly opened and read. The copy of the proposal filed with the Board shall be accompanied by a bid deposit of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), made under the terms stated in the form of proposal in the form of cash or a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, and shall also be accompanied by written evidence of the ability of the bidder to furnish the performance bond (or cash in lieu thereof) provided for in the form of lease. The other copy of the proposal shall be filed by the bidder before said day and hour at the office of the City Auditor, Room M4, City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston.

The attention of all bidders is particularly directed to the provisions of Schedule C attached to the form of lease.

No proposal shall be withdrawn after the day and hour hereinbefore set for the opening of proposals.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all proposals.

Merry Christmas - Happy New Year

City Record

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1972

NO. 51

PWD Prepared for Winter Emergencies

Public Works Commissioner Joseph F. Casazza announced on December 1, 1972, that the city's snow emergency center, which coordinates the activities of several municipal departments, is ready to cope with any major snowfall of the season.

Mr. Casazza urged residents who require assistance or want to register a complaint during a snow emergency not to call the district offices of the Public Works Department. Those telephones will be answered by a recording and the caller will be advised to dial the storm emergency center at 722-4530.

The center, located in Boston Civil Defense offices on the first floor of City Hall, goes into operation when conditions warrant.

Telephone calls to the center for assistance or complaint will be channeled to the proper municipal department or public utility. The center operates round-the-clock for the duration of a snow emergency. The central number, 722-4530, serves to prevent plugging of switchboards of the operating departments, which, on occasion, have been unable to function properly because of the flood of incoming calls, the commissioner said.

Under the immediate direction of Deputy Public Works Commissioner John F. Flaherty, the center is staffed by a minimum of twenty-three persons on two twelve-hour shifts. The staff includes representatives of the Traffic and Parking, Fire, and Police Departments, Civil Defense, MBTA, and Public Works. In addition, representatives of the utility companies are on call.

As calls are received in the center, requests for emergency assistance or complaints are relayed to the appropriate department representative or Public Works yard by teletypewriter, radio, or telephone hot line.

The Public Works Department has eighty-two salt spreaders and 380 heavy-duty trucks (120 city-owned and 260 contractor-owned) ready for plowing, Mr. Casazza said. Each plow will be assigned a specific route. If an emergency arises, such as need for an ambulance, a plow will be rerouted or special equipment will be sent to provide access.

TO YOU FROM US

The staff of the City Record wishes to extend to all our patrons best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. To echo our sentiments in a more personal way, we feel an old-fashioned "thank you" is appropriate at this time.

We realize more than ever how important it is to have the friendship and confidence of all our City Record readers.

May the coming year bring peace, health, and happiness to you and your loved ones.

HEART FUND CHAPTER FETES VOLUNTEERS

The Greater Boston Chapter of the Massachusetts Heart Association, in a special salute to more than 600 Heart Fund volunteers, showed their appreciation to these exceptionally kind, thoughtful, and dedicated workers for the cause, by tendering a special wine-tasting reception in their honor here in City Hall, Friday evening, December 1. An aura of conviviality pervaded the room (fifth floor exhibit gallery) for almost three hours. A small combo provided excellent dance music, superb wines from the world's best vintners were served, along with cheese, crackers, and most palatable tidbits. The accommodations for this event were made through the courtesy of Mayor Kevin H. White, 1973 Heart Fund Honorary Chairman, and George T. Nedder, 1973 General Chairman. Mr. Nedder is presently Director of the One Stop Business Service for the City of Boston and is an active Heart Volunteer serving as Regional Chairman for twenty-one communities in the 1971 campaign. During the evening, many of the guests remarked that "George Nedder as a crowd-gatherer was in a class by himself," a well-deserved accolade. Mayor White is a long-time Heart Fund supporter and will aid in the 1973 drive in the coming months.

Heart Fund . . .

The campaign is now in its planning stages and Mr. Nedder will be working with Heart Fund leaders throughout Greater Boston in organizing fund-raising events and activities for February.

In the reception line greeting the guests were George T. and Helen Nedder, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Sasahara, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Stein, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Slater. Among the prominent invited guests were Police Commissioner and Mrs. Robert di Grazia, City Councillors Lawrence DiCara, newly appointed Metropolitan Regional Chairman, Joseph Tierney, and Christopher Iannella, Penal Commissioner Reginald Eaves, Anthony Forgione, Assistant Real Property Commissioner, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham G. Nedder, The Honorable Edward T. Nedder, Secretary to Congressman James A. Burke, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Curran of Hyde Park.

The Heart Fund Drive is a year-round effort for supporting funds which culminates on Heart Fund Sunday, February 25, 1973. If anyone cares to help support this most worthy cause, please send a check to Massachusetts Heart Association, Greater Boston Chapter, 677 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02215. Any financial assistance will be gratefully accepted.

REGISTRATION RENEWALS

Registrar David J. Lucey has reminded drivers that all truck, trailer, tractor, vanity, bus, taxi, and motorcycle registrations will expire on December 31, 1972. He said that passenger car plates which end with the letter "Y" with a decal showing the expiration date of December, 1972, also must be renewed for 1973.

Owners whose motor vehicle registrations expire on December 31, 1972, who have not received a computerized renewal form should notify their insurance company immediately. The insurance company shall process a counter renewal form (RMV 3) at once and the owner or insurance company should file this form as soon as possible at any of the thirty-four district offices of the Registry of Motor Vehicles to obtain their 1973 registration.

Reserve plates will be processed at the Boston office only.

"HOME RULE" LEGISLATION

Mayor Kevin White has filed "home rule" legislation that would allow the City of Boston to charge tax-exempt institutions for the services the city provides to them, such as police, fire, and snow removal.

"With 54 percent of this city tax free, we no longer can afford to provide a free ride for the tax-exempt institutions," Mayor White said. "It's absurd to think that 70 percent of the city's revenue comes from the property tax and only 46 percent of the property can be taxed," he added. "No other city in the nation has as much tax-free property or relies so heavily on the property tax."

"We recognize the financial squeeze that tax-exempt institutions find themselves in, but they must recognize the plight of the homeowner in this city who for years has been footing the bill."

The Mayor's bills, filed in the Legislature, would:

Increase from 50 to 100 percent the state's share of the cost of veterans' benefits ($5 million annually).

Allow the city to tax property on land of the Massachusetts Port Authority that is used for commercial purposes, such as the hotel and concessions ($2 million annually).

Have the state assume 50 percent of the MBTA operating deficit ($18 million).

Tax the revenue-producing property of tax-exempt institutions.

One of the bills would amend the State Racial Imbalance Act by altering the criteria for determining when a school is imbalanced and providing for suburban assistance in alleviating racial imbalance in the state's larger cities.

Under the bill filed by the Mayor, a school would be racially imbalanced if the nonwhite percentage in a given school is 25 percent greater than the racial makeup of the city's student population. Also, a suburban school system which is at least 80 percent white and is within twenty miles of a city in which at least 30 percent of the school population is nonwhite would be required to take students from the core city to alleviate racial imbalance.

Mayor White also filed "home rule" legislation to have the state take over the cost and operation of the Charles Street Jail and the Deer Island House of Correction. He will also cosponsor legislation with City Councillor John E. Kerrigan to have the state assume the $20 million annual cost of Suffolk County government.

HOLIDAY PROGRAM AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

The link between celestial events and the season's holiday customs is demonstrated in a new program at the Hayden Planetarium of Boston's Museum of Science.

In "Festivals of the Winter Sky," the Planetarium shows the sun at its most southerly position of the year and relates the development of our holidays and their accompanying customs to this winter solstice.

Commonly considered the shortest day of the year, the solstice—December 21 at 1:13 P.M. this month—actually falls in a period of very short days from December 19 to December 26 and only differs in length from the others by a matter of seconds.

Whether ancient man was frightened by the descending movement of the sun and the shorter days, or wanted to welcome it back as it started north again, he marked the solstice with special rites. From these have come the western world's emphasis on fire and light during the winter festivals. The importance of candles, stars, colored lights, and burning yule logs probably stems from an attempt to propitiate the sun god. Mistletoe may represent the life-giving sun because it grows in winter on the oak which some ancient peoples thought embodied the spirit of the sun.

From the Roman feast of Saturnalia, dedicated to the god of agriculture, Saturn, have come other holiday customs, the Planetarium says. Connected with the winter sowing season in Italy, Saturnalia also occurred around the time of the winter solstice. Its merrymaking, gift giving, and feasting have been incorporated in our Christmas and New Year's celebrations.

In addition to discussing the sun which appears dim and distant on the Planetarium dome, the program shows the "winter circle" of very bright stars, the aurora borealis, and other celestial phenomena visible at this season.

The star of Bethlehem, thought to be a triple conjunction of planets occurring at the time of Jesus' birth, and a feature of past Planetarium programs, is included, as is the carol music played while snow falls over a New England village depicted on the skyline.

A special program for children aged three to six will be given through December 22 at 5 P.M. Repeating the theme of fire and light, it will feature a view of Santa's elves at the North Pole and the famous, gift-filled sleigh. Children under five will be admitted free.

Regular Planetarium programs are presented weekdays at 11 A.M. and 2:45 P.M., Friday night at 8, and Sunday at 12:15 and 2:45 P.M. Admission is 50 cents in addition to Museum admission. Tickets are sold only on the day of attendance.

HELP YOUR MAILMAN

Postmaster George K. Walker has appealed to the customers of the Boston Postal District to clean and sand their sidewalks and stairs as soon as possible after a storm to reduce the hazards associated with inclement weather.

These injuries cause lost work time, disabling injuries, and also a tremendous amount of suffering to the letter carrier, in addition to financial loss to the Postal Service and to the taxpayers.

The cost in New England alone last year was well over $120,000, with approximately 1,400 carriers injured.

Please be kind to your mailman if you care to have your mail delivered.

Thank you for your cooperation.

NEITHER RAIN NOR SNOW, ETC.

The United States Postal Service has activated a Christmas Communications Network — designed to keep the holiday mail moving regardless of weather conditions and other factors — between the Postal Service headquarters and five regional offices.

Now in its ninth year, the operation will provide nationwide information for all mail activities during this year's Christmas season.

A team of mail processing, transportation, and delivery experts has been assembled in Washington to man a headquarters information center which will operate through December 29.

The key to the network is an electronic transmission system which enables information concerning conditions affecting the mail movement to be received within minutes at headquarters from ninety-three "traffic" control points.

These metropolitan areas, scattered across the country, are controlled by one of five postal regional offices. Each region has established a regional control center to keep a finger on the pulse of regional mail activities.

The regions report continuously to Washington on how the mail is moving between major post offices within each regional postal zone.

By providing prompt information from all areas, the regional control centers will enable the Postal Service to bypass severe weather conditions and divert mail where necessary, with the goal of delivering every letter and parcel in time for Christmas.

In addition, the centers will provide a daily report for the headquarters staff on volume and production, permitting officials to spot areas where transportation and delivery emergencies may develop.

The Headquarters Center is the focal point of the Communications Network. Lighted maps and charts give a rapid, up-to-date assessment of how the Christmas operation is proceeding in various parts of the country.

CITIZENS' UNION REELECTS MRS. LENA SAUNDERS

At its seventh semiannual conference, the Northeast Model Cities Citizens' Union overwhelmingly re-elected Mrs. Lena Saunders president.

Approximately 250 people from citizen participation organizations in eight states and Puerto Rico (which together comprise the Northeast Region) attended the three-day conference, December 1, 2, and 3, at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Boston. Mrs. Saunders was re-elected on December 3.

Mrs. Saunders, who has been active in community improvement projects for twenty years, is a founding member of the eighteen-member Boston Model Neighborhood Board, the citizen participation component of the Model City Program. She is currently serving as director of "My Friend the Policeman, Inc.," a community-police relations program, of which she is the founder.

She won her bid for reelection to the presidency of the Northeast Citizens Union by a substantial margin. Her victory was seen as a vote of confidence on the part of conference delegates in her leadership abilities.

Other officers elected at the conference were Carl Johnson of Trenton, New Jersey, as vice president, Betty Doumoussiaris of Manchester, New Hampshire, as secretary, and Lawrence Briggs of Syracuse, New York, as treasurer.

The Union is presently working with citizen participation groups in a number of cities to help them redefine their roles in the light of revenue sharing and other federal bloc grant programs.

In her report to the Union, Mrs. Saunders noted, "After our years of hard, often frustrating work, I believe there have been significant gains. I am convinced that citizen participation — as we mean it — is here to stay. However, the game changes all the time and in the future we have to be ready for change before it comes and we must keep working to improve and strengthen our leadership in our cities."

Speakers at the weekend conference included Mrs. Mary Davidson, who brought greetings from Boston Mayor Kevin White; Richard Coward, special assistant, Department of Housing and Urban Development; James Boylston, executive director, National Association for Community Development; Paul Parks, administrator, Boston Model Cities Program; and John Sasso, director, CDA Directors Association, Washington, D.C.

Workshops dealt with revenue sharing and with the case histories of citizen participation groups in other cities.

Many of the speakers stressed that citizens' groups must broaden their concerns beyond the Model Cities Program, and must think and plan in terms of city-wide citizen participation in deciding how revenue-sharing funds will be used.

A number of cities, including Boston, set up displays at the conference. These displays illustrated some of the steps taken by Model Cities programs to combat the urban ills common to all of the large cities of the region.

PERSONAL ALARM SYSTEM

An emergency security device for protection of the elderly will be tested at the Operation Break-through site in Sacramento, California, under a $98,000 contract to the Mentor Company of Sacramento from HUD's Office of Research and Technology.

The pencil-like device, which can be kept in a pocket or on a necklace, is designed to help elderly occupants of the high rise in case of accidents, sudden illness, threats to safety, or other emergencies anywhere in the building.

When a user simply presses a button, the transmitter flashes an alert to a control panel in the building manned around-the-clock, pinpointing the location where help is needed. Instantaneous contact can be made from the control panel with the resident or by telephone with a hospital or police as required.

The equipment has already been installed by the Mentor Company, which is experienced in technological and social systems. Under the terms of the contract, the company will familiarize the occupants with the system, train operators to monitor and evaluate it, and carry out modifications if needed.

In addition, the company will evaluate all emergency response systems, including the portable alarm signal system, fire alarms, and elevator alarms in the high rise to determine if they are a compatible set and if they meet the emergency needs of the elderly. It will also interview the residents, their guardians, and emergency system operators and submit reports on their reactions.

The tests will determine whether the device can be adapted for use of the elderly on a broader scale.

The personal alarm system equipment, developed initially with NASA support, has been used in high schools for security purposes.

For further information: Mr. William J. Schimandle, The Mentor Company, 555 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, California 95814.

VII. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Effective at 0800 hours, December 4, 1972, the following rule change will become effective:

"Rule 22.40. The emergency crew shall respond to multiple alarm fires only if their services are requested by the officer in charge of the fire. They shall, upon arrival at the fire, report to the officer in charge, carry out his commands, and, when their services are no longer required, be dismissed by such officer. They shall also notify the Fire Alarm Office by radio of their arrival and departure from the fire."

Rule 22.41 shall be changed as follows: Eliminate the first five lines.

VIII. LETTER OF COMMENDATION

The following letter to the Fire Commissioner is hereby published:

"Dear Sir:

On Friday, November 10, 1972, at approximately 12:15 A.M., my friend Cornelius Hart suffered a heart attack and died at my home. We naturally called for fire and police assistance. A Fire Lieutenant Moran and his men responded to our call within minutes.

May I take this opportunity to commend Lieutenant Moran and his men for the quiet and efficient manner in which they went about their duties. Men such as these most certainly are a credit to the department.

Respectfully yours,
ANGUS F. MCINTYRE."

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

November 27.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, Districts, and Units.

Subject: Greetings from Police Commissioner Robert J. di Grazia.

Sir:

The following is a copy of greetings from Police Commissioner Robert J. di Grazia forwarded to all personnel of the Boston Police Department. Commanding officers of all bureaus, divisions, districts, and units shall bring this to the attention of all personnel under their command by reading at the several roll calls and by posting a copy of this order on the Bulletin Board.

November 23.

To All Department Personnel.

I hope that everyone had an opportunity to have a nice Thanksgiving Day. As I prepare the memo on this day when we all pause to give thanks, I think of all for which I have to be thankful—the opportunity to serve as the Police Commissioner of this department, a department that I find to be professional, with sophisticated programs and dedicated personnel. If it is not now the best department in the world, I know that we will all be working together to make it the best and most respected department anywhere.

One man cannot do this alone; the Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents cannot do it; the officers of rank cannot do it. It will take the assistance of every employee, commissioned and civilian, to accomplish the end result. Every employee who comes into contact with our citizens, other police departments, our officials, yes, and even the criminal element, will be representing the Boston Police Department. Our actions at all times will reflect upon our department. Proper deportment on everyone's part will make our mission, which is to protect and serve our citizens, considerably easier.

To set everyone's mind at ease, there will be no wholesale changes (assignments, uniforms, policies, rules and regulations). When changes are made they will be made because, after considerable thought and study, it is felt they are required—not simply changes for change sake.

Everyone's assistance will be required. Suggestions from anyone, forwarded through the chain of command, will be given complete consideration. With a large department we need to develop future leaders.

Police service, as far as I am concerned, requires dedicated, efficient, and professional personnel, who are a step above the average citizens. This department has this caliber of personnel.

I know that all commissioned personnel of this department subscribe to the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics which are reprinted here for your benefit:

"As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve mankind; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the Constitutional rights of all men to liberty, equality, and justice.

"I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all; maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn, or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life. I will be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

"I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

"I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession — law enforcement." It is a pleasure for me to be here and to have so many qualified personnel with whom to work. I hope that our relationship will be extremely fruitful for our department and for all of police service.

ROBERT J. di GRAZIA,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

INVITATION FOR GENERAL BIDS FOR HEATING BALANCE AND CONTROLS, 11 EAST NEWTON STREET, BOSTON.

The City of Boston, acting by its Public Facilities Commission, through the Director of Public Facilities, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites general bids for heating balance and controls, 11 East Newton Street, Boston.

General bids will be received up until twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, January 10, 1973, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 812, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, Mass. 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. The general bids shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the sum of $1,000. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed shall not be less than the rate of wages determined for this work by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 149, section 26, as amended, a schedule of which appears in the specifications.

The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the equal employment opportunity section of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

All subbids for a subtrade designated in Item 2 of the general bid form shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the above office address, before twelve o'clock noon, Wednesday, January 3, 1973, at which hour and place they will be publicly opened and read. Every such subbid must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the following plainly marked on the outside: Title of work, subtrade for which subbid submitted, subbidder's name, subbidder's business address.

All such subbids must be submitted on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority, and any such subbid not filed on the form for subbid furnished by the Awarding Authority shall be rejected.

A bid deposit in the form of cash or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston, in the amount as specified in the following for the various subtrades as listed below shall be submitted by each subbidder with his subbid as filed with the Awarding Authority:

Heating$750

No subbid may be withdrawn after the time limit for the filing of subbids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the date fixed for the opening of the general bids. In addition, neither the subbids filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible subbidders for a subtrade nor the subbids for the same subtrade as shown on the general bids of the three lowest responsible and eligible general bidders may be withdrawn after the opening of the general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) after presentation of a subcontract to the subbidder selected for that subtrade by the general bidder selected as the general contractor.

Plans and specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Wednesday, December 20, 1972, at the office of the Awarding Authority, upon deposit of a certified check, payable to the City of Boston, for $25 per set of plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon return of all documents, in good condition, within thirty days after the opening of general bids (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

A performance bond, and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Awarding Authority also reserves the right to reject any subbid on any subtrade if it determines that such subbid does not represent the subbid of a person competent to perform the work as specified or that less than three such subbids were received and that the prices are not reasonable for acceptance without further competition, in accordance with section 44D, chapter 149, of the General Laws, as amended.

New Central Library Annex Dedicated

Boston's ancient and honorable Public Library is showing off a new $25 million addition.

The new General Library building, as it's to be called, unlocked doors on December 12 into literally a whole new world of reading and studying adventures.

Ten stories in all, it stands beside and mirrors the gray-granite architecture of the main wing in a smooth integration of the old and modern.

Previewers of the opening, at a showing, scanned some of the 500,000 books on open shelves, the key innovation of the new facility.

The main research library, still presiding over Copley Square, had fewer than 50,000 books available to the browsing public.

Mayor White, who led the initial tour, said the addition's opening was, for him, particularly satisfying.

"Completion of this new home for reading and learning," he said, "is a tribute to all the people of this city.

"For me, it means Boston is striding again ahead of other cities. We're bringing our tools of advancement ever closer to the source of their best use — our people."

He said a library, perhaps more than any other institution, represents "the way man's vital curiosity can fuse life into and take life and growth out of inert things.

"Even this stately hall is nothing more than a granite building — full of paper and film and tape recorders — until it's brought to life by real people in the greatest imaginable numbers."

The new library extension, which specializes in expanded facilities for children, teen-agers, and foreign language students, was built in three years and five months.

Granite used in construction was taken from the same quarry in Milford that supplied material for erecting the main wing in 1888. The quarry had to be reopened for the new project.

The addition's special design was done in collaboration by architect Philip Johnson of New York and the Architects Design Group of Boston. General contractor was Vappi & Company, Inc., of Cambridge.

Total floor space is 480,000 square feet with the bottom four floors, including one below ground, housing all public browsing areas in a strikingly open arrangement.

This area has, besides a half-million books, back issues of more than 1,000 magazines in a public reference library, twenty-seven private listening stations, other rooms set off for showing films and a 375-seat lecture hall.

In the center of the wing, a Renaissance-styled courtyard, similar (except for its huge skylight) to the one inside the main library, provides a sunny atmosphere — when the sun's out — for library users.

Another new feature of the addition, made possible by the skylight, is the absence of inside windows and the scarcity of obstacles to the view or mobility of patrons.

Above the public areas, shielded from the courtyard by granite, are administrative offices and four floors of closed bookstacks.

Main entrance and exit at the extension will be on Boylston Street, just south of the main building whose foyer faces Copley Square.

Funding for the project was a joint effort by the city, federal government, and library trustees, though the bulk — $19 million — came from the city. The federal government gave $600,000 and library trusts provided the rest.

Library Director Philip J. McNiff, who oversaw construction, said his chief hope for the addition "will be to see double or triple the number of people using our ten times greater supply of open-shelf materials."

The addition was dedicated officially at 8 P.M. on December 12.

Mayor White, Sidney R. Rabb, president of the library trustees, Mr. McNiff, poet David McCord, and architect Johnson spoke at the ceremony.

MBTA INSTALLS DIAGNOSTIC TEST VEHICLE

Test equipment, developed by the United States Department of Transportation (DOT), has been operating over tracks of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) to electronically pinpoint roadbed and vehicle problem areas that cause passenger discomfort and system maintenance problems.

The new electronic system has been installed on a Green Line streetcar, designated as a Diagnostic Test Vehicle. It will measure the degree of ride roughness as related to such factors as track gauge, profile, and alignment. It will also provide printed data for maintenance crews to correct each specific problem.

The week-long test over the Green Line between Riverside Station, Newton, and Lechmere Station, Cambridge, is a cooperative undertaking of the MBTA and the DOT Transportation Systems Center in Cambridge.

MBTA General Manager Joseph C. Kelly and TSC Director James C. Elms said the tests will provide useful maintenance and safety data for the planned $88 million program to modernize the Green Line. DOT's Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) which has granted the MBTA $58.2 million for this improvement program, is the primary sponsor for the electronic system development at the Transportation Systems Center.

The Green Line Improvement Program includes the upgrading of roadbeds, tracks, signal and power distribution systems, and new or modernized maintenance and repair facilities; and the purchase of between 150 and 175 articulated light-rail vehicles.

The MBTA and TSC have also joined in a study to measure noise along the wayside of the MBTA system. Data collected in this study will lead to methods for reducing undesirable noise levels which are of national concern.

When the Green Line tests are completed, the diagnostic test equipment will undergo further evaluation at the UMTA test track at the High Speed Ground Test Center in Pueblo, Colorado. TSC is responsible to UMTA for the design, construction, and operation of this test track, the largest and most comprehensive of its kind in the United States.

CHRISTMAS SEAL CONTRI- BUTIONS HAVE INCREASED

John J. Devlin, President of the Boston Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, has announced that Christmas Seal contributions are running slightly better than in past years with 54 percent of their projected goal of $120,000 received.

This represents an increase of 1.4 percent over the figure collected at this time in last year's campaign.

Statewide, contributions are up 2.2 percent over last year's figure for this date.

Christmas Seal contributions support TB and respiratory disease research, as well as the many public and professional educational programs sponsored by local, state, and national TB and respiratory disease associations.

NONSMOKING JETS

Even jets are trying to quit smoking.

The nation's major airlines have reduced the visible pollutants from almost half their fleet of jetliners. Predictions are that by the end of the year — hopefully before the height of the holiday air traffic — the engines on these jets will be almost smokeless. The "black belch" that streaks across the sky will be, say the airlines, gone with the wind.

To comply with a 1970 agreement with the federal government, the airlines agreed to install control devices to curb smoke pollutants on their big jets. Six lines have completed the conversion project, and 85 percent of all engines on three types of jetliners are now equipped with the new devices.

The antipollution devices, called burner cans, eliminate a fourth of all pollutants, both visible and invisible. Visible pollutants are cut about 70 percent. Taking the country as a whole, the jets are not a major source of air pollution. But they are a highly significant contributor to the already heavy pollution levels near metropolitan airports. Pollution is what cities don't need more of.

So jets are trying to quit smoking on the outside. And on the inside, most jets separate smokers from nonsmokers. People are demanding their right to breathe clean air and, more and more, getting it.

The campaign for cleaner air didn't just happen. It took of lot of pushing and pulling from all kinds of citizen groups and concerned agencies. Your Boston Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association is one of those agencies. To help support the fight against air pollution, emphysema, TB, and smoking, answer your Christmas Seal letter right away. It's a matter of life and breath.

OBB TO DEVELOP GUIDEBOOK

The Office of the Boston Bicentennial is seeking a contractor to design and develop a guidebook for the visitors who will visit Boston prior to and during the years 1975-76 to partake in the city's celebration of the bicentennial of the American Revolution.

The OBB intends to designate the guidebook as the "Official Guidebook of Boston 200." It will serve as an attractive, convenient, and comprehensive reference source for visitors and Bostonians alike.

It is important that the contractor of this venture has substantive capability in the design and development of the guidebook and has the financial resources to fund the project.

All interested parties are asked to write or call Harron Ellenson, Office of the Boston Bicentennial, Room 817, City Hall, Boston, 617-722-4100, ext. 497 or 498, for further information. All proposals must be submitted by January 15, 1973.

REGISTRY ANNOUNCEMENT

Registrar of Motor Vehicles David J. Lucey has cautioned Massachusetts motorists who may be thinking of selling or buying a car to be certain that when they do they obtain the certificate of title outstanding on the car as part of the sales agreement.

The Registrar noted that hundreds of cars for which titles are outstanding are being sold without the title certificate passing hands between the former and the new owners.

"Any car which was registered after September 1 of this year will have a title certificate outstanding against it," the Registrar said.

"It is imperative that any sales of such previously titled cars be finalized with the surrender of the certificate to the new owner. Motorists who purchase cars, so designated, must in turn surrender the old title to the Registry as part of the new application for registration and title required by law," Mr. Lucey explained.

WINTER AND HOLIDAY DRIVING

"Traditionally speaking, winter weather and holiday travel create hazardous conditions for drivers," Registrar David J. Lucey said recently. "If your goal is to arrive alive," he said, "it is important to use the right tactics, make the right plays, and have the right attitude."

Lucey listed the following as safety-proven defensives:

Winterize your vehicle.

Allow yourself maximum vision. Keep windshield, rear window, side windows, and vents clear of snow and ice. Keep all lamps clean. Use lights in darkness and during bad weather.

Maintain a safe stopping distance between your car and the car ahead. Allow extra distance on slippery roads.

Take it slow and easy in bad weather and darkness. Allow yourself extra travel time when roads are congested or in bad weather.

Stay sober and alert behind the wheel. Use public transportation after drinking intoxicating refreshments. Stop and rest when fatigued.

Practice commonsense driving. A safety-oriented attitude will help prevent accidents.

Registrar Lucey said that drivers who are not sure they possess the "know-how" to handle snow and icy road conditions should not venture to use their vehicles during storms; they should use public transportation instead if they must travel.

CHRISTMAS IN FRANKLIN PARK

There was a special sparkle to Christmas in Franklin Park this year as the first annual Christmas Lighting Celebration took place Friday, December 15, at 1 P.M. The yuletide celebrations unfolded at Peabody Circle near the main entrance to the park and lasted until 4 P.M.

Organized by a coalition of public and private agencies, the celebration not only heralded the holiday season but inaugurated a full winter of festive programs and activities planned for Franklin Park. It is hoped that the Franklin Park lighting celebration will take place simultaneously with that on the Common in years to come.

Commissioner Joseph E. Curtis of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department officially lit the huge tree and hosted the celebration along with a number of community leaders. Choirs from community schools and churches provided melodious entertainment and players from the Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts offered a seasonal theatrical presentation. Children from many neighborhood schools decorated the tree with their own Christmas creations.

"I know that many people have been looking forward to this special Christmas celebration for a long time," Commissioner Curtis said. "Franklin Park is the true jewel in Olmstead's 'emerald necklace' and is a truly beautiful setting for this tree-lighting ceremony.

"This particular ceremony is only the beginning of a year-round slate of community-based activities that we have planned for the park. There will be many different programs, not to mention the natural beauty of the park, which will invite everyone's presence and participation."

Lights for the tree have been donated by Zayre's, and several other business interests have contributed money to the Christmas festivities. A large crowd attended the inaugural event.

There shall be peace on earth, but not until

Each child shall daily eat his fill,
Go warmly clad against the winter wind.

And learn his lessons with a tranquil mind.

And thus released from hunger, fear,
and need,

Regardless of his color, race, or creed,

Look upwards smiling to the skies,
His faith in man reflected in his eyes.

COMMANDER CERNAN'S PROUDEST MOMENT

The American flag displayed in mission control at the manned spacecraft center since the 1969 Apollo 11 first moon landing was planted on the moon on December 11, by Apollo 17's Eugene A. Cernan and Jack Schmitt.

"We very proudly deploy it on the moon to stay as long as it can in honor of all those people who have worked so hard to put us here and to put every other crew here, and to make the country, the United States, and mankind, something different than it was," Commander Cernan said.

A stiff wire or rod across the top of the flag held it out straight and, as they turned it around for a better picture angle, it appeared to be flapping in the near vacuum of the moon. Commander Cernan posed for pictures on each side of the flag, the sixth Old Glory on the moon.

"I'll tell you, Bob, I haven't done everything there is to do in the Navy," Commander Cernan told Commander Robert A. Parker "but deploying that flag has got to be the most proud thing I'll ever do in my life.

"If you could see you (on earth) and you could see it from where we are, I know you'd feel the same way," Commander Cernan said.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

MAYOR'S SAFE STREETS ACT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

CITY YOUTH ADVOCACY PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee I respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to United Community Services in an amount not to exceed eleven thousand five hundred dollars ($11,500) for the period from February 10, 1972, through February 10, 1973.

The purpose of the grant is to allow United Community Services to establish a City Youth Advocacy Program, aimed at the mobilization of city advocacy resources to strengthen the ability of a wide variety of youth-service agencies to meet the needs of delinquent and potentially delinquent youth.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to grants received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under Section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P. L. 90-351). The grants were accepted by an order of the City Council and were approved by the Mayor.

United Community Services is a nonprofit organization chartered in 1949 to gather facts about health and welfare needs of the people of the community and to determine how effectively, efficiently, and economically they are being met. United Community Services has been successful in bringing together individuals and representatives of groups to study the facts and to effect improvement in the health and welfare programs of the community including both voluntary and tax supported services.

Because of the unique services required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE, JR.,
Executive Director.

PARK GUIDE SERVICE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee I respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to the Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts in an amount not to exceed fifty-three thousand six hundred dollars ($53,600) for the period from May 15, 1972, through December 31, 1972.

The purpose of the grant is to allow the Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts to establish a community based park guide service. It will serve to strengthen the use of Franklin Park through guide staff responding to citizen inquiries within the parks as well as increased surveillance protection of city services and improvements. Cooperating with the park guides on matters of a police nature will be District 13.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to grants received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under Section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P. L. 90-351). The grants were accepted by an order of the City Council and were approved by the Mayor.

The Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts is a nonprofit organization chartered in 1966 to provide instruction in all of the fine arts and among other things, to promote programs of cultural enrichment for the benefit of deprived persons. The school has a broad base of community support and has been successful in creating an atmosphere of pride in residents regarding their community and Franklin Park. It has increased, on a positive and cultural basis, the use of Franklin Park through the Playhouse in the park.

Because of the unique services required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE, JR.,
Executive Director.

GUIDANCE AND TREATMENT AT HALF-WAY HOUSES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to the Massachusetts Half-way Houses, Inc., in an amount not to exceed fifty-four thousand nine hundred and sixteen dollars ($54,916) for the period from May 1, 1972, through June 30, 1973.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under Section 301 (b) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P. L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by order of the City Council on October 4, 1971, and approved by the Mayor on November 1, 1971.

Massachusetts Half-way Houses, Inc., is a nonprofit organization chartered in 1965 to provide guidance and treatment for released criminal offenders in a secure residential center. The population is drawn from the Massachusetts Correctional Institutions at Walpole, Norfolk, Concord, from the Suffolk County House of Correction at Deer Island, and from federal institutions. At the residential treatment center, residents participate in education and vocational programs designed to prepare them for reentry into society.

Because of the unique services required to perform the function of this award, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE, JR.,
Executive Director.

MODEL CITY ADMINISTRATION

RECREATION PROGRAMS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed nine thousand dollars ($9,000) to the Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., 612 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program of the Model Cities Area.

The Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., shall operate a summer day camp program at its facilities in Holliston, Mass. Four two-week sessions for approximately two hundred (200) youth from Subarea V and adjacent areas, shall be conducted at the 265-acre "Breezy Meadow" day camp. Under the supervision of staff counselors, swimming, hiking, arts and crafts, environmental education, and athletic programs shall be offered.

The objective of the program is to provide these young people with activities and programs, which will expose them to a healthy physical and emotional environment. This exposure will demonstrate the relationships between ecology and conservation, and the necessary precautions which must be taken to protect the unimpeded development of nature. Transportation to and from the camp site will be provided for all participants.

Approximately two hundred (200) youth from Subarea V shall participate in this program.

The funds to be provided under this contract will be utilized to cover the cost of equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from June 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972, inclusive.

The Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., has successfully operated this camp since 1964. With such background and experience, it is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed thirty-nine thousand eight hundred twenty-two dollars ($39,822) to the Roxbury Multi-Service Center, Inc., 317 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., for the operation of a recreation program in Subarea V, as part of the Parks and Recreation Program of the Model Cities Area.

This program, which shall provide recreation and group activities for Subarea V residents, will be operated as a cooperative project by two (2) community groups. Through this cooperative effort, approximately five hundred (500) area residents will be served. The Roxbury Multi-Service Center shall conduct at its facilities, instructional classes in photography, sewing, and dramatic arts. A camp week at "Camp Breeze Meadow," will be sponsored by the Center between June 25 and July 2, for approximately twenty-five (25) youngsters from Subarea V.

The Subarea V Women's Improvement League, with facilities at 822 Blue Hill Avenue, shall conduct the other component of this recreation project. A recreation center open to all Subarea V residents shall be operated by the League. The League proposes to offer recreational, social, and cultural programs at its centrally located facilities. Seminars and workshops in community relations and other community projects shall be coordinated; and classes in knitting, sewing, and home economics shall be conducted when warranted by the expressed interest of the approximately three hundred (300) residents who shall participate in these programs.

The contractor shall act as bursar and receiving agent for this cooperative recreation program and shall report to the Model City Administration on all financial transactions.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract is to be effective during the period from January 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972.

The Roxbury Multi-Service Center has a valued reputation in the community for successfully coordinating and conducting program as proposed under this project. It is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT FUND PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract in the amount not to exceed one hundred and forty thousand dollars ($140,000) with the Roxbury Multi-Service Center (RMSC), a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 180 of the General Laws, with offices located at 317 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury. The contract will commence on May 1, 1972, and will continue until July 31, 1973, and with certain agreements continuing for the life of the project.

This contract is being entered into pursuant to the Comprehensive City Demonstration Program approved by the Mayor and the City Council. Such program provides for the establishment of a housing development fund for the purpose of assisting local development groups to acquire and rehabilitate properties for sale to homeowners and to provide funds to homeowners to improve their properties. Under the housing development fund, financial assistance can be in the form of loans to developers as well as grants. The proposed contract with RMSC establishes a housing development fund to cover certain acquisition, rehabilitation, and home improvement costs in connection with housing development and homeownership assistance in the Model Neighborhood for low- and moderate-income residents. Only by the use of a housing development fund can the city and the local developers develop improved housing conditions for residents of the Model Neighborhood.

As a result of Model Neighborhood Board and Model City Agency staff review and review by the Model Neighborhood Board, RMSC has been selected as the developer for the following reasons:

1. RMSC is composed of residents of the Model Neighborhood; and

2. RMSC has shown interest and capability in the housing field and more specifically is running a tenant, code enforcement, and homeownership counseling program under a contract with the city and has made a limited number of loans to homeowners for home repairs from a revolving fund. RMSC was interested in doing this development and also demonstrated that it could put together a qualified team to carry out the project.

The Model Neighborhood Board will be involved in the review process under the contract at various steps including:

1. Article II-B—approval of the target neighborhoods in which the programs will be carried out;

2. Article VII-A—on-going evaluation when desired; and

3. Article VII-B—review of monthly and annual reports on activities of the contractor.

Under the proposed contract, RMSC will agree to return any net income or profits from the housing development to the housing development fund to be used for production of additional housing in the Model Neighborhood.

The amount of the contract, which is not to exceed $140,000, was arrived at by determining how much staff was needed for twelve (12) months and what level of grants and loans could be adequately administered by such staff. The contract will contain safeguards from the standpoint of the city in that

1. The Administrator will approve all aspects of the planning and implementation of the program;

2. No funds shall be disbursed without approval of the Administrator based on compliance to the work program for implementing the projects;

3. Any land purchased by the contractor under this contract and not utilized as approved within a limited time will either be conveyed to the city or sold pursuant to an agreement with the Administrator and with the funds going to the housing development fund;

4. If the projects or housing development fund are discontinued all remaining monies shall be returned to the city; and

5. There will be an annual audit.

In order to carry out the objectives of the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966, as amended "... to provide widespread citizen participation in the program, maximum opportunities in the choice of housing accommodations for all citizens of all income levels" it is requested that notice of the contract be dispensed from being advertised in the City Record.

Sincerely yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of Edwards and Keley, Inc., Engineers and Consultants, 470 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, Mass., for the preparation of plans, specifications, and for the supervision of construction of an official little league field at Smith Playground in the Brighton District of Boston.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract. The engineer's basic fee (7.72%) taken from the "B" rate of "Boston's 1966 Fee Schedule for Engineers" and based upon the estimated cost of construction of $75,000 will be $5,790. In no event shall the maximum liability of the city under the terms of the proposed contract as of the date of its execution, including presently estimated expenditures of $3,000 for supplementary services by the engineer, exceed in the aggregate the sum of $8,790.

As the proposed contract is for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to 1-11-41 (813).

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

MISCELLANEOUS REPAIRS TO PASSENGER CARS AND TRUCKS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In February of this year this department advertised for public bids for miscellaneous repairs to passenger cars and trucks. We did not have an acceptable response to this request for bids.

Because of this same scanty response in the past and the proven difficulty of separating mechanical from body work, this department devised a system, which was approved by the Law Department, whereby offers would be solicited on each damaged vehicle for work amounting to $200 or more, and the lowest written offer in each case would receive this work. This method enabled the city to obtain the most economical prices per unit of work and to complete the work in the most efficient manner. An informal solicitation resulted in the following firms declaring their intent to enter into contracts with the city under the above conditions

I therefore respectfully request your Honor's written authorization to dispense with public advertising and to enter into contracts with the below-mentioned firms in the amounts, not to exceed as listed with each firm:

1. Fitzpatrick Brothers, Inc., 42 Sharp Street, Boston, Mass. 02124, $72,000.

2. Westminster Dodge, Inc., 720 Morrissey Boulevard, Boston, Mass. 02122, $72,000.

3. Truck and Coach Division, General Motors Corporation, 103 North Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02134, $25,000.

Total amount not to exceed $169,000 for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

Respectfully,

EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT ENGINEERING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As authorized under a current vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request of your Honor, for and on behalf of that Commission, executive permission to dispense with advertising for competitive bids in the City Record, in awarding a contract to TAD Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation, consulting engineers, of 639 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., for the furnishing of general engineering services and technical assistance in connection with the preparation by the department of a very large volume of plans and specifications for use in the carrying out of its extensive alterations and repair program, during the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, at a cost for such services of not to exceed $50,000, payable, at the actual hourly rates paid (within rates to be stated in the contract) times 1.42; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The above-named firm has been employed heretofore by this department to perform the same kind of services and its performance has been entirely satisfactory. We have an urgent need for the subject auxiliary services and know from past experience that their provision will be of incalculable assistance to us in connection with the execution of our alterations and repair program.

In view of the foregoing, and the fact that the services to be furnished are in the professional realm, the Board is of the opinion that public advertising would not necessarily assure that we would acquire the same degree of professional competence which will be guaranteed to us under the contract now proposed.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECTS' SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to authorization given me by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request of your Honor, in the name and on behalf of that Commission, formal written permission to disregard the otherwise operative mandate of the City Charter to publicly advertise for proposals in the City Record in awarding to Stahl Bennett, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, architects, with offices at 177 Milk Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to (1) thoroughly examine the progress prints of the working drawings and specifications for the proposed renovations to the Parkman House, 33 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., and thereafter to prepare and deliver to the city a written analysis thereof, incorporating therein detailed recommendations in respect to said drawings and specifications, including such additional drawings as are necessary to explain the same; (2) to conduct an over-all field coordination program during construction of the renovations, at a cost for such services not to exceed $6,000, to be paid in accordance with the schedule of rates to be set forth in the contract; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

It is, I suggest to your Honor, a prudent course which we pursue here, in requesting authorization for making certain that the character and detail of the subject original structure be maintained during the course of the projected restorative renovations.

In view of the highly special and unique nature of the professional services to be rendered in this instance by the aforementioned architectural firm it is the opinion of the Board that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for competitive bids for these services.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 30, 1972 the Public Facilities Commission authorized me to request, in its name and on its behalf, of your Honor, written authorization to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding to Eisenberg and Schiffer Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, architects, with a usual place of business at 29 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., a contract to prepare preliminary studies, design development drawings, outline specifications, and detailed construction cost estimates for use in the construction of the Barnes Middle School in the East Boston district of Boston, at a cost for such services not to exceed $193,200, including $25,000 for supplementary services; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

On April 16, 1971, the City of Boston entered into an earlier and still subsisting Phase I contract with Eisenberg and Schiffer Associates, Inc., for preparing schematics, design development, and construction cost estimates for use in constructing the Barnes Middle School in the East Boston district of the city. However, that contract, which by mutual consent was not carried out, will very soon be terminated according to its terms or by execution of a mutual cancellation agreement.

The overall reason for the above proposed new contract and the termination of the existing one is that the subject project, the Barnes Middle School, is one part of the city's present plan for the coordinated design and construction of four new schools (Track III) each having certain uniform designed modular components with respect to structure, atmosphere, integrated ceilings, plumbing, interior space division, and electric-electronic systems, and the aforementioned architect is willing to cooperate with the city and with the architects for the other projects in Track III in the selection and engagement of common consultants (engineers) for the structural, mechanical, and electrical engineering portions of the design work, with each one of which common consultants (engineers) for each of the schools the city is also to have a contract. The more particular reason for the immediately foregoing is to achieve the greatest practical degree of uniformity and consistency of design, quality, and performance of the mechanical and electrical systems, as well as in the structural systems in the four (4) school buildings comprising the program, which our past experience demonstrates cannot be achieved when each building is in the care of a separate and different engineer.

As in the past, it is also our purpose following the successful completion of all services under the architect's new Phase I contract to award him the Phase II contract for the preparation of construction contract documents and supervision of construction, contingent upon the Commission and his Honor the Mayor's prior approval thereof. The fee for the Phase II contract shall be determined by multiplying the appropriate 1967 A.I.A. Fee Schedule "B" rate times the approval estimated cost of construction, less the $168,200 basic fee to be paid the architect under the now proposed contract, and less the sum of $12,200 to be paid by the city to the project mechanical and electrical engineer, plus $11,040 to be paid by the city to the project structural engineer, an aggregate deduction of $191,440.

In the light of the professional character of the services to be rendered by Eisenberg and Schiffer Associates, Inc., under the proposed contract, it is felt that nothing is to be gained by a public solicitation for bids therefor in the City Record.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

NEW HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE RATES — 1973

To: Department Heads and County Officers.

Attention: Payroll Clerks

Effective January 1, 1973, the new overall rates for the "Major Medical" program of Blue Cross-Blue Shield and Life Insurance will be:

Health Insurance, individual, $24.50; Health Insurance, family, $64.30; (Boston Mutual) Life Insurance, $1.05 per thousand (active), $1 per thousand (retired).

Letters have been sent to you from Mr. Edward Sullivan, Director of Administrative Services, advising which employees will be on a 60-40 split, or 50-50 split for Health Insurance starting January 1, 1973.

Retirees will remain on a 50-50 split.

For those active employees on a 60-40 split starting January 1, 1973, deductions will be: individual, $10.86 per month, $3.62 weekly; family, $26.76 per month, $8.92 weekly.

For those active employees on a 50-50 split starting January 1, 1973, deductions will be: individual, $13.32 per month, $4.44 weekly; family, $33.21 per month, $11.07 weekly.

The O.M.E. or Medex rate will be $11.36 per month.

Basic Life Insurance rates remain the same (see above).

Optional Insurance rates remain the same as 1972: $.35 per thousand, under forty years of age; $.65 per thousand, 40 through 49; $1.30 per fifty-nine; $2.30 per thousand, sixty and over.

Data Processing will, on the preliminary payroll, make adjustments to the new rates.

Payroll clerks will receive, as usual, from this office, cards to either change a member's deduction, or add new members.

A new concept in Health Insurance, better known presently as the Harvard Community Health Plan, will be offered to employees this year (1973).

There will be meetings held at various locations throughout the city to explain this plan to the employees. Notices will be sent to the departments as to when and where these meetings will be held. We ask your cooperation in posting these notices and permitting those interested employees to attend.

EDWARD W. DONOVAN,
Director, Health Insurance Unit.

MAYOR EXPLAINS EMERGENCY SCHOOL BUDGET CUTS

Statement of Mayor White in response to charges that emergency cuts in the school budget will jeopardize classroom operations.

I recently declared that my intention in ordering these emergency cuts was to wake up the School Committee.

The School Department is spending $1.4 million that it does not have. It's illegal. They know it.

No vested interest should be allowed to cloud the real issue. Classroom operation — the education of our children — never has been and never will be jeopardized by this austerity drive. Education is the lifeblood of the system.

The School Department is in fiscal bankruptcy because patronage has been substituted for planning.

The $78 million rise in school costs in the last five years is $14 million more than increases in all other city departments combined, which is astounding and ridiculous.

Since last June, I sent seven letters to the School Committee ordering them to cut spending. They were obviously ignored.

We have opened seven new schools this fall to replace ten old ones. The School Committee not only hired more people to staff the new ones, they refused to close the old schools, which meant doubling payrolls.

And right there at department headquarters, there are forty-two truant officers getting paid an average of $17,000 — more than the city pays its police captains and architects.

I am convinced, and I am sure every taxpayer will agree, that this nonacademic, nonessential spending is contributing nothing to the education of children.

I want to commend Superintendent Leary for his courageous response to his department's teacher shortage.

When a man of his stature and skills is willing to step back into the classroom in an emergency, it has to boost our confidence.

It was his decision to put himself and 127 other school administrators back into the classroom.

Maybe here, too, we can all learn something else from this innovation.

Could not some of these administrators — many of whom are paid over $20,000 — serve Boston and our students better by staying in the classroom?

That is the kind of hard look and tough decisions the School Committee is going to have to make in order to get the School Department out of the red and into the black.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

December 9.

Personnel Order No. 21

A Board of Merit consisting of Superintendents Edward J. O'Neil, John M. Lynch, Jr., and Jeremiah P. Sullivan, having convened for the special purpose of selecting those officers who during the past year have distinguished themselves in the performance of police duty, have made the following recommendations:

Patrolman Charles E. Cotton — District Three

On Saturday evening, September 23, 1972, Patrolman Charles E. Cotton, with brother officers, responded to a radio call for a holdup in progress at the Pioneer Liquor Store, Blue Hill Avenue, Mattapan. Upon entering the store, Officer Cotton saw the robber at the foot of the basement stairs holding a revolver to the head of the store owner. As the robber ascended the stairs, using his victim as a shield, he shouted, "Stand back or I will kill this man." Patrolman Cotton, with the safety of the store owner uppermost in his mind, holstered his service revolver and with utter disregard for his own safety hurled himself bodily down the stairway, seizing the gun arm of the robber. As a result of this action all three fell to the basement floor where a violent battle ensued. With the assistance of other officers at the scene the robber was disarmed and placed under arrest.

In recognition of his outstanding personal initiative and courage Patrolman Cotton is awarded the Walter Scott Medal for Valor and the Department Medal of Honor. By his keen alertness and quick action he was responsible for making this arrest without any injury to the store owner or to other persons present.

Sergt. Henry J. Rinaldi — Drug Control Unit, Criminal Investigation Division

On Friday afternoon, November 5, 1971, Sergt. Henry J. Rinaldi was off duty and in the vicinity of the Milk Street MBTA station when his attention was drawn to a man leaning out a second-floor window of the Household Finance Corporation, 294 Washington Street, shouting, "We've been robbed; he's got a gun; call the police!"

Sergeant Rinaldi responded immediately, obtaining a quick description of the subject as well as ascertaining his possible means of egress from the building. He then stationed himself at a vantage point where he could observe both exits. Shortly thereafter a man fitting the robber's description emerged onto Spring Lane with Sergeant Rinaldi in pursuit. As the subject attempted to enter a parked vehicle on Devonshire Street, Sergeant Rinaldi leaned over the trunk of the vehicle with drawn service revolver and identified himself as a police officer. The suspect attempted to draw a revolver but Sergeant Rinaldi immediately pulled the man from the vehicle, disarmed him, and recovered the money taken in the robbery. Positive identification was made of the offender, and further investigation revealed that he was wanted for four other robberies of finance companies in this area of the city.

Sergeant Rinaldi, for his dedication to duty and personal courage, is awarded the Department Medal of Honor.

Patrolmen Mario A. Rampino and John F. Serra — District Thirteen

On Tuesday morning, February 9, 1972, while on sector-car duty these officers observed a car reported as stolen in South Hadley, speeding erratically in Washington Street. The officers pursued the vehicle, overtaking it and forcing it to the curbing at Washington and Green Streets. As Patrolman Rampino approached the vehicle the operator suddenly accelerated the vehicle, turning into Green Street at a high rate of speed. Patrolmen Rampino and Serra again pursued this vehicle, overtaking it on Centre at Pond Street. As the officers approached the vehicle they were confronted by two armed youths. With service revolvers drawn, the officers successfully ordered them to drop their weapons and submit to arrest. In the stolen car the officers discovered a small arsenal of firearms and ammunition, burglarious tools, and narcotics. This arrest solved a burglary in Marlboro and undoubtedly prevented other serious crimes in this city.

Patrolmen Rampino and Serra, for their alertness, courage, and devotion to duty, are awarded the Department Medal of Honor.

Patrolmen Francis J. Ridings and John N. Joyce — District Fourteen

Saturday night, November 13, 1971, Patrolmen Francis J. Ridings and John N. Joyce on sector-car duty responded to the Commonwealth Pharmacy, Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, on a radio call for a holdup in progress. Upon arrival the officers observed a man run from the drugstore carrying a bag in one hand and a gun in the other. The officers pursued the suspect into Griggs Street and then into a dark alley in the rear of the drugstore. There the suspect attempted to barricade himself behind a parked car. Patrolmen Ridings and Joyce, approaching from separate directions, ordered the suspect to drop his weapon and surrender. The robber slowly complied, dropping a loaded revolver, a brown paper bag containing the proceeds of the robbery, and a number of bottles of assorted drugs also taken in the robbery.

A search warrant was granted in the Brighton District Court for the apartment of the arrested man, where the police seized a quantity of drugs, various types of masks, implements used in by-passing burglar alarms, and other burglarious implements used in various robberies and breaks.

Patrolmen Ridings and Joyce, by their dedication, courage, and effective police action in this case, brought about the apprehension of a dangerous felon who had been preying on druggists in the Brighton area. For their meritorious police work they are awarded the Department Medal of Honor.

Detectives Joseph G. Cunningham and John V. Nee — Major Crime Unit, Criminal Investigation Division; Detective William A. Keough and Juvenile Officer John G. Schroeder — District Four

As a result of a series of vicious assaults, rapes, and armed robberies occurring in the City of Boston an intensive investigation by Detectives Cunningham and Nee of the Criminal Investigation Division with Detective Keough and Juvenile Officer Schroeder of District Four was commenced in March of 1972. Working as a team, their investigation spread into Greater Boston communities and also to Maine and Connecticut. Many suspects were investigated, questioned, and cleared of complicity in these serious crimes. Finally the investigation focused on two male residents of the Boston area and a female nonresident.

Warrants for these subjects were obtained, and bulletins with photos and identification characteristics were distributed to police departments throughout the New England area. Radio broadcasts were dispatched periodically; friends and relatives of the suspects were kept under surveillance; and a description of a motor vehicle being used was obtained and relayed to all law enforcement agencies. Further information was received that the suspects were living out of an automobile on Route 128 and that all were well armed with high-calibre weapons and that they would resist any attempt at capture by the police. Continued pursuit and the gathering of additional information on the suspects resulted in the arrest of one man on Route 128 in Dedham on August 16, 1972, followed by the arrest of the second man on September 7, 1972.

This was an exceptional and outstanding piece of police work, and the diligence, tenacity, and investigative skill displayed by these officers reflected great credit upon them and upon the department that they represent. Two most dangerous and vicious felons were removed from the community, and a total of nineteen forcible rapes, twenty-eight armed robberies, and eight armed home invasions were solved by these arrests. Detectives Cunningham, Nee, and Keough and Juvenile Officer Schroeder are most deserving of their award of the Department Medal of Honor.

Special Order

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, and Districts.
Subject: Police Image and Public Support.
Sir:

Reprinted here for your benefit is an article I prepared which was published in the March, 1967, issue of The Police Chief magazine. I believe it even more relevant now. It goes a long way in explaining my philosophy about police service and what we must all do to accomplish the ultimate goal — true professional status.

"The actions and attitudes of a police officer as they affect police-public relations should be the subject of a complete course of instruction in a police academy. This discussion will merely skim over some points which I hope will be thought-provoking.

"We are in a difficult profession. People, to a great degree, would like to be able to point their finger at something a police officer does incorrectly. What we do with our private lives is, incidentally, even more public than that of the minister or the highest ranking official of the community.

"When anyone engages a law enforcement officer in conversation, the common complaints of lack of money, lack of equipment, lack of the proper respect from the citizenry, and lack of understanding by our courts are sure to crop up in the conversation. The law enforcement officer complains about these problems, but what has he done to help alleviate them? If the officer feels that the courts fail to support law enforcement, that the citizens have no respect for law enforcement officers, that he is not provided with adequate equipment to do his job properly or sufficient salary to feed and clothe his family, shouldn't he attempt to do more than just complain?

"What can he do? He can start with himself.

"Does he take pride in his own uniform, keeping it clean and neat, the leather immaculate and the brass properly shined? Are his personal habits annoying to "Joe Citizen"? Does he chew tobacco or smoke while taking a report, or have a cigarette hanging from his lips while handling an accident investigation? Does he back-slap, poke a finger into the chest while talking, lean on the shoulder of someone in a group, handshake constantly, and participate in loud, rough, boisterous talk and conduct?

"When dealing with the public is he courteous and polite? Does he use four-letter words in expressing himself? Does he say "thank you" when someone makes a kind remark, and does he say, "you're welcome" when a person who has received aid thanks him? Does he give an impression of aloofness, officiousness, and haughtiness? Does he let his attitude show through, or does he attempt to conceal his feelings? Is he sarcastic, flippant? Language itself is important. Does he watch his diction and his English grammar?

"These matters may seem of little consequence and perhaps in a more fundamental analysis may be relatively unimportant, but unfortunately most people judge others by their language and conversation. An officer who uses incorrect English or who engages in questionable conversations will never gain the respect of most citizens.

"Does he swagger in his uniform because he is wearing a uniform and badge and has a revolver at his side? Does he treat people the way he would like to be treated? When people ask him for directions, does he give the information gladly and pleasantly and does he make sure the directions are completely understood? When he issues a citation does he throw his weight around belittling the violator? Does he do this in an aggressive manner, or does he approach the violator courteously, explain the reason the citation is being issued and, after the driver has signed the citation, does he then return the driver's license and a copy of the citation with a "thank you" and walk away; or does he remain to badger the person?

"The public expects us, as police officers, to practice what we preach, to set an example for others. Therefore, it is necessary that we give strict attention to our reputation and conduct off duty as well as on.

"We must lead an exemplary life for the public is hypercritical of us. Many in law enforcement may feel this is unfair, but in taking our oaths of office we have waived many of the privileges of an ordinary citizen. No longer may we conduct our lives freely and according to our own whims.

"If we are to enforce laws and regulations, we must also obey these laws and regulations at all times. When driving a patrol car we cannot ignore proper driving habits. When driving our private vehicles we cannot ignore the rules and regulations just because we are police officers.

"We cannot imbibe freely as others are known to do. We should not frequent local bars. We should drink in moderation and never be observed in the condition of being even slightly intoxicated.

"Being only human, we can be impressed by a well turned ankle or the proper 38-24-36 measurements of a member of the opposite sex. We all know of neighbors who indulge in a little extra-curricular marital activities, and if our neighbor is caught at it, he may have a difficult time with his "war department" for awhile, but he continues working at his regular job without any problems. In a similar situation the law enforcement officer will have his problems with the Mrs., but he then also loses his job, which creates a few financial problems and rightfully so . . . have a "big" story boiling.

"We all talk about professionalizing law enforcement. What have we done to bring this about? Do we take it upon ourselves to extend our education, take courses on our off-duty time in an attempt to better ourselves and present a better picture to the taxpayers? Do we take courses not only in law enforcement but in all types of courses for a well-rounded education? Do we become involved in community life, or do we go around crying on each others' shoulders, saying no one likes us because we're police officers? Do we claim we can't get together with anyone because we don't have the same days off, the same working hours as they do? Do we, whenever possible, make ourselves known in our church? Do we take part in Little League as a manager or a coach? Do we help in preparing the playing fields for the next season? Do we gladly accept the opportunity to speak before groups, or do we make every excuse possible to get out of that speaking engagement?

"Do we go out of our way to wave at people when they wave, especially the younger children whom we should cultivate as friends, or do we drive with tunnel vision, eyes straight ahead, never smiling, in our big patrol cars, nurturing the idea "the public be damned" and, at the same time, not producing as patrolmen because we are not being observant? The normal taxpayer likes to be able to know or recognize a police officer and to have the officer return his greeting. And we should bend over backwards to make friends with the children who very shortly will also be paying those taxes that pay our salaries.

If we do, chances are they will never use the word "fuzz" when talking about the police.

"It is not sufficient simply to complain about our positions or our working conditions. It is up to us to improve our image so law enforcement can be generally recognized as a profession. Every law enforcement officer can be a public relations agent for his own department and for his chosen field of endeavor. Do we see members of other professions accepting free cups of coffee, half-price meals, free passes to ball games or to the movies? They feel this type of action is beneath their dignity. Until the police officer is willing to assume this professional attitude, professionalism for law enforcement will be far in the future.

"If each law enforcement officer is exemplary in his conduct, both on and off duty, if he is truly interested in bettering his position, if he takes time to round out his education—then we certainly will have the respect of our citizens, stronger backing from our judges, better equipment for our departments, and a far higher rate of salary for everyone in law enforcement.

"The challenge is yours."

This memo is not intended to imply that the members of our department are not conducting themselves in the proper manner. It is simply my way of letting the department personnel know how much pride I take in being involved in police service and how we must conduct ourselves so the vast majority of the citizens we protect and serve will be proud of all of us also.

No. 16, from 8 A.M., Sunday, December 9, to 8 A.M., Sunday, December 23.

Officers with more than nine years service as of January 1, 1973, may be permitted, with the approval of the commanding officers, to take all of their four weeks vacation allowance at one time, provided that it is taken outside the summer vacation period.

The time for each vacation in this period shall be determined by lot in the usual manner on Monday, December 18, 1972.
1973 Summer Vacation Periods (For All Members of the Force with Service of One or More Years):

Two weeks vacation.

The time for each officer's vacation during the summer vacation periods shall be determined by their vacation group numbers and shall be assigned in accordance with the Summer Vacation Diversified Schedule.

Not more than one-ninth of the whole number attached to any district entitled to this summer vacation shall be absent on vacation at the same time.

Summer vacation periods to begin and end as follows:

Group No. 5, Vacation No. 1, from 8 A.M., Sunday, May 27, to 8 A.M., Sunday, June 10.

Group No. 8, Vacation No. 2, from 8 A.M., Sunday, June 10, to 8 A.M., Sunday, June 24.

Group No. 4, Vacation No. 9, from 8 A.M., Sunday, September 16, to 8 A.M., Sunday, September 30.

Members of the force with less than one year's service shall be allowed a vacation of one day for each month of service, to be taken at such time as may be arranged by the commanding officers.

For the purpose of determining vacation allowance of more than two weeks, strict adherence will be given to the original date of appointment of a member of the force, plus any additional service in the employ of the state, city, or county to which he may be entitled.

All 1973 vacations shall be completed by December 23, 1973, at 8 A.M., and no officers will be allowed to take more than two weeks vacation during the summer periods.

Five days before each vacation begins commanding officers shall forward to the Bureau of Administration Correspondence Section, a list in triplicate, giving the names of all officers who will be on vacation. Commanding officers of districts and units will maintain a file containing the names and vacation addresses of the officers who are going on each vacation period for ready reference.

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

TRAFFIC RULINGS

Permanent

OFFICIAL ADVERTISEMENT TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT

December 1, 1972.

Whereas, The Traffic and Parking Commission is not in session, now therefore, under the authority granted to me under St. 1929, c. 263, s. 2B, as amended, I hereby promulgate the following:

The Traffic Rules and Regulations of the City of Boston are amended as follows, effective January 1, 1973:

Article III, Section 4, Part 1 (Traffic Signs), is amended so as to read as follows:

(1) Sections 2, 2A, 3, 7, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, and 16A, and Parts 2, 3, and 4 of Section 15, and Part 3 of Section 15A and Part 1 of Section 18 of Article IV relating to parking and Sections 10, 10A, 11, 12, and 14 of Article VI concerning turning and Sections 2, 2A, 3, 5, and 6 and Parts 1, 2, and 3 of Section 4 of Article VII relating to the exclusion of vehicles, shall be effective only during such time as official signs are installed and maintained in each block designating the provisions of such sections.

Article III, Section 5 (Exemptions), is amended by changing the words "Article IV A, Section 4, Part 3" in the second paragraph to read "Article IV, Section 3, Part 3."

Article IV, Section 3, Part 2 (Prohibition of Parking), is amended by adding at the end of the preamble the following words: "and further provided that this regulation shall not apply on Sundays wherever the hours indicated are not '24 hours.'"

Article IV, Section 3, is amended by adding the following new part:

(3) No driver shall stop, stand, or park any vehicle during the hours from 8 A.M. to 9:30 A.M. on any day except Sunday in any street in the part of the downtown area bounded by the easterly line of North Washington Street, by the northeasterly line of Blackstone Street, by the southeasterly line of North Street, by the northeasterly line of Cross Street, by the northwesterly line of Commercial Street, by the northerly line of Eastern Avenue and the northerly line of Eastern Avenue extended to Boston Harbor, by Boston Harbor and Fort Point Channel, by the southwesterly line of Summer Street, by the southeasterly line of Washington Street, by the westerly line of Broadway, by the westerly line of Park Square, by the westerly line of Charles Street, by the southerly line of Beacon Street, by the easterly line of Bowdoin Street, by the southerly line of Cambridge Street, by the westerly line of Stanford Street, and by the northerly line of Causeway Street.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to passenger vehicles stopped temporarily during the actual receiving or discharging of passengers nor to commercial vehicles stopped temporarily during the actual loading or unloading of materials; nor shall said provisions apply to any vehicle owned by a disabled veteran or by a handicapped person and bearing a distinctive number plate authorized by Section 2 of Chapter 90 of the General Laws, except in streets where parking of vehicles is otherwise prohibited under the provisions of Article IV, Section 3, Part 2, of these Traffic Rules and Regulations.

The provisions of Article IV, Section 3, Part 3, prohibiting the parking or standing of any vehicle between 8 A.M. and 9:30 A.M. in a part of the downtown area shall not apply to the following streets where parking or standing a vehicle is not otherwise prohibited:

Canal Street.

From Causeway Street to New Chardon Street.

Haverhill Street.

From Causeway Street to Traverse Street.

Lancaster Street.

From Causeway Street to Merrimac Street.
